Landry-Moreside

Wedding

A pretty autumn wedding took place at St. Dunstan's Basilica, Charlottetown, on Thursday morning, Oct. 26th, at 8:15, when Lilian Dorothy Moreside, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Moreside, City, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Harold Lawrence Landry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Landry, Georgetown.

The marriage ceremony and nuptial mass was performed by Rev. Patrick McMahon, D.D., Rector. The bride, given in marriage by her father, looked very attractive in a brown wool gabardine suit with winter white accessories and wore a corsage of yellow mums and baby's breath. The bride was attended by her cousin, Miss Doris McEachern, who wore a wine gabardine suit with gray accessories and corsage of mums and baby's breath.

The groom was supported by his friend, Mr. Wilfred Gobeil of Georgetown. During the ceremony the "Ave Marie" and other appropriate hymns were sung by Mr. Frank MacIntyre of Charlottetown.

After the marriage the bridal party with immediate friends, motored to the Queen Hotel where the wedding breakfast and reception was held.

The bride was assisted in receiving by her mother who wore a gown of turquoise blue crepe with black accessories and corsage of pink carnations, while the groom's mother chose a gown of wine crepe with matching accessories and corsage of carnations. Also assisting at the reception was the groom's grandmother, Mrs. Mabel Lavers, Georgetown.

The bride and groom left on a short honeymoon by plane to Nova Scotia. On their return they will reside in Charlottetown where the groom is employed with the Maritime Electric.

Previous to her marriage the bride was tendered a miscellaneous shower at the home of her sister, Mrs. R. J. Jackson, Orlebar St., when she received many beautiful presents. A dainty lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Shirley McRae, Miss Doris McEachern, Mrs. Les Lerner and Mrs. W. D. Berrigan.

On their return they were tendered a reception at the Georgetown "Cosy Hall" by their friends in that vicinity here. They received many useful and valuable presents, which testified to the popularity of the groom.

The evening was spent in music and dancing, refreshments being served by the ladies present. The evening was brought to a close by all wishing the bride and groom many happy years of wedded life.

Business Spotlight

(By Forbes Rhude, Canadian Press Business Editor) Here is something which may bring "amens" from people who make speeches. It comes from A. R. Haskell, general manager of the Toronto Better Business Bureau, Inc., who is called upon to address various business organizations.

some subjects on which he has special knowledge or information, they imply that a fair proportion of the group is interested. "Naturally, he spends some time preparing his talk in addition to the personal leisure he gives up on the evening he speaks. So it is only courtesy that the officers of the organization should try to ensure a large enough attendance to make the speaker feel it has been worth his while."

Mr. Haskell adds these other points: Give the speaker warning enough so that he has an opportunity to prepare his talk. Even though he makes no charge for his services, try to see that he has no out-of-pocket expenses for transportation, meals, gasoline or hotel bills. And: The most unfair thing that club groups do to a speaker is to precede his talk with a long business meeting or series of reports. Then, when the air is heavy and the audience fidgety, they call upon him to speak. RIVERVIEW W. I. On Monday evening, October 2nd, the Riverview Institute held its monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Frank Bagnall with the president, Mrs. Eoghan Bagnall presiding. Thirteen members and three visitors were present.

Mr. Wood, Field Secretary for the Institute of the Blind was present and gave a concise report of what was being done in their behalf -- he stressed the importance of children being taught to value and protect their eyes. He also mentioned that a campaign for Funds was to be organized at a later date.
