

Discuss Senior Employment For French Canadian People

OTTAWA (CP)—The problem of senior employment for French-Canadian and other minorities is the subject of a bill introduced in the Commons for the fourth time Thursday.

Bell is seeking parliamentary authority to boost the number of its directors to 20 from 15. This is the sole provision of the bill, presented at a private bill and therefore limited to one hour of debating time each week.

Joseph Pigeon (PC)—Joliette (La-Ascension - Montcalm) pledged with Lloyd Francis (L - Carleton) and Bryce Mackenzie (L - Verdun) on the employment question.

He learned with Arnold Peers (NDP - Timiskaming) in fighting for nationalization of the privately-owned telephone company which operates mostly in Ontario and Quebec.

The debate was the high point of a day in which the Commons drew away at the government's request for inter-ceding authority for August and September, a measure being in fighting for nationalization of the privately-owned telephone company which operates mostly in Ontario and Quebec.

SAIGON (AP) - Communist guerrilla machine-gun fire raked forward elements of a South Vietnamese Ranger battalion advancing cautiously through guerrilla-infested jungle Thursday, killing a U.S. Army captain and nine Rangers. The battalion had moved about eight miles in eight hours during the preceding night, headed toward embattled Binh Chai, 30 miles north of Saigon. Just before dawn automatic weapons of the Viet Cong guerrillas opened up over the paddy region across open rice paddy fields.
