

THE DAILY EXAMINER. AUGUST 17, 1882.

THE Annual Gathering of the sons of "Auld Scotia" is as enthusiastic to-day as it ever was in the days that are past.

That Lashing Grit Letter.

MR. BLAIN'S letter is a bitter pill to the Reform Party. The groans and wails consequent on the swallowing of the medicine are amusing.

The Ulemas.

"Too Many Cooks."

THE London Times employs a numerous staff of leader writers. Sometimes, the vigilant eye of the editor neglects its duty in cutting out contradictory opinions on the same subject, and in the same week.

Hard on the Editor.

SOME of the sentences passed on political prisoners in Austria seem strange to our Western ideas. A short time ago some Ruthenes, in Austria, were convicted of high treason for seeking to dismember the empire by urging the separation of one of the Provinces.

for the priest, because he was supposed to be a pious Catholic. The bootmaker must have felt a sinking sensation as he looked at the last meal of the thirteenth day.

The Victory.

THE EXAMINER has acknowledged many kind remarks made by contemporaries on the mainland concerning Mr. Prowse's election.

"The Local Government of Prince Edward Island is, without doubt, one of the most efficient and honest that the Island ever had.

After describing the two candidates for the vacant seat, the Herald goes on to say:

The result was the triumphant election of Mr. Prowse, and a most emphatic and unqualified endorsement of the Government.

The formal announcement of the great International Fisheries Exhibition for 1883 has just been made.

The meeting at St. John seems to have been quite a tame affair. Those present were divided in sentiment as to the best means of doing honour to the brave men who stuck so loyally to the British flag.

Germany on the Situation.

BERLIN, Aug. 13.—The Grenzboten, the officially inspired organ, says Germany cannot risk the loss of the good will of other powers by paralyzing or contracting their policy, unless she is absolutely forced to do so.

Vigorous.

THE New York Commercial Bulletin has the following vigorous words respecting the fire-brand of the East: It would be well if M. de Lesseps, instead of playing the mountebank on the banks of the Suez Canal, were superintending his scheme at Panama, where his officers and laborers are dying by the hundred and spending money by the million without anything to show in results.
