IN MEMORIAM

HASLAM—In loving memory of a dear sister Olive V. Haslam, who passed away Dec. 11th, 1961. Calm and peaceful she is sleeping.

Sweetest rest follows pain; Who we loved her sadly miss; But trust in God to meet again. Lovingly remembered by sister Eunice.

SMITH—In loving memory of my dear Mother, Mrs. Lorenzo Smith, who passed away December 10, 1963. Ever remembered by a daughter, Edna.

GILLIS—In loving memory of Mrs. Daniel J. Gillis, who died December 11, 1963. We did not meet special day To bring her to our mind. The days we do not think of her Are very hard to find. Fondly remembered by husband and family.

MONTEITH—In loving memory of our dear Mother, Mrs. B. Monteith, who died December 11th, 1958. Gone but not forgotten. Remembered by wife, Mary.

JENKINS—In loving memory of my father, Edgar Jenkins, who died on December 10, 1962. The years go by but memories stay. As time goes by and yesterday Time takes away the edge of grief. But memories turn back every day. Always remembered and sadly missed by son Francis and wife Gerry and family, Sydney.

CARR—In loving memory of L.-Cl. Stanford W. Carr who was killed in action in Italy December 11, 1944. Those we love we never lose. For always they will be, and we will never be insured. Always in our memory. Lovingly remembered by parents, brothers and sister.

MAcNEILL—In loving memory of Andrew R. MacNeill, who passed away December 11, 1962. Sadly missed and ever remembered by wife and son.

MAcNEILL—In loving memory of my dear brother, Andrew R. MacNeill, who died December 11th, 1962. Always remembered and sadly missed by Mrs. A. Acorn, brother Harold and wife.

CARR—In loving memory of L.-Cl. Stanford W. Carr killed in action in Italy on December 11, 1944. Remembrance is a golden chain. Death tries to break but all in vain. To have to love and then to part Is the greatest sorrow of man's heart. If all the world were ours to give Of love it, yes and more To clasp your hands again And hear your voice once more. If you have a husband or father, Treasure him with care, For you never know his value Until there's memories to cherish. Ever remembered by wife and son, Ruth and Kenneth.

PAQUET—In loving memory of our dear father and grandfather Frank Paquet, who passed away December 11, 1962. We miss you daddy darling And sad we are today. For life has never been the same. Since you were called away, You left us without warning. Maybe it's just as well. We never could have said goodbye.

Fondly remembered and sadly missed by wife Mary, daughter Rev. L. Wells and all our numerous friends who helped in so many special ways. Also in sympathy and courtesies extended to us during our recent bereavement.

CAMPBELL—At Montague December 8th, 1963, Haldane A. Campbell in his 77th year. Husband of the late Montague F. Campbell. Funeral from the Charlottetown Funeral Home. Funeral notice later.
