Rector Of St. Paul's Church Addresses Laymen's Ass'n

In his annual address to St. Paul's Laymen's Association given at the monthly supper meeting in the Parish Hall last night, Rev. Canon J. T. Ibbott reviewed the important part played by the laity in the church activities during the past year and indicated the major activities in prospect for the current year. In stressing the necessity of a strong loyalty to the Church—the Body of Christ—the Rector defined the One Holy Catholic (Universal) and Apostolic Church of which the Anglican Communion is a branch, illustrating his talk with descriptive matter indicating the inter-dependence of the various parts. Canon Ibbott was introduced by President Tom D. DeBlois and thanked for his highly instructive address by G. B. Woodside. Prior to the presentation of the 7th, Group Boy Scout Charter to St. Paul's Laymen's Association as sponsors, by District Commissioner G. C. Fisher, an outline of routine requirements was given by Gordon Kerr, Provincial Executive Commissioner. In accepting the Charter, President Ibbott drew attention to its content and urged the members to support the Scout Group Committee in advancing the interests of the boys as their unit

U. S. Moves Rapidly With Defence Bill

WASHINGTON (CP) — The House of Representatives agreed Tuesday to vote today on a $548,226,000 authorization bill for space-age defence. Prompt clearance by the House rules committee was expected for the legislation, which came to Congress only a week ago. It is part of President Eisenhower's request for $1,260,000,000 in supplemental defence funds for the fiscal year ending June 30. The House and Senate continued their investigations of U.S. progress in ballistic missiles. It was reported on the House side the navy will be firing test models of its 1,500-mile Polaris missile by early 1960. The Polaris, designed for launching from atomic submarines above or below water, has been described in some quarters as the best weapon in sight to counter Soviet intercontinental missiles. Defence Secretary Neil McElroy, testifying at closed-door sessions of the House armed services committee, is reported to have held out hope that production orders for test models of the Polaris will be issued before July 1, 1959. At the Senate inquiry, George M. Bunker, an executive of the Glenn L. Martin Company, was quoted as saying production of the air force Titan, a 5,000-mile missile, could be speeded up to "relatively small financial risk."

Zion Y. P. S. Holds Meeting

Zion Young People's Society held their regular weekly meeting on Tuesday, January 14th. The devotional period was led by Judy Millar and Florence Montgomery. The scripture reading was taken from Psalm 96. Hymns sung were "Stand Up, Stand Up For Jesus" and "Jesus Calls Us O'er the Tumult." The meditation was entitled "The New Road". The president, Mary Farquharson, opened the business meeting with prayer. The young people were reminded that Thursday night, January 16th, the secretary and treasurer would read their annual reports at the annual congregational meeting. A letter was read from the secretary of the Island Y. P. S. with regards to the Presbytery projects. The young people then adjourned to the lower hall for games led by Edgar Ellis. The meeting closed with the singing of "Blest Be The Tie That Binds".

Chorale Annual Meeting Is Held

The annual meeting of the Charlottetown Chorale was held last evening with a full attendance. After a practice session the following officers were elected for the year 1958: President, Miss Lillian Duchemin; Vice-president, Mrs. Pauline Haslam; Secretary, Miss Peggy Beck; Telephone Committee, Miss Dorothy Laird and Miss Dorothy Baxter; Music, Mrs. Esther Walters; Publicity, Mrs. Lois MacLaren; Treasurer, Mrs. Verna Anderson; Entertainment, Mrs. Jeanette Carson; and Librarian, Mrs. Ruth Enman. The Chorale under the direction of Mr. W. K. Rogers and with Mrs. K. S. Rogers as accompanist plans for a busy year, appearing first of all at the Burns Concert which will be held in the near future.

12 New Members As Trinity Y. P. U. Meetings Resume

Trinity Y. P. U. began their 1958 meetings with an attendance of 85 members, including 12 new members. The evening began with a lively sing-song led by Bruce Hodgins followed by recreation led by Chuck Walper, Health Costain, John Goshee, Wendall Con. The members were then divided into commissions in which the general outline of the Y. P. U. program was presented after which a short business meeting was held. A cake-sale is planned for Friday evening January 24th. An inspiring worship service closed the meeting.

Has Praise For Role Of McGill

SEIGNIORY CLUB Que. (CP) McGill University Tuesday was hailed for its role in mobilizing support of graduates for higher education. Executive director Ernest T. Stewart told delegates to No. 1 district of the American Alumni Council that Canadian universities pat themselves after British institutions of higher learning. "But in the field of alumni organization which is peculiar to this continent Canadian institutions have made very important progress in mobilizing the support of their alumni under the example of McGill." The district holding its second session in Canada comprises the New England states, the Maritime provinces and Quebec. The graduates society of McGill is host. Mr. Stewart became the first full-time director in 1951, when the council established an office in Washington D.C. "There is urgent need for educated manpower," Mr. Stewart said. "The need is growing. We look to alumni for invaluable assistance not only in providing an important segment of the necessary funds to train this manpower but also to help create the atmosphere in which institutions of higher learning can do their best work."

Mr. B. F. Tinney

Agricultural College at Truro and, after a successful scholastic career there, entered the degree course at the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph, Ontario, graduating in 1920 with the degree of Bachelor of Science in Agriculture. At the completion of his college training Mr. Tinney was appointed Assistant to the Superintendent Dr. J. A. Clark at the Charlottetown Experimental Farm. In his early work at the Experimental Farm Mr. Tinney assisted in various divisions having charge, in turn, of the cultural area, rotational experiments and cereal investigations. During recent years with the increase in the Farm staff his time has been devoted almost entirely to poultry investigations. He was one of the first to use the system of pedigree testing by family lines. This method of breeding was responsible for greatly increasing the production of the farm flock, as well as other flocks in the province and elsewhere where breeding stock was shipped.

In 1923 Mr. Tinney was awarded a Donald Scholarship and took his postgraduate training at Macdonald College, Quebec, where he obtained the degree of Master of Science in Agriculture. This scholarship was one of the first group of scholarships sponsored by the Imperial Tobacco Company of Canada. In his undergraduate work Mr. Tinney majored in Agronomy and in his postgraduate work majored in Plant Breeding, with a minor in Plant Pathology.

In 1924 Mr. Tinney married the former Margaret (Bud) Dalling and they have one son, Donald, now with the A. Pickard Farm Machinery Company. Mr. Tinney is a Charter and Life Member of the Agricultural Institute of Canada and in 1953 and 1954 was Maritime Director of the Institute. He is also President of the local branch of the Professional Institute of the Federal Civil Service, Honorary Director of the Camera Club, Director of the Charlottetown Y. M. C. A., and held various offices in the Knights of Pythias Lodge until the local chapter disbanded in 1955.

In addition to being an agriculturist, Mr. Tinney is noted for his work in woodwork and photography and his retirement gives him an opportunity to develop these hobbies to the full. His many friends wish him the best and hope that his retirement will only mark a phase in an interesting career.

HALIFAX (CP)—The weather office says rain and freezing rain will spread into Nova Scotia today, with up to five inches of snow forecast for New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island. Strong easterly winds and milder temperatures will accompany the disturbance. Clear and colder page of pillage and plunder. Then they slipped away at nightfall. Castro's men set fire to sugar cane fields, smashed equipment, burned automobiles and buses, attacked trains and seized prisoners. It was the first time in the 13 months of Castro's guerrilla war against the government that his forces had penetrated the outskirts of Manzanillo.

Apparently Castro pulled back his forces rather than risk an open battle with government troops. The army long has awaited a chance to meet the outnumbered Castro rebels in an open fight.
