Double Ring Ceremony Unites Happy Couple

A pretty wedding was solemnized in St. Michael's Church, Chatham, New Brunswick, when Mary Jacqueline Olsen, daughter of Mr. John Olsen and the late Mrs. Olsen, became the bride of Ronald Samuel McCormick, son of Mr. and Mrs. John McCormick, Charlottetown, P.E.I.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by Rev. W. J. Wallace. Miss Lourdes O'Reilly was guest soloist and the church organist. Mrs. L. G. Babineau, president of the organ.

Donald McDonald acted as best man and the ushers were Joe Gillis and Vic Zimlesinski.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, looked charming in a street-length dress of pink tulle, princess styled with a scoop neckline and three quarter-length sleeves. She wore a pink feather hat with veil. Her only jewellery was a pearl necklace and matching earrings. She carried a cascade bouquet of flowers.

Outdoor Weekends Are Enjoyed In Laurentians

Shirley McNeill has an interesting article in the Montreal Gazette entitled "Hills Provide Girls with New Friends." The girls referred to are Miss Suzanne Palmer, daughter of Judge Harold Palmer and Mrs. Palmer, Charlottetown, and Miss Joy Gordon.

The latter visited this city in the interests of the Dupont firm, sales promotion department. The Montreal write-up is accompanied by a photograph of Suzanne and Joy setting out for a weekend in the Laurentians. The following is the article:

"One of the best ways for new comers to make friends in Montreal is to 'take to the hills.' That at least, has been the answer for a group of girls who have been making weekend skiing jaunts to the Laurentians for the past two seasons.

It all started, said Joy Gordon and Suzanne Palmer — the organizers of the ski weekends — "from a brief meeting over a tea table in a Montreal boarding house."

Finding they shared an enthusiasm for outdoor weekends, they decided to do something about it. Suzanne rented a "ski house" in Ste. Adele and from there the plan mushroomed. "It was a matter of knowing a few girls who knew others. Now we have 14 girls in on the plan," said Suzanne.

Joy and Suzanne come from opposite sides of Canada — Joy is a Vancouverite and Suzanne is from Prince Edward Island. "The other girls are from places scattered all across the country."

FULL HOUSE

The ski house in Ste. Adele can't house 14 girls on a single weekend, but this is a problem that doesn't arise. "A lot of the girls are nurses and stewardesses which means they can't get away every weekend. But we always have a full house."

Mrs. E. V. Bell Is The New President Of Q. M. N. G.

The annual meeting of the Queen Mary Needlework Guild was held at the home of the vice president, Mrs. George DeBlois and opened with the Lord's Prayer. A large attendance marked the completion of 40 years of uninterrupted work for charitable purposes.

Present at the meeting was Mrs. F. W. Hyndman, wife of the Lieutenant Governor, who graciously consented to act as Patroness. Regrets were expressed at the absence of the honorary president, Mrs. F. E. Smallwood and the president, Mrs. H. E. Miller.

The resignation of Mrs. Miller was before the meeting. Thanks and appreciation was voiced for Mrs. Miller's many years of service and interest in all phases of the guild's work. With this vote of appreciation was incorporated an expression of deep sympathy for the retiring president in the great loss she has sustained in the death of her husband, whose assistance to and interest in the guild, during his wife's term of office was evident at all times.

Since the meeting bereavement has also come to the Honorary President, Mrs. Smallwood, who since the inception of the Society has been one of its most valued members. Dr. Smallwood was unflinching in helping to pack, transport and post overseas parcels, and in many other ways was of great assistance to the work.

The correspondence was of a very interesting nature. Several letters had been received from utes from the ski slopes at St. Adele. "We put on our skis at the front door and in five minutes we're on the hill," Joy said.

Most of the girls leave Montreal behind Friday nights and spend all day Saturday skiing. After a whole day in the outdoors, one can imagine what our appetites are like," they laughed. "We have our one big meal of the weekend on Saturday night."

The girls share the expenses for food as they do the work of preparing it. Suzanne estimated the cost was about $1.50 a weekend for each girl. "We don't buy the most expensive steaks, but we like good plain food — and lots of it."

How do they arrange the cooking duties? "We don't," the girls admitted. "The person who gets hungry first usually starts the meals. And we have a standing rule that whoever cooks, doesn't have to wash dishes."

Social life is as important a pattern of the skiing weekend as skiing itself Saturday night has become "dropping-in" night at the girls' Laurentian house. Sunday too, is a day for calling.

Both Suzanne and Joy have found their weekends in the country have given them a chance to meet "a tremendous number of people." And they've improved their skiing as well. Both in sales promotion, the girls travel a great deal to all parts of the country. "But we still find time for everything. The more things we do, the more we seem to have time for," they agreed.

To the great satisfaction of the meeting Mrs. E. V. Bell consented to allow her name to stand for nomination to the vacant office of president. With this addition a slate of officers was elected by the casting of a ballot.

In June, 1957 after the display of the season's work at the home of the secretary, a large consignment of children's clothes was sent to the Prince Edward Island Protestant Orphanage and an attractive collection of knitted garments for babies was posted overseas to the Queen Mary Maternity Hospital and for distribution to deserving cases by the London Branch.

The usual much appreciated invitation was received to the annual meeting of the London Branch in March. As one from the province was in England at the time, Mrs. E. A. Blake, wife of Group-Captain Blake, R.A.F. acted as the Charlottetown Branch representative, Mrs. Blake during her 3 years in the city was a valued and enthusiastic member. Quotations from her letters following on the meeting will appear at a later date.

The most outstanding feature of the annual was the donations brought in by the members of nearly 100 warm garments for men, women and children of Korea. These were later packed in 3 cartons by Mrs. F. A. S. Jones and sent through the kind offices of the Unitarian Service Committee of Canada, whose outstanding representative, Dr. Lotta Hitchmanova, in the summer of 1957 at Prince of Wales College home for the May meeting. The business portion of the evening's program being concluded, Mrs. Estelle Dennis took over and conducted several contests, which called for considerable thought and provided fund for all. A highlight of the evening's entertainment was a humorous reading and demonstration by Mrs. Myrtle Miller, a visitor from Regaleite Lodge, Alberton, and last but not least was the delicious lunch provided by the committee — Mrs. Lauretta White, Mrs. Elsie Campbell, Mrs. Edith Davison and Mrs. Eliza Hansen.

Minutes of last meeting were approved as read. Correspondence was then read and discussed. Mrs. Oscar MacKay and Mrs. Morton Adams were appointed to look up names of deceased members and report to W. I. officers.

Membership to C.A.C. is to be paid $2.00 was voted for Ceylon disaster fund. Rules were read regarding tea apron competition. Questionnaire on cultural activities was read and discussed. The treasurer's report showed that a substantial sum had been realized from concert held March 26th. It was decided to repeat concert at a later date.

Mrs. Bessie Holman Is Hostess To The P. N. G.'s

On Thursday, April 10th, the regular monthly meeting of Alpha Rebekah Past Noble Grands' Club was held at the home of Mrs. Ralph Jenkins, North River Road, with Mrs. Bessie Holman acting as hostess.

The regular order of business was conducted by the president, Mrs. Pearl MacKay. One of the items discussed was the holding of an afternoon tea in the near future in the new I.O.O.F. quarters on Sydney Street.

Mrs. Elsie Campbell, St. Peters Road, invited the club to her home for the May meeting. The business portion of the evening's program being concluded, Mrs. Estelle Dennis took over and conducted several contests, which called for considerable thought and provided fund for all.
