U.S. RATIFIES NAVAL TREATY

Senate Passes Treaty After Short Debate.

(A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire) WASHINGTON, May 18. — The United States Senate late today ratified by voice vote the 1936 London Naval Treaty.

Great Britain and France are the other parties to the agreement. The treaty provides among other things, that signatory nations give advance notice each year of their building programs and furnish specific information at least four months before any keel is laid and during the construction of the vessel.

It also stipulates that capital ships be divided into two categories: (a) They must be between 17,500 and 35,000 tons and carry 14-inch guns (an escape clause provides that 16-inch guns may be installed if Japan and Italy do not concur in such a gun calibre limitation); (b) ships must be limited to 8,000 tons with six inch guns.

Ratification was given after two hours debate.

Speaking after Chairman Pittman (D-New.) of the foreign relations committee had briefly outlined the chief provision of the pact and submitted his committee's favorable report, several Senators voiced disapproval at the treaty's provisions but did not directly oppose ratification.

Batter Up! Commoners Vs Speaker's Staff

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

OTTAWA, May 18.—Prime Minister Mackenzie King will toss the first ball tomorrow in a twilight softball classic that will see teams from the House of Commons and the Speaker's staff tangle for the first time in more than two decades.

Speaker Casgrain will be at bat for the first strike and Rt. Hon. R. B. Bennett will umpire. The game will be played with a ball donated by Finance Minister Dunning and a bat given by Marine Minister Howe. It will take place on the lawn of Parliament Hill.

The game will be the first between the House and the staff since the beginning of the Great War. The last time W. A. P. LeLonde, then a messenger and now postmaster for the Parliament Buildings, hit a home run that went through a window on the far side of Wellington Street. They played hard ball in those days.

The parliamentarians will field a team of 14 members, apparently guarding against possible fold-ups from short-windedness. The Speaker's staff, with youth on its side, kept its lineup secret.

Denton Massey (Cons., Toronto-Greenwood) and Hugh Plaxton (Lib., Toronto-Trinity), first and second in the House beauty ballot, will be on the mound for the commoners. Lionel Chevrier (Lib., Stornont) will catch.

The House-team manager, Rev. Daniel McIvor (Lib. Fort William), appeared undecided what positions the other 11 members of his squad would play. He named them as: Ralph Maybank (Lib. Winnipeg South Centre), Paul Martin (Lib. Essex East), Charles Cameron (Lib. Hastings South), Charles Howard (Lib. Sherbrooke), Donald McNiven (Lib. Regina), Gordon Ross (Lib. Moosejaw), H. S. Hamilton (Lib. Algonia West), E. E. Peley (Cons. Qu'Appelle), W. R. MacDonald (Lib. Brantford), G. W. McDonald (Lib. Souris), W. F. Rickard (Lib. Durham).

Could not get Well

Now rid of all pain. Can eat anything—thanks to FRUIT-A-TIVES

"For months nervous indigestion prevented me from eating or drinking anything without pain and gas. I tried remedy after remedy without success. Then I started Fruit-a-tives. The first box gave wonderful results and in a few weeks I was rid of all pain. Now I can eat anything and feel relaxed."—Mr. A. Andrews, St. Catharines, Ont. Fruit-a-tives are more than a corrective. They contain extracts from ten of nature's most health-giving ingredients. As natural as effective. Fruit-a-tives bring lasting relief to them. One trial will convince you.

In Memoriam

ENID MARION OWEN

Sorrow entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Owen, North River, on January the sixth, when their youngest daughter Enid Marion, was taken from them.

Sadness indeed was the community to hear of the death of this beautiful little girl at the early age of two years, and nine months.

Rev. J. G. Wakeing conducted the funeral service which was held on the eighth. A fitting tribute to the little girl was expressed in sermon, poem and song, and to the parents, to the grandfather, to the brothers Kier, Eric, Ernest, Allison, to the sisters Bessie and Hylia words of comfort were extended.

"Safe in the Arms of Jesus" and "When He Cometh" were sung by a trio of male voices. Rev. J. G. Wakeing, Mr. Everett Stevenson and Mr. Ernest White were the singers.

The four uncles Ernest, Howard, Edward and Vincent White were the pall bearers.

Borne with the body to East Wiltshire cemetery were the floral tributes from the following—Uncles and Aunts of the White family, Mr. and Mrs. Baker, and Mr. and Mrs. Chelms.
