Murder Charge Laid In Nfld.

CORNER BROOK, Nfld. (CP) — Joseph Clevis Marche, 22, of Lourdes, 70 miles southwest of here, was charged with capital murder Wednesday in the death of Douglas Young, 76, also of Lourdes.

The elderly man's body was found under a bed in the bungalow where he lived alone. The parish priest, Rev. Richard Tompkins, and Dr. D. T. Kim summoned police when a neighbor reported the bungalow locked and could get no reply from Young.

A cord, believed to be a bootlace, was found around the man's neck and there was a bruise on his temple.

RCMP said they recovered $300 believed to have belonged to the dead man.

Marche was remanded in custody.
