First Cruise In Salt Water For Three U.S. Ships In Ten Years

Three U. S. Coastal Patrol vessels docked at the Railway Wharf shortly before noon on Saturday. The ships, normally based on the Great Lakes, were in salt water for the first time in ten years.

The vessels, the N. S. S. Farmington, under the command of Lt. D. W. Jones, the U. S. S. Ely, under the command of Lt. J. G. Ammerman, the U. S. S. Portage, under the command of Lt. J. W. Harris, are U. S. naval reserve training vessels and are slightly smaller than a destroyer.

Each ship has an overall length of 184 feet, weigh 903 tons and carries a complement of 100 men and officers.

Leaving their home ports three weeks ago, the vessels proceeded down river to Rochester N. Y. En route they were caught in an ice jam on the St. Clair River. They left Rochester on May 4 on their present voyage and arrived at Montreal on May 6th. Before visiting here the ships paused for a brief stay at Quebec.

Scheduled to leave here this morning at 7 a. m. the flotilla will head for Newport, Rhode Island.

While in this port, one of the officers, Lieut.-Commander Victor Radlinski, had the pleasure of visiting his sister, Mrs. Fred MacMillan, 298 Richmond St.

Various receptions were held for the officers and men of the three ships during their short visit here.

Yesterday afternoon a reception was held at Government House in honor of the visiting officers. The reception was attended by Mayor Edwin C. Johnstone, Premier A. W. Matheson and officers of the three branches of the service.

Also on Sunday the ratings of the ships were taken on a bus tour of the Island. On Saturday afternoon softball and basketball games were enjoyed by the men and on Saturday evening a reception was held in the ward room of H.M.C.S. Queen Charlotte for the officers and a dance at the Rollaway for the ratings.

President Of Music Festival Calls Growth Phenomenal

BY GORDON L. BENNETT
President P.E.I. Musical Festival Association.

It is a pleasure for me to bring to you a brief message as we make final preparations for the vocal and instrumental competitions of our 13th annual Festival of Music in Prince Edward Island.

The growth of the music festival movement in Prince Edward Island has been truly phenomenal since our first festival in 1946. The total number of entries this year has hit an all-time high of twenty-three hundred. From these entries we expect to hear and see approximately eight thousand participants by the time the competitions conclude on May 17th.

The Festival of Music provides an opportunity for all these individuals to perform good music. To have it competently judged, and to maintain proper standards through friendly competition. And the beauty of it is these opportunities are made available to thousands who, very often, have no other outlet of expression.

Wouldn't you like to support an organization which provides such opportunities? I'm sure you would.

This support may take various forms. You may become a member of the Association upon the payment of one dollar or obtain a life membership by paying twenty-five dollars; as a member, you may assist as a volunteer worker during the Festival period, you may show you are interested in our activities by attending as many sessions as you possibly can.

Your support in the past has been most generous and we hope it will continue during our present Festival.

Baccalaureate Sermon Heard At S.D.U. Chapel Sunday

Coping with the forces of secularism, materialism, and atheistic communism which they would encounter in the work-a-day world would require the constant application of the sound Christian principles they have been taught, Rev. Anthony J. Francis, Eastern Peggage, N.S. told SDU's 1958 graduating class in the Baccalaureate sermon preached at the College Chapel yesterday morning.

Christianity should be taught at all levels of education, said Father Francis, a former native of Charlottetown and an SDU alumnus.

"Let your light shine before men," he declared, emphasizing that it was necessary that they live always in such a manner as to give "good example" to all in the sphere in which they lived.

Solemn Pontifical High Mass was celebrated at 11:00 a.m. by Most Rev. Malcolm A. MacEachern, D.D., Bishop of Charlottetown.

Rt. Rev. R.V. MacKenzie was High Priest and Rev. Walter Reid and Rev. Francis Cameron Deacons of Honor.

Rev. Francis Corcoran was Deacon of the Mass, and Rev. William Simpson Sub-Deacon.

Relatives and friends of the graduating class filled the Chapel to capacity.

Wayne Power, Leonard Praught, Ipphie Landry, John James, Francis Tam, William Power, Basil Gallant, Howard White, Winston Pineau.

Passed: Eric Arsenault, Martin Clooney, George MacCormac, John Carragher, Victor Scott, George Trainor.
