

Don't Leave the Farm.

Come boys, I have something to tell you: Come near, I would whisper it low— You are thinking of leaving the homestead, Don't be in a hurry to go.

The city has many attractions, But think of the vices and sins; When once in the vortex of fashion, How soon the course downward begins.

You talk of the mines, boys— They are wealthy in gold, no doubt; But ah! there is gold in the farm, boys, If only you'll shovel it out.

The mercantile trade is a hazard— The goods are first high and then low, Better risk the old farm awhile longer; Don't be in a hurry to go.

The farm is the safest and surest, The orchards are loaded to-day; You're as free as the air in the mountains, And monarch of all you survey.

Better stay on the farm longer, Though the profits come in rather slow, Remember, you've nothing to risk, boys, Don't be in a hurry to go.
