THE DAILY EXAMINER.

DECEMBER 3, 1889.

Notes and Comments.

—Why not organize a St. George's Society in Charlottetown? "Better late than never."

—Canada may proudly bear in mind, now that the thoughts of civilization are largely centred on Stanley and his work that one of the explorers' compagnons de voyage is Lieut. Stairs, a graduate of Kingston Military College, Kingston Since shortly after the transfer of Canada to the British Crown, she has contributed a considerable number of valiant solders to the Imperial army, who, in the Napoleonic wars, the wars of 1812-14, the Crimea, the Indian mutiny, Afghanistan, Egypt, and the great Dark Continent, have followed the flag and done honor to their country. The Royal Military College has done much to maintain Canada's reputation for valor, skill and loyalty.

—Advices from Fredericton state that the best of friendly feeling prevails between the victors and the vanquished in the recent Scott Act election. The liquor men take their defeat philosophically, and the temperance people are, of course, jubilant over their victory. On the day after the election not a drop of liquor was to be had at the hotel bars. On the evening of the election a Thanksgiving Meeting was held, at which the determination was expressed that the Act should be rigidly enforced. A citizen's executive committee was formed for that purpose, and in less than half an hour $2,200 was subscribed Of this amount Hon. A. F. Randolph put his name down for $500; Alexander Gibson, $200; D. F. George, $200; A. G. Edgecombe, $100, and W. Johnson, $100. This certainly looks like business.

—In 1888 all Canada exported to United States agricultural products and minerals, and their produce to the total value of $17,902,021. In the same year the United States exported to Canada of products coming under these heads to the value of $19,414,298, a balance of a million and a half against Canada. The Moncton Times remarks: "Remove the tariffs and Canadian farmers may sell more potatoes and lambs to Uncle Sam, but Uncle Sam will sell more beef and pork to us. This being so, where will the advantage come in for the Canadian farmer? Can he afford to give up the raising of animals that give him a large indirect return in fertilizers, and devote all his lands to the production of potatoes, a crop requiring a rich soil?"

—The Montreal Gazette remarks that "Prince Edward Island has risen greatly in estimation since it proved its capacity as the sentinel Province of the Dominion How came it to pass that the larger Province allowed itself to be beaten in artillery practice by the Islanders? That is a question for our volunteer officers. Certain it is that they came out ahead, taking the first prize for general efficiency given by the Dominion Artillery Association, and every first prize but one for shifting ordnance. The Prince Edward Island Brigade of Garrison Artillery deserve credit, as being isolated from the rest of the Dominion, they might, as the Militia Gazette points out, be excused if they were somewhat behind in artillery matters. Their success will, it is to be hoped, stimulate their brethren of the continent to more assiduous practice and greater painstaking."

THE LYCEUM.—"The best temperance lecture ever delivered could not have half as good effect as this play," said a gentleman last evening, on leaving the hall, after seeing Manager Webber's company give their excellent programme of the drama of "Ten Nights in a Bar-room." The Lyceum was crowded, and the enthusiasm was something wonderful The drama was powerfully acted, and some of the scenes were painful in their intense reality, notably the entrance of the little child, covered with blood, after being struck by the fatal glass, thrown by the landlord; the delirium scene of the father, and the death of little Mary. The piece was relieved from its gloomy side by the mirth-provoking impersonations of the Yankee, by Mr. Webber, and the Yankee girl by Miss Grey, and the audience absolutely roared with laughter at the witticisms of both characters. Mr Webber was encored again and again for his songs, and we wish he would sing oftener, as it is a great pleasure to listen to him. Mr. Mills, as Joe Morgan, was at his best, and gave a very creditable performance of that difficult character. Mr. Marsh, as the landlord, was easy and natural, and his change in the last act finely done. Mr. Benn was a life-like representation of the gambler, and Mr. Noble did Willie very well indeed Mr. Carroll was a dignified Roman. Mrs. Clifton, as Mrs. Morgan, was very good, and the same can be said of Clara Mathes, as Mrs. Slade. Little Mary, the drunkard's child, was portrayed by little Pearl Clifton, and she was true to nature; the audience freely lavished applause on her that was well merited. This evening, "Under the Gaslight," with its great railroad sensation of the Down Express, will be played.

A CURIOUS ACTION FOR DAMAGES.—An important law question came up before the full bench of Judges last week, which was an action brought by S. Blois, of St. Lawrence, against the Chignecto Ship Railway, claiming $1,000 damages for injuries done his property by flying stones, rocks and earth from blasts on the railway, and for annoyances caused by the loud noise and alarms necessary in progressing with the work of constructing the railway. A decision has not yet been reached.

ALL those heating and itching humors of the scalp, so troublesome to many persons, are effectually cured by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. If not attended to in time, these diseases are very liable to result in loss of the hair.

The Ontario Government has given up all hope of ever fathoming the Galt candy poisoning case. Detective Murray is morally certain that he could put his hand on the fiend who murdered poor little Meta Cherry, but there is no evidence which could be relied upon to convict him.

BLOOD tells. We may not be able to infuse royal and noble blood into a man's veins; but we can do better; we can expel from them all impure and poisonous humors by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Pure blood is the best kind of royal blood.

The Worst Storm in Twenty Years.

DAMAGE TO VESSESS AND OTHER PROPERTY —LOSS OF LIFE.

MONTREAL, Nov. 29.—A freight train stuck in a drift east of the St. Lawrence bridge on the Canadian Pacific at noon yesterday and stopped traffic till 8 o'clock. The Grand Trunk Western, due early in the morning arrived at 18. To-day all railways are now clear and the snow is melting.

TORONTO, Nov. 29.—Reports of the snowstorm, quickly followed by a heavy fall of rain, have been received from various parts of the Province. Two schooners are reported ashore near here. Several casualities and one loss of life are reported as a result of the storm.

QUEBEC, Nov, 29.—The storm was the worst here in twenty years. The wind reached a velocity of seventy miles an hour. The Government steamer Druid and other craft wintering in the Louise Basin broke loose and crashed into each other. Two iron towers erected by the Electric Light Co. on Dorchester Bridge, to carry wires from Montmorency Falls into the city, crashed into the river at St. Charles. The manager had the wires cut immediately to save life, and the city was in darkness last night.

Supreme Court.

DECEMBER 3.

In re application of Hubert Poirier, a prisoner confined in Queen's County jail for habeas corpus.—Mr. H. C. Macdonald, for defendant, moves for the discharge of the prisoner. The Court ordered that notices of the application for discharge be served upon D. W. Henderson, Prosecutor, and the committing magistrates.

In the matter of the application of Louis H. Davies for a mandamus to George Alley, Esquire, Revising Officer —Mr. Davies, on affidavits of John Drake, A. B. McKenzie, Geo. McLeod and himself, and on his petition moves for a rule nisi to show cause why a mandamus should not be issued to compel the Revising Officer for Queen's County to call a Court of Revision and hear evidence respecting the right of certain voters to be registered and directing him to hear such evidence and decide thereon. Court granted a rule returnable Saturday next.

Personal.

Capt. McLeod, of the Gulnare, returned from the Far West last evening.

G. A, Sharp, Esq., of the P. E. Island Railway, returned home from Vancouver last evening. He reports everything booming in the west.

Mr. W. D. McKay, of the Charlottetown Woollen Mills, is in St. John.

Rev. Father Davenport has returned to St. John.

J. H. Wright, Esq., Inspector of the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York, is visiting Charlottetown. Mr. Wright is a native of Bedeque. He was present at the Caledonian Club dinner last evening and replied very happily to the toast of "our guests."

The Pioneer says: Mr. John H. Burns, who was for a number of years past the yardmaster in the railway department, has been promoted to the position of baggagemaster on the train for the Cape Traverse branch.

The North Sydney Herald reports that J. S. Murray left on Monday on a visit to P. E Island.

The Ottawa correspondent of the Toronto Empire says: It is understood that Mr. Joseph Pope, private secretary of Sir John Macdonald, has been appointed assistant clerk of the Privy Council, with the rank of chief clerk, vice Mr. Beaudry, deceased. Mr. Pope has been on the first-class grade for seven years, but passed his promotion examination with flying colors some months ago. His is a case of promotion well deserved. Mr. Pope, for the present, will continue to act as private secretary to the Minister of Railways and Canals.

General Luke Lyman, secretary of the Dominion Bridge Company at Montreal, died last week in his 65th year. His rank was in the United States army. He served in the war as Colonel of the Massachusetts Regiment in North Carolina, and for his services was given the rank of General. He had lived in Montreal since 1883 He was a visitor at the Shaw House last summer, and made a number of friends in this province.

Martin Farquhar Tupper, poet and prose writer, is dead. He was born in 1810.

A Frenchman named Dubois, formerly of Ottawa, who has been working at Amherst in Mr. Weeks' barber shop for the past five months, has received news of the death of his brother Emery, at Tulare, California, coupled with the fact that he has left him $25,000 of his fortune. He now intends to abandon the razor.

CARELESSNESS SOMEWHERE.—Two boys picked up, on Great George Street, yesterday, a mail bag containing letters, etc. They state that on taking it to the door of the Post Office they were rewarded for their pains by being told to "go to a certain hot place." The case seems to be one for investigation.

HOLIDAY GOODS.—Special attention is directed to the advertisement of the sale of Holiday Goods in part of the Tryon Woolen Co's. Store, Cameron Block, which appears in another column. The goods, which are new and appropriate to the season, have been specially selected by Mr. Horace Haszard in the best markets in England, and will be sold at great bargains.
