FRIDAY, APRIL 30, 1869.

MILITIA DEPARTMENT, 28th April, 1869.

General Order.

1. Consequent upon the alteration in the Militia Law, His Honor the Commander-in-Chief is pleased to direct that the undermentioned Corps and Companies of the Volunteer Militia be retained on the establishment from this date, viz:

Two Troops Mounted Rifles,	Captain Commandant Holman,
	Captain Wood.
Two Batteries Artillery,	Captain Commandant Major Morris,
	Captain Lord.
The Dundas Rifle Company,	Captain McRae.
The Prince of Wales	do Captain Longworth.
The Irish	do Captain McIntyre.
The Royalty	do Captain Dogherty.
The Prince Edward	do Captain Hensley.

2. The five Rifle Companies will be united respectively into one Administrative Battalion, to be styled the "Queen's County Regiment," under the command of a Major, for the purpose of securing uniformity of drill with the advantage of the instruction and assistance of the Staff Adjutant.

3. The Troops of the Mounted Rifles and Batteries of Artillery not being of sufficient strength to constitute by themselves Battalions, will be attached to the Queen's County Regiment.

4. The amended Militia Act rendering it necessary to dispense with the services of the Regiments and remaining Companies composing the Volunteer Brigade, His Honor the Commander-in-Chief cannot do so without addressing a few words to the officers and men of this force to thank them for the zeal they have shewn in the service generally, and for their invariable good conduct during the time they have been organized. His Honor confidently believes that, should the emergency arise which may make it desirable to summon the officers and men into active service, they will, at all times, be found again ready to enroll themselves for the defence of their homes and the support of the Crown, and with the same promptitude and energy which has characterized them for the period of seven years since their first embodiment

5. With the exception of those Companies whose services are retained, as set forth in paragraph 1 of this General Order, the three Regiments of the Volunteer Brigade are disbanded from this date.

6. The amended Act which has come into operation providing for the acceptance of the services of such Volunteer Companies as may, from time to time, be organized, irrespective of any Government allowance, His Honor the Commander in Chief invites the attention of Officers of the Reserve Militia and Gentlemen who may be desirous of availing themselves of the opportunity thus afforded them; applications on this subject should be addressed to the Adjutant General who will furnish more detailed instructions.

By Command
Of His Honor the Commander-in-Chief,
JOHN HAMILTON GRAY,
Adjutant General.

30TH APRIL, 1869.

By His Honor the Commander-in-Chief.

JOHN HAMILTON GRAY,

(CIRCULAR.)

DOWNING STREET, 29th March, 1869.

SIR,

I have had under my consideration the Answers which have been returned to the Circular Despatch addressed by my Predecessor to the various Colonial Governors on the 9th January, 1868, requesting to be informed whether or not their respective Governments would be prepared to make provision for the expense of the Return Passages of Distressed Colonists, whom Consuls at Foreign Ports or the Governors of other Colonies might deem it necessary to send to their Homes.

I have been in communication with the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs upon the subject, and I now transmit to you, for your information, the Copy of a Circular which Lord Clarendon has directed to be addressed to Her Majesty's Consuls abroad, containing instructions for their guidance.

I have the honor to be, Sir,
Your obedient Servant,
GRANVILLE.

The Officer Administering
The Government of Prince Edward Island.

(CIRCULAR.)

FOREIGN OFFICE, February 26, 1869.

SIR,

I am directed by the Earl of Clarendon to inform you that his Lordship has been in communication with the Secretary of State for the Colonies regarding the question of the Relief of Distressed British Colonists by Her Majesty's Consuls; and the decision that has been arrived at, after consulting the various Colonial Governments, is, that the Instructions contained in the 9th Paragraph of the Revised Consular Instructions should be strictly observed by Her Majesty's Consuls.

These Instructions prescribe that "no Payments are to be made by Consular Officers on account of British Colonial Subjects, unless under authority from the Governor of the Colony to which such persons belong, and in such case reimbursement must be asked for from the Colonial Government."
