TWIN-DOUBLE SETS RECORD MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—A single better in the crowd of 2,882 at Tropical Park Wednesday took down the entire twin-double pool—$4,780.21. It was the biggest twin-double payoff of the meeting, topping the previous high of $60,678 Dec. 10.

The ticket was cashed by a man who filled out an income tax form at the cashier's window as required, and requested that he not be publicly identified.

The first half of the twin-double fifth and sixth races—was won by Jerry Duty, $43.20, and Fireman's Ball, $17.20. After another longshot, Traffic Sign, $62.20, won the eighth race, only three tickets were alive going into the last part of the twin. In a driving finish, More caught Ar Flash to win by a neck over one length. The entry paid $38.60.

But the assassination apparently was not completely satisfied with the FBI summary. It published a report that would eliminate doubt. Last month the Federal Bureau of Investigation examined every aspect of the case; to account it possible for every development on the day of the assassination.

"We intend to gather evidence from all key witnesses, including Oswald's wife and Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy and others," said Rankin.

"Mrs. Kennedy has already indicated she intends to cooperate fully in providing detailed testimony for the sake of historical accuracy."

"Mrs. Oswald is to be questioned this month, Rankin said he did not know at this stage whether the commission will interview her in Dallas or instruct her to appear here.

Ballerina Length Gown Is Popular Once More

By JEAN SPRAIN WILSON NEW YORK (AP)—Fashion writers here to preview spring fashions are discovering that much is being done about the waist.

Not the least is a new type of coat that warms up as the mercury plunges and sheds precipitation even though made of luxury fabrics usually limited to dresses.

Called Fortizex, Originalla introduced it Tuesday.

A silk print crepe, and an alligator-patterned nylon were the fabrics of the daytime and formal - wear coats modeled.

The material is chemically coated, not attached, to a lightweight foam-rubber backing.

Also in the collections were featherweight, sherbet-tinted creases that look like spun sugar. Skirted in front to define the waist and loose in back, they sparkled with jeweled or gold-coin buttons.

Announcing its approval of the return to the feminine form was the house of Hattie Carnegie, traditional suit authority.

Next spring's status suits, as shown at the New York couture group preview session, feature jackets with slanted but, tonholes, fake pockets, tab detail and occasionally belts.

Skirts skinned slim hips and flared a bit for modest auto exits and easier walking.

Hattie Carnegie uncovered legs which had gone into hiding with the floor-length ballgown two years ago. Wearing matching babush-

Wife's Emotional Spurts Are Due To Frustration

Most 30 years and have two young daughters. E. C. Dear Ellen: I would suppose that your "real old feeling" of being "old" is a result of your husband's frolicking with the other wife is not at all meanly jealous, because that is a naturally aware that there is potentially at least more to the way than casual history, intuitively you sense that they are smitten by sex attraction, for each other which creates a special brand of camaraderie, inappropriate to a marriage.

As interested bystander, wistful wife and older woman, you are rightly excluded from their emotion-packed fun. And in a flush of humiliation, a reaction of your husband, or acting the fool (in more than a one sense) in the word you use, is a momentary loss of regard for him.

What pains good wives most is the recognition that this man whom they hold so dear, whose dignity and well being are so precious to them, can so easily be made to look foolish by a passing fancy.

It is as if his manly merit went into eclipse and a silly aspect were revealed, a revelation that leaves the true wife shaken, having lost sight of the man she loves.

I've spelled this out to help you understand the pattern of your distress and its cause so that you may file a protest with your husband, without feeling disgraced, guilty or "worn" in doing it. I think he will cooperate if you speak with warm assurance.

Ventilate the headache before embarking for Hawaii. And have the courage to frankly lay down the other wife's hilarity, if necessary. M.H.

Essentially I believe she is a nice girl, but rather flirty. Cute, with a nice personality. Her husband is the stop but more on the serious side, which may be why she cut up, socially. My husband and I are active and young looking for our age. He is friendly, outgoing, usually a little up well. I've never had any problems; nor am I a jealous person, and I don't believe I sit in the instance; but I would like your appraisal. We've been happily married all
