was enlarged several times. Disaster struck in 1951 when the building was almost demolished by a heavy storm only six weeks before the date set for the exhibition. Undaunted, the association went to work on a new building and had it ready in time. The undomesticated section of the old building through the years, annual additions have been made to the way of buildings but each year finds barn accommodations inadequate for the annual increase in livestock exhibits.

As the exhibition grew and prospered its area expanded to include the first two electoral districts of Prince County, then a third to include Summerside and, eventually, to take in all of Prince County.

The exhibition association as it now exists has had three presidents and four secretaries. The presidents have been A. D. O'Brien, Lester E. Wallace and C. W. Hayes while it now is C. W. Hayes who is now in office.

The secretary, Winston Currie, has been preceded by Fred A. Paul, Leitch Summerside and Herbert Matheon.

Mrs. James Hodgson is serving her first year as assistant to the secretary and for some 20 years Mrs. Fred Leard has been second assistant. Mrs. Charles Johnston, who was a

College Principal Addresses Regular Meeting of Rotarians

Rev. George Johnston, Ph.D., DD., principal of the United Theological College, Montreal, addressed the regular meeting of the Rotarians at luncheon meeting or Rotary yesterday. The function was held in the hall of the crippled children's summer camp at Bellevue.

Justice G. J. Zwedy, president of the Rotarians, presided over the meeting.

Speaking on the "Theological Education in Canada," Dr. Johnston gave an historical sketch of the activities of the organization, from the first of its kind in the United States, to the present situation of the west coast of Scotland.

Next year, a celebration there will mark the 140th anniversary of the arrival at the town of Prince of Wales, the Royal House, from Ulster.

CELTIC CHURCH

This event marked the beginning of the Celtic Church. Dr. Johnston said. Missionaries from there have spread their faith in the Celtic lands, including Europe, Asia, Africa and the Far East.

Dr. Johnston described the depression period when "Out of despair of the Clyde, workers in Scotland were imbued with the doctrines of Communism and socialism."

Dr. Johnston said that every day was treated alike. The building and restoration of the building and cathedral areas of St. Columba's, "This is a pilgrimage and study area open to Christians of all denominations from all places in the world."

Ministers and laity in the pews engaged together in prayer and devotion.

Sign On Fire Halls Cause Of Side Council Eruption

Controversy resulted from the reading of a letter by Coun. Ross from the secretary of the fire department which explained as to why the sign had been taken down and on whose authority.

Coun. George Key, Jr., criticized a story in a Summerside paper which he said claimed to be the official record of what was done among the candidates by a couple of residents living near the fire hall.

"I wasn't in agreement," he said. "I wasn't and neither was the fire department."

It was pointed out that Coun. Alex MacDonald was not a member of the council when the decision was reached to not erect the sign. Coun. MacDonald said that the council had been unanimous in agreeing not to erect the sign.

However, Coun. Wood said he had been present at the meeting and he was in agreement. "I wasn't in agreement," he said. "I wasn't and neither was the fire department."
