SLATER SHOE DEMONSTRATION.

A Big Time at Alley & Co's. Last Evening.

The Slater Shoe Demonstration at Alley & Co's. establishment last evening was a great success. Hundreds of people visited the store during the progress of the demonstration, and several hours were pleasantly passed. Upon a platform in the rear of the store the 82nd Battalion Band was placed, and under the direction of Professor Vinnicombe a choice musical programme was discoursed. The Union Jack was conspicuously displayed in and about the band stand and here and throughout the store were flags, evergreens, palms and flowers, which, with the many electric lights, made a scene that will not soon be forgotten by those who witnessed it. On a table in the centre of the store was conspicuously displayed samples of the fifty different kinds of Slater $3.50 and $5.00 shoes, while along the sides of the counters were neatly-painted signs describing the merits of these popular goods. From the ceiling to the floor on both sides of the store the Slater was also displayed.

Obituary.

His many friends will regret to hear of the death of Mr. John Jesse Wright, which occurred at his home, Middleton, Lot 27, on April 17th. The deceased was a great sufferer for several years; but he bore his sufferings with Christian patience and fortitude. He was a devoted husband, a kind father, a faithful friend and neighbour. He was respected by all classes in the community, as was shown by the large number who, in spite of bad roads and weather, followed the remains to their last resting place. He will long be remembered for his kind words and hospitality. He leaves a widow, two sons and two daughters, besides a host of relatives and friends,—not to mourn as those who have no hope, for

Christ hath died and risen again,
And robbed death of its sting;
And in His heavenly home above
From death set free he sings.
May sustaining grace be given to those bereft.

TO THE GUARDIAN.

Permit me to remind you that you have not yet answered the questions asked by me in THE EXAMINER of Monday. Perhaps you will answer them in tomorrow's issue. "This is the second time of asking."

MR. POPE'S LECTURE.—Mr. Percy Pope lectured before the Natural History and Antiquarian Society last evening on "Lost Atlantis." The lecture was of absorbing interest and indicated much study on the part of the learned lecturer. It was fittingly illustrated by Mr. Thomas May, and was greatly appreciated by the large audience. The next lecture will be delivered by Rev. Dr. Morrison.

A show of silks never before equalled in Charlottetown at Stanley Bros. tonight.

PIE SOCIAL.—A pie social in the interest of the Ladies Aid at Greenwich and Cable Head was held on the 11th, Mr. J. B. McEwen acting as chairman. The programme, which consisted of recitations, singing, graphophone selections and comic readings, was well rendered. The Ladies' Aid Society are particularly indebted to Mr. Sutherland for the free use of his graphophone. At the conclusion of the programme, the sale of pies began, Mr. Milton McLaren acting as auctioneer. The social was closed by singing the National Anthem and three cheers for the Ladies' Aid.—ONE PRESENT.

Mr. Dunlap also purchased a splendid three year-old filly weighing 1300 for $130 from Mr. Wm. Auld, of Bannockburn. The Aulds of Bannockburn are forging to the front as horse breeders. They evidently know how to raise good animals.
