Rural Film Councils Hold Annual Meeting

Delegates from nine Film Councils attended the annual meeting of the Rural Film Councils of Prince Edward Island at Summerside yesterday. The Film Councils meet once each year to discuss problems and ways and means of increasing circulation of films and to study experiences and suggestions for proper film presentation. Delegates were present from the areas of Alberton, O'Leary, Traveller's Rest, Bedeque, Kennington, New London, Malpeque, Cape Traverse, and Cra-paud.

MR. GUY HENSON, director of adult education of the Nova Scotia Department of Education was the principal speaker and during the afternoon session spoke on community organization, stressing the need for increased community activity.

IN the evening the film "Royal Jubilee" was shown, which will be starting on Film Councils circuits immediately. Interesting discussions were held.

A decision was made yesterday to hold "film workshops" throughout the winter months in each of the nine Film Councils. Officials said that suggestions from Film Councils members are invaluable to the Film Board in carrying out their programme.

THE meeting, which was held in St. Mary's Hall, was presided over by Mr. Donald Fraser, director of adult education for Prince Edward Island and assisted him were Mr. S. M. MacInnis and Mr. John Martin, district representatives of the National Film Board.

NEW MALE - Intelligent and talented performance. Highlighting the first half of the program was an extremely beautiful rendition of Grieg's "The Last Spring," arranged by Frederic and in the second group "The Erilking" by Schubert, also arranged by Frederic. It proved to be a dramatic work of note.

OTHER selections previous to the intermission were Logan's "Lift Thine Eyes"; "My Bonnie Lass" by Morley; the familiar "La Danza" by Rossini, arranged by Frederic; Wolf's "Weyla's Song," arranged by Peterson; "The Post" by Schubert; Peterson's "The Art Repose" by Schubert-Riva; the humorous "Disappointed Serenade" by Brahms-Peterson; Poulenc's "Air vit", arranged by Frederic; Debussy's "Beau solo", arranged by Frederic; "Autumn" by Faure, arranged by Frederic; and Fourdrain's "Chanson norvegienne", also arranged by Frederic.

CONCLUDING this portion of the program were selections from the Broadway success, "The King and I", which included "Day by Day", "Young Lover", "Shall We Dance" and "Whistle a Happy Tune". As an encore the "Masters" sang the lovely "The Song Is You".

FOLLOWING the intermission Miss Kariellan appeared in a group of three works by Debussy, and responded to the hearty applause with a brief and charming encore. Selections she offered were "Les Collines d'Anacapri", "Arabesque", and the fiery Prelude from "Pour le piano".

VARIED Selections - The latter half of the program by the "Song Masters" was much lighter in vein and if it is possible to judge by applause, was even more pleasing to the audience than the first part. Selections were widely varied for all tastes, and included negro spirituals, comic opera, and musical comedy selections.

OPENING with Bartholomew's lovely and expressive "Steal Away" and "Old Ark's A-moverin'", they continued with "Black Is the Color of My True Love's Hair", as arranged by Churchill, and "A-roving", a special arrangement by Frederic.

FROM "Paint Your Wagon", Mr. Frederic had arranged "They Call the Wind Maria", and this group was concluded by a very unusual and humorous rendition of the familiar "Dry Bones".

SELECTIONS from Sullivan's well loved "H.M.S. Pinafore" brought the program to a close, after which the quartette returned in response to insistent applause to sing the beautiful "Sylvia", "You Can't Take It With You", and the ever popular "Woman in the Shoe".

Driver Inquest Held

Continued from page 5 - Service Station he saw two children. One started to cross the street and he blew his horn. He noticed a truck following him in his rear view mirror and saw the truck stop. He was unaware that an accident had happened and proceeded on into the City. When he went back out the highway he saw the same truck stopped. He did not see the accident but stated that he was travelling at between 15 and 18 miles per hour, with the truck behind him on the way in toward the city.

OTHER WITNESSES - Ronald J. Greenan, City, who operates the B.A. Service Station on the Malpeque Road said that he had driven out in the direction of Parkdale and had noticed two children on the road. He also saw the truck ahead. He did not see the child who was on the opposite side of the road to the two children he was watching until he saw her "roll out from behind the truck".

THE witness said he went to the B.A. Service Station and called the "Mounties" and the ambulance. He estimated the time to be about three o'clock. The driver of the truck involved in the accident, "My God, call the ambulance and the Mounties". The driver, the witness said, seemed to be in a normal condition.

VELMA RUTH MacKinnon, Parkdale, said she was on her way into the City and saw three girls on the right hand side of the road just about opposite the B.A. Service Station. The lit blonde girl came over to her and said the store was closed. The three little girls were going to go to the store, the witness said. The child went back and the next thing the witness heard was the sound of wheels braking. She turned around and saw the child coming off the running board of the truck. She believed the child ran into the truck and that the rear wheels of the vehicle passed over her body.

POLICE Testimony - Cst. W. J. R. MacDonald, R.C.M.P., Charlottetown, told the Jury that a call had been received at the Barracks about 3.10. He and Cst. J.D. Watson went to the scene of the accident and found that a truck had struck a child and that the operator of the truck was Mr. Coffin. The accident occurred at the intersection of Allen Street and the St. Peter's highway almost opposite the B.A. Service Station. He produced photographs and told the jury that the body of the victim was nine inches from the centre of the road on the right hand side going toward the City. The child was ten feet six inches from the rear of the truck on the pavement. The witness said that the rubber from the tires had gone into the pavement where the skid marks were. In his opinion the truck was definitely not exceeding 20 miles per hour. The truck was in good condition and there was no trace of liquor of any kind where the driver was concerned.

MR. COFFIN, the driver of the truck, told the jury that he was watching two children on the right hand side of the road and was trying to avoid them as he thought one was going to run out on the highway.

HE first noticed the third child, who was on the left hand side of the road when he saw her coming toward the truck. He applied the brakes and stopped. The child, he said, was never in front of the truck. Though he knew she had come in contact with the vehicle he had not had any sensation or feeling that the truck had run over her.

THE jury brought in the verdict that Mary Joanne Magee had come to her death by being struck by a truck driven by Wendall Coffin, November 5th, 1952 at or around 3 p.m. and found the driver in "no way to blame for her death."

S'ide Firm Installs Meat Curing Plant

Mr. Kaye Hansen, general proprietor of Hansen's Market on Water Street, in Summerside, has completed the installation of a meat curing plant complete with modern electric smoke-house, the only one of its kind on P. E. I. In this new plant, Mr. Hansen, by the most modern methods, can now both cure and smoke meats to a most tasty and delicious flavor. The smoke-house part of the plant is enclosed in a room 12 by 6 by 7 feet, with cement walls, floor and ceiling about one foot thick and has a smoking capacity of 1-2 tons at one time. The electrically controlled smoke-house uses maple hardwood sawdust for smoking, and the heat provided by a specially constructed propane burner which is 10 feet in length and has a heating capacity of 90,000 B. T. U's.

FOR curing he uses Griffith's laboratory prepared formula which is approved under the Pure Food Act, and this curing formula is spray pumped to produce the most efficient result possible on the hams.

FOUR days are required to cure the bacon, and ten to fourteen days for hams, and the smoking process requires four hours for drying and about eight hours for smoking.

IN addition to curing and smoking the meats used in his own business he is able to supply this curing and smoking service on a customer basis to any person with meat that they desire to have cured or smoked.

KAYE, whose pleasant, friendly disposition has made him one of Summerside's most popular business men, came to Canada from Denmark in 1928, and had been working for the town of Summerside in the abattoir when war broke out in 1939. He enlisted with the R. C. A. F. and spent seven years on active service.

FOLLOWING this he returned to Summerside and bought the business which he now operates.

HIS younger brother Paul came to Denmark about three years ago, and is with Kaye in his business.

KAYE is married to a Summerside girl, the former Bessie Smallman, and they have one son, Kaye Jr., age 10, a student of the Summerside High School.

FOR Kaye, his new plant is the realization of a desire he has long had, and the result of much hard work and experimenting from the time he first purchased the meat business in 1947, and began meat smoking experiments in a small shack with crude home-made equipment that required him to stay up all night to keep the smoking process in operation.

SINCE then he has made repeated improvement experiments which led to installation of the new modern plant which now displays a product as fine to taste and appearance as could possibly be desired.

P. E. I. Red Cross

THE letter said in part: "We are very grateful for your donations as they will be invaluable in the approaching winter. We can assure you that you are going to make a lot of mothers happy. The situation here is tragic. We do not expect that it is readily understood as it is so different from similar past or present refugee situations. Gaza is such a concentrated area, 25 miles by five with 200,000 refugees and approximately 100,000 residents who although they have lost their livelihood cannot be recognized as refugees as they are considered to be in their homes. This is the tragic part. They are helped by the Egyptian Government, receiving rations on a much lower scale than the refugees."

WHILE the results of last week's Blood Donor Clinics were gratifying, the demand for blood transfusions is so heavy that the Professions will probably be greatly in debt by the time the Mobile team returns next May.

REQUESTS have been received from 23 different districts for the organization of First Aid Classes and several are now in progress.

Messrs. McLure

Continued from page 1 - of all the nominating conventions he has attended this was the largest. Col. Brooks stated that he felt the election would come in the fall of 1953 but dryly remarked that "I have not been advised to that effect by the Government."

HE praised the efforts of the local candidates in Ottawa and said he did not believe that any man in the House has a better record than Mr. McLure for placing the needs of his Province before the House of Commons. For that reason he said the lack of a new Federal Building here was not because Mr. McLure had not fought hard for it.

COL. Brooks paid tribute to Mr. MacLean as well, as he by his victory last year "brought hope to the rest of the Maritimes" by showing them the way.

DEALING with the Canadian situation in general the speaker noted that though the country was spending approximately 70 per cent of its income on defence little of it was coming to the seaside Provinces. He said he had suggested that the Government establish defence industries in these Provinces to overcome their objection to "bottle-necks" on rail hauls to the ports of Saint John and Halifax.

THE chairman for the evening was Mr. Reagh Bagnoll, Hunter River, president of the Queens County Progressive Conservative Association.

THE resolutions committee in passing the usual formal resolutions also noted the recent marriage of the candidate, Mr. MacLean, and offered congratulations and best wishes to him and to Mrs. MacLean.

Form Business Women's Club At Summerside

A Business and Professional Women's Club was organized at Summerside on Wednesday night at a dinner meeting held at Robson's Restaurant. Miss Helen Schurman was chairman. Miss Lillian Duchemin of Charlottetown, the organizer, outlined the objectives of the club and discussed the organization generally, pointing out the benefits to be derived from belonging to this international group. It was moved by Miss Barbara Smith and seconded by Miss Clara Mountain that a club be formed at Summerside. A nominating committee was appointed to bring in a slate of officers at the next meeting, scheduled for Nov. 26. Members of the committee are Mrs. Keith Compton and Miss Elsie Inman. Miss Connie Enman was appointed secretary pro tem. Miss Gertrude Love of Charlottetown also addressed the meeting.

THAT the once heavy shipments of oats, barley, beef, cheese and beans to Great Britain were almost non-existent today.

THE speaker also opposed the present immigration policy whereby thousands came from central and southern European countries while those of the British Isles and Scandinavia were far better fitted to accustom themselves to the climate of Canada. In any event he said that the British were best fitted to build up this country.

DEALING with the high cost of living he said that some of the main factors were too-heavy taxes, much waste in the over supply of Government employees and the "mountain" of propaganda mail being sent out by Government agencies. He said "you can fill a wastebasket with it each morning."

THE guest speaker was thanked for his address by Mr. John Myers, Victoria, who served in the House of Commons with him for several years. Mr. Myers also paid tribute to the committee in charge of the convention, particularly on their choice of the site at Community Centre which he termed the finest hall in which he had ever addressed a political gathering. Seconding the vote of thanks was Mr. Walter MacKenzie.

THE chairman for the evening was Mr. Reagh Bagnoll, Hunter River, president of the Queens County Progressive Conservative Association.

THE resolutions committee in passing the usual formal resolutions also noted the recent marriage of the candidate, Mr. MacLean, and offered congratulations and best wishes to him and to Mrs. MacLean.

Trade With U.S.

OF the trade with this country as he termed that with the United States as "synthetic" as we were both buying and selling defence materials. He believed that the British tank, the Centurion, was superior to any built south of the border and deplored that our Commonwealth trade had been allowed to die.

HE said we needed many markets and Britain was our natural one. Col. Brooks reminded the gathering
