Toronto Trounces Boston Bruins 5-1

By DAVE BETTS

TORONTO (CP) — Nothing will ever obliterate the stigma of their 11-0 loss to Boston Bruins two weeks ago, but Saturday night the determined Toronto Maple Leafs at least wiped away some of the stains.

With a well-disciplined display of fast skating, aggressive checking and accurate shooting, the Leafs ran up a 5-0 lead over the Bruins and seemed well on their way to reversing the lopsided score before a rookie and a rolling puck spoiled their plans.

Toronto had to settle for a 5-1 win after Gary Dornhoefer slapped a shot in the third period that was too potent for Johnnie Bower.

Bower stopped it momentarily. The puck dribbled over his out - stretched skate, slid slowly along the goal line and finally slipped over by a couple of inches.

An improvised line with Billy Harris playing left wing beside Bob Pulford and Bob Nevin provided most of the Toronto firepower. Pulford scored twice and picked up an assist, Nevin had three assists, and Harris got one goal and an assist.

George Armstrong scored the game's only power-play goal and Ron Stewart added the fifth.

BIG CROWD ATTENDS

One of the largest National Hockey League crowds of the season—14,255 fans — packed Maple Leaf Gardens to see what sort of comeback the Leafs could muster against the surprising last-place Bruins who had beaten Toronto in their last three meetings.

Although the Bruins skated and checked furiously and played in a manner frighteningly close to their 11-0 style, the Leafs were better and outshot the visitors 46-25.

Bower was fortunate on several occasions when the Bruins swarmed around the net and did everything with the puck except put it in. Two weeks ago the loose rubber seemed to bounce to Boston every time, but Saturday night Toronto players seemed to have magnetized sticks.

Goalie Ed Johnston hadn't much chance on the five Leaf goals.

Pulford's first went in off a Boston skate. His second was a screened shot from a scramble. Armstrong slapped in a short rebound after Johnston had stopped a Red Kelly slapshot. Stewart steered in a Frank Mahovlich shot by holding his stick chest-high at the edge of the net. And Harris elbowed through the Boston defence to score from point-blank range.

The game was unusually fast, with the forwards forechecking and backchecking feverishly.

First period—1. Toronto, Pulford 13 (Nevin, Stanley) 0:39; 2. Toronto, Pulford 14 (Nevin, Harris) 5:17; 3. Toronto, Armstrong 16 (Kelly, Douglas) Douglas) 14:54. Penalties—Pulford 10:29, Mohns 14:48, Harris 17:05.

Second period — 4. Toronto, Stewart 5 (Mahovlich, Horton) 6:02; 5. Toronto, Harris 5 (Pulford, Nevin) 13:30. Penalties—Prentice 16:10, Brewer 19:00

Third period — 6. Boston, Dornhoefer 6 (Bucyk, Johnson) 1:14. Penalties — Boivin 5:22, Green 8:11.

CAPTURE CROWN

The Summerside paperweight All-Stars captured the Island paperweight title in a tournament in Charlottetown last weekend. The All-Stars, coached by Hank Landry and Gord Kelley, went undefeated in the tourney, scoring four victories on their way to the title. Here the players are seen with coach Landry (background) after they had been tendered a banquet by Jim and Fran MacLean at the Tartan Restaurant yesterday.

Canada Defeats Germany; Tied With Russian Squad

By JACK SULLIVAN
Canadian Press Sports Editor

INNSBRUCK, Austria (CP) — Brian Conacher of Toronto scored two goals to give Canada a ragged 4-2 victory over Germany Sunday and move the Canadians into a first-place tie with Russia in the Olympic hockey championship tournament.

Canada and Russia each have three victories without a defeat in the seven-game round-robin for six points apiece. Sweden, beaten 3-1 by Canada, won a pair of weekend games to move into a third - place tie with Czechoslovakia, each with two wins, one loss and four points.

Karl-Goran Oberg was back in the lineup after a one-game suspension and sparked Sweden to a 7-0 win over Finland in the other scheduled championship game Sunday.

Russia rested some of its key players while swamping Switzerland 15-0 Saturday while Canada had a break in the schedule. In other Saturday games, Sweden defeated the United States 7-4 as Ulf Sterner and Nils Nilsson each scored two goals to overcome a U.S. first-period lead, and Czechoslovakia shut out Finland 4-0.

Canada, playing without star centre Roger Bourbonnais of Riviere Qui Barre, Alta., for the last two periods, had to battle all the way against the underdog Germans, who have yet to win in three starts.

Bourbonnais injured his right ankle in the first period and the Canadian coach, Rev. David Bauer, said he didn't want to take any chances in continuing to play the 20-year-old centre.

Conacher, son of the late Lionel (Big Train) Conacher, scored what proved to be the winning goal early in the third period. His first goal early in the first period gave Canada a 1-0 lead. Gary Dineen of Montreal and Ray Cadieux of St. Adele, Que., got the others.

Ernst Kopf and Ernst Trautwein were Germany's scorers.

It appeared that Canada would make this a runaway—the Czechs beat the Germans 11-1 last Wednesday—after Conacher opened the scoring a little more than four minutes after the first faceoff. His 20-foot shot squeezed between goalie Ulrich Jansen's legs.

PICKED UP STEAM

But the fired-up Germans, led by Josef Reif, Kopf, Trautwein and Siegfried Schubert, gradually picked up steam and outplayed the Canadians, particularly in the scoreless second period.

The Germans deserved to score at least one goal in the second period and only the masterful netminding of 30-year-old veteran Seth Martin of Trail, B.C., kept them off the score sheet.

Conacher scored what proved to be the game-winner at 2:51 of the third period with an eight-foot backhand. Just 57 seconds later, Cadieux made it 4-1 on a shot from nine feet out.

Trautwein made it 4-2 with two minutes and 15 seconds remaining in the game. He took a pass from Kurt Sepp, skated around Paul Conlin and caught a corner of the net with a low 15-footer. Martin was well out of position on the play, skating almost 10 feet out of his goal.

Rangers Top Canadiens; Red Wings And Leafs Tie

NEW YORK (AP) — Don Marshall, traded by Montreal Canadiens last summer, scored the clinching goal Sunday as New York Rangers defeated the Canadiens 4-2 in a National Hockey League thriller before a sell-out crowd of 15,925.

The Montreal, loss, coupled with Chicago Black Hawks' 5-2 victory over the Bruins in Boston, left the Canadiens and Black Hawks tied in first place. The Ranger victory moved New York into fourth place, a point ahead of Detroit.

Rod Gilbert, Earl Ingarfield and Vic Hadfield scored the other Ranger goals.

The Canadiens, who ripped the Red Wings 9-3 Saturday night, led briefly here on Johnny Ferguson's fifth goal midway through the first period. Claude Provost later pulled the Canadiens into a 2-2 tie in the second period.

The Rangers, hottest team in the NHL since Jan. 1, have won 10, lost three and tied two during that span. It was their second triumph over the Canadiens this season against seven losses. Both victories have come at Madison Square Garden.

It might be a costly triumph, however. They lost their leading goal - scorer, Camille Henry, with what was diagnosed as an inflamed vein in his left thigh. There was no announcement as to how many games Henry would miss, if any.

DETROIT 2, TORONTO 2

DETROIT (CP) — Johnny Bower made 42 saves in the Toronto net Sunday night to help the Maple Leafs salvage a 2-2 tie with Detroit Red Wings in a National Hockey League contest here.

Detroit twice battled back from one-goal deficits in the wild game before 14,421 fans.

Parker MacDonald, a Sydney, N.S., native, scored at 12:31 of the third period to give Detroit the tie and ended a sudden scoring spree in which three goals were scored in three minutes and 43 seconds.

Toronto went ahead at the five-minute mark of the first period on Frank Mahovlich's 19th goal of the season. That goal stood up until Norm Ullman scored at 8:48 of the third period.

GO AHEAD

Dave Keon put the Leafs ahead again a little more than two minutes later before Detroit came back to tie it again.

Two major penalties were called against Detroit in the game.

Summary

First period—1. Toronto, Mahoblich 19 (Kelly, Stanley) 5:01. Penalties—Hillman 7:09, Smith 7:28, Miszuk major 19:25.

Rangers, Chicago Play To Deadlock

NEW YORK (CP - AP) — A third-period goal by Vic Hadfield gave New York Rangers a 2-2 tie with Chicago Black Hawks in a National Hockey League game Saturday afternoon after Stan Mikita scored twice in the first period to give Chicago a 2-0 lead.

Hadfield's tying goal came after little Camille Henry had sparked a New York rally by scoring in the second period before the sellout crowd of 15,295 fans.

The Rangers now have won nine, tied two and lost three since the first of the year—the best NHL record in that span.

For the faltering Black Hawks, it was their fourth consecutive game without a win and their third straight 2-2 tie.

LEADS IN POINTS

Mikita's goals give him a total of 65 points in the individual players' standings, tops in the league. His second goal came when Rangers were two men short. He knocked in a rebound off Bobby Hull's long slap shot.

Henry, taking a long pass from Andy Bathgate at the goalmouth, scored early in the second period. Then Bathgate set up Hadfield with a cross-ice pass early in the third period for the tying goal.

Ranger Goalie Jacques Plante made 31 saves, including about five in the closing minutes during a Black Hawk power play. Glenn Hall made 33 saves.

Black Hawks played virtually the entire game without veteran defenceman Elmer Vasko. He was hit in the head by a Bathgate shot in the opening minutes. Seven stitches were required to close the laceration.

SUMMARY

Black Hawks Top Bruins

BOSTON (AP)—Stan Mikita celebrated the birth of his first child by helping Chicago Black Hawks beat Boston Bruins 5-2 Sunday night and regain a share of the National Hockey League lead.

The triumph, coupled with New York's 4-2 decision over Montreal, deadlocked the Black Hawks and Canadiens with 30 points each. It also ended a four-game winless streak for Chicago.

Mikita, the league's top scorer, notched his 28th and 29th goals of the season in the second and third periods.

Mikita's first goal was a 40-footer that skimmed under the stick of Boston goalie Ed Johnston, who was screened on the play. Stan tallied again with 70 seconds left in the game, again on a 40-footer.

Mikita's wife gave birth to a daughter, Margaret Ann, earlier in the day in Chicago.

Johnston stopped at least half a dozen other Mikita shots as the scrambling Chicgo centre led the Hawks in a domination of the play throughout.

John McKenzie scored twice for Chicago near the finish and linemates Red Hay and Bobby Hull each had a pair of assists.

Ron Murphy opened the scoring at 4:32 of the first period. The Bruins broke through Chicago's Glenn Hall when Orland Kurtenbach registered at 10:39 of the final period. Rookie Gary Dornhoefer tallied for Boston with 34 seconds left.
