

The Cadve Dec 2, 2003

"Sorry, ah...
the creators of this, er, issue, would like to apologize for this most terrible cover page. Obviously it is a false cover-page, and simply meant to be a joke. However, it has just now been realized that it was quite unfunny, and actually also very quite untactful. And awkward, we cannot forget the awkward. The back cover-page will not be a joke, and of course, it will not be nearly as tactful as this cover page.
It will, however, be very much more awkward.
Thank you."
