

Morell High School Debaters Win In Contest With Montague

The first High School debate for Kings County was held in Morell Community Hall last night between Montague High School and Morell High School. The subject was "Resolved that the achievements of the United Nations have justified its existence." Montague upheld the affirmative and Morell the negative. The speakers for the affirmative were Edgar Dewar and Donnie MacLaren, and for the negative Gerry Gillis and Paul MacDonald. The decision of the judges was unanimous in favor of Morell High School. The judges were Messrs Chester Pratt, St. Peters; Wendell Coffin, Morell, and Frank Dunn, Morell. The chairman was Donald MacDonald, President of the Morell High School Students Council.

St. Peters Woman Dies In Hospital

The death of Mrs. Daniel J. Mullin, 71, of St. Peters, occurred Thursday evening in the Charlottetown Hospital, following a prolonged period of illness.

The late Mrs. Mullin, the former Josephine Elizabeth Sharkey, was born in Cardigan Parish Feb. 10th, 1886. A tireless and devoted worker in all activities promoting the welfare of her church or district, the late Mrs. Mullin was a very respected and esteemed member of the community in which she spent the greater part of her life. A life-long member of the Catholic Women's League, and the Women's Institute, she gave unstintingly of her time and ability to these organizations.

She leaves to mourn her husband, D.J. Mullin, former Inspector of Schools, and Chairman of the Commissioners of St. Peters Village; four sons - Tobias, CNR employee Summerside; Major Mercier J., retired army officer, employed with Canada Packers, Summerside; Charles, on the staff of the provincial Health department, Ch'town; and Owen in Burlington, Ont., four daughters: Patricia, Mrs. Joseph Bennett, Cape Cod, Mass.; Catherine, Mrs. Daniel Holland, New Jersey; Margaret, Mrs. Thomas Reehill, New Jersey; and Ella, Mrs. Joseph Landrigan, Saugus, Mass. A fifth son, Daniel, was killed overseas while serving with the RCAF during World War Two.

She is also survived by two sisters - Margaret, Mrs. McManus, Vancouver; and Agnes, Sister Mary Wilfred, Randolph, Mass.; and four brothers - Patrick, Corville, P.E.I.; Edward in Massachusetts, Wilfred and Charles in Winnipeg. Two sisters and two brothers predeceased her. Despite difficult travelling conditions, a large number of friends and relatives turned out for the funeral of the late Mrs. Mullin, which was held from her late residence yesterday morning to St. Peter's Roman Catholic Church, where Solemn Requiem High Mass was celebrated by her nephew, Rev. Francis Ledwell as Sub-Deacon.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Owen Sharkey, assisted by Rev. Lawrence Landri-for 1956, Marion Clark. Members then practised the singing of action hymns. The meeting closed by repeating the Mizpah Benediction.

Montague Annual Scottish Concert Successfully Repeated

Yeo's Theater, Montague, was filled again on Wednesday, Feb. 20th, for the repeat performance sponsored by the choir of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church. Several performers who took part in the original entertainment were unable to be present because of sickness and other commitments but new numbers were added attractions and proved very popular with the large and appreciative audience.

Rev. D. A. Campbell presided as master of Ceremonies, and the piano accompanists were Mrs. A.F. Campbell, Mrs. James MacBeth and Mrs. Bruce MacLaren. Pipers Donald MacLeod and Bruce MacLaren opened the program with a number of Scottish airs including "The Road to the Isles". These well-known pipers were heard later on the program in stirring bagpipe selections.

A group of Scottish songs was sung by seven bonnie Lassies under the direction of Mrs. Elsie Waterworth. These were the Misses Rachel Minchin, Susan Beirne, Mable MacLean, Pauline Nicholson, Carol Boehner, Elinor Minchin and Florrie Beaton. Little Miss Helen Anstie and Paulette Clow were charming in their rendition of "Gonna Get Along Without You" and "Loch Lomond", and Helen Burke, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stan Burke, New Perth, sang very sweetly "The Song My Mother Sang".

Roy MacGillivray, Charlottetown was enthusiastically received for his readings. Scottish songs and the humorous stories he told. He sang the ever-popular "Road to the Isles" and "The Wiggie Waggie of his Kill", accompanied by the piano by Mrs. Bruce MacLaren.

Mrs. Ezra Larabee, Eldon, again sang favorite Scottish songs and was heartily applauded after each number.

A number of Scottish airs were rendered by Webster's orchestra, which comprises Mrs. James MacBeth, Piano, Jack Webster, violin, Stan Burke and Emerson O'Connor, guitars.

The highland dancing was performed by two young Montague lassies, Gwennie Clark and Diane MacLeod. Ralph Fraser danced the Sailor's Hornpipe and a tap dance number, and the step dancers were Rex Johnston and Emerson O'Connor. These numbers were all heartily enjoyed.

Two lovely numbers "The Hop-Scotch Polka" and "My Bonnie Lassie" were presented by Misses Janet and Betty Beirne, and a solo and tap dance number "Bluebell of Broadway" by Florence MacDonald were well received as was a solo "There's somebody waiting for me" sung by Cameron Munroe.

The program was organized by the Notre Dame Centennial Committee of which Mrs. F.A. Coyle and Mrs. Walter Lawlor are co-chairmen.

MARK CONVENT'S 100TH ANNIVERSARY

Yesterday was Students Day in Charlottetown in the series of celebrations being held this year to mark the hundredth anniversary of the founding of Notre Dame Convent. Gathered around the symbolic birthday cake (above) is a representative group of the more than 400 pupils who assembled in the convent auditorium to honor their alma mater on the completion of 100 years of community service in the field of education. The children were provided with treats-lunch, candy, soft drinks by the Alumnae Association. Feature of the afternoon's festivities was a most enjoyable sing-song.

Canada Takes 19 Awards For Brook Trout, Lakers

NEW YORK (CP)—The Prairie Provinces, with stunning performances by a northern Manitoba water system and an unheralded creek in Alberta, gave Canada her best ranking in the 1956 angling records.

A pair of giant brook trout from Alberta and a ponderous string of Manitoba lakers highlighted the Dominion's showing in Field and Stream magazine's fishing contest for last year, partial results of which were released today. God's Lake in Manitoba, 350 miles northeast of Winnipeg, was the most spectacular producer

Better Living IS NO GUESSING GAME... for the Diltrops. Guessing right, like being born lucky, has very little to do with better living - the Diltrops know. That's why, along with thousands of other far-sighted Canadian families, the Diltrops are building their future on a solid foundation. They simply save together according to a tried and tested formula - a habit of thrift and a B of M Savings Account for each member of the family. "It's a great feeling," says Dad Diltrop, "to know that you have money in the bank to meet unexpected opportunities or needs." And Mom... she's saved almost enough to pay cash for those drapes and matching bed-spreads she's always wanted. The youngsters, too, are learning that saving can be as easy as A.B.C., once the habit is acquired. And, by managing their own accounts they are developing a growing fund of self-reliance that will serve them well later in life. The Diltrop way is the way to better living. If better living is your aim, too, why not open a B of M Savings Account for everyone in your family? "By setting all your sights on savings goals that are within your means," say the Diltrops, "you take the first step towards better living for the whole family."
