Charge Dismissed In S'ide Court

SUMMERSIDE — In magistrate court Summerside, yesterday before Judge J. S. DesRoches the case of Nelson Gaudet, Tignish, charged with care and control of a motor vehicle while impaired, was dismissed, D.O. Stewart, Q.C. was crown prosecutor and J. Watson MacNaught, Q.C. counsel for the defence.

Gaudet was apprehended on August 27th at South Kildare by the Alberton detachment RCMP, behind the wheel of a parked 3-ton truck. Two other passengers in the vehicle were also asleep.

Defence witnesses claimed the truck was driven by one of the passengers, Albert Gaudet, and not by the accused, who according to the evidence got behind the wheel after the truck's motor stopped and endeavored to get it going again. RCMP stated on first try they couldn't get the vehicle started but after a brief examination found a coil wire unfastened.

and was fined $30 and costs. A man from Abram's Village who pleaded not guilty to a charge of possession of liquor other than in his residence was found not guilty and the charge dismissed.

NEW GOVERNMENT AT SUMMERSIDE

A new provincial government garage at Summerside, located on an enclosed five acre lot at the corner of the Green Road and the Pope Road, is nearing completion and is already in use. The new building, of steel girder and aluminum construction, has an adjoining office area on the north side. Six large roll-up doors extend along the entire south side of the garage enabling machines to enter and leave the building at any time without having to move any other vehicle. A ten foot steel fence encloses the property which includes plenty of area for safely parking vehicles or stock piling road building materials.

GAUNT CHIMNEY MARKS IONA FIRE

A standing chimney, surrounded by smoldering ruins, is all that remains of the home of Mrs. Helen Thwaite, Iona, following a fire on Wednesday evening which drove Mrs. Thwaite and her 15-year-old son out of the house before they could rescue any household articles, clothing or money.

They are staying temporarily with friends in Charlottetown and are being assisted by the Red Cross and the Department of Veterans Affairs.

MacLean and Laverne David ideals of the organization, international friendship and understanding were brought to the forefront at the study centre as many countries throughout the world were represented.

Thanking the teachers for their support during the past, Mrs. Devlin recommended that they should take every opportunity to provide the youth with openings to further promote international friendship.

She announced that a J.R.C. workshop is to be held October 17th, with an expected attendance of 70 teachers.

Lorne Moase, the president, in his post of presiding officer welcomed the delegates, approximately 208, and he recommended that all should work to attain a higher class of licence.

DISCUSSION GROUPS
During one period of the day the delegates were divided into three groups, each of which held a discussion on one of the following subjects:

1. The teaching of phonics - Carrie Thompson and Sister St. Theresa.
2. What to do with the exceptional child - Phyllis Britten, Lloyd Simmons, and Irene Easton.
3. Proposed changes in the science texts - Donald MacLean. Following this the reporter for each group gave an outline of the findings to the whole convention.

During the day the convention heard an interesting address by the general secretary of the P.E.I. Teachers' Federation, Miss Anna Riley.

For the final business of the convention the following new slate of officers was named for the coming year:
Past president, Lorne Moase; president, J. Weeks Murphy; 1st vice-president, Arnold Gaudet; 2nd vice-president, Wilber Lamont; secretary-treasurer, Sister Mary Eugenie.

BUILD BETTER FAMILIES

"TOTAL SELLING" FOOD PROMOTION

Beginning September 14, our newspapers will conduct a concerted two-week drive to focus attention on one of the basic necessities of life: FOOD! The theme, "BETTER MEALS BUILD BETTER FAMILIES," will emphasize the importance of the family meal as the traditional gathering place of the whole family. It will point up the fact that BETTER MEALS are not only more nourishing and enjoyable, but are conducive to a better, more cohesive family relationship. It will stress the non-food aspects of BETTER MEALS, too—from attractive table settings to cheerful, tasteful surroundings. This broad-gauged drive will create a most receptive audience for the advertising of ANYTHING that will contribute to BETTER MEALS or better family living!
