Pan-Slavist Conspiracy.

Queen Natalie, of Servia, on hearing of the arrest of six conspirators yesterday, immediately went to Nissa so as to be with her husband, King Milan, in the event of serious internal troubles.

There is reason to believe that the conspiracy is the outcome of a revolutionary programme recently planned by the Pan-Slavist Committee in Roumelia.

It was to have been preceded by a street or police revolution in Sofia which would have overthrown Prince Alexander in favor of Prince Nicholas of Montenegro, or of the latter's son-in-law, Peter Karageorgiev.

An outbreak at Sofia would have been the signal for another in Servia, and King Milan having been swept from his throne, a Pan-Slavist cry would have been raised for the union of Bulgaria, Eastern Roumelian, Old Servia and Macedonia under one sceptre that of Peter Karageorgiev.

The Pan-Slavist intriguers, however, made a mistake and took M. Karaveloff, Bulgarian Prime Minister, into their confidence, relying upon the old sentiments of animosity which he used to cherish toward Prince Alexander while he was living in exile.

Bul. M. Karaveloff, since he has been in office, has become very friendly with the Prince, and not only revealed the conspiracy to the Prince but persuaded the leading conspirators to precipitate the movement and execute it in favor of Prince Alexander.

It is said the Pan-Slavist Committee had the backing of Russia in their original scheme.

A Lively Church Sensation.

PLYMOUTH, ENG., Nov. 6. Rev. Stewart Ross, formerly rector of Christ Church, Belfast, Ireland, was addressing the Young Men's Christian Society last evening, when Charles Joy, Canadian Emigration Commissioner, burst into the room and shouted: "You hypocrite! you eloped with my wife!"

Ross turned pale and fled from the room. His audience was surprised and greatly excited. They became a howling mob and pursued their lecturer for a mile, yelling all the time.

At this point Ross, who had been driven to bay, turned suddenly and stabbed two of his most active pursuers. Others coming up, seized and disarmed the murderous rector, and he was arrested.

Ross disappeared from Belfast two years ago, leaving a wife and three children. Mrs. Joy, who was a teacher in his Sunday School, also disappeared at the same time.

Mrs. Joy was found in the prisoner's lodgings, and when informed of her paramour's arrest, gloried in her connection with the "Lord's anointed," as she called him.

She attended court to-day, and sat in a brazen manner throughout.

Found a Manufacturer Overloaded!

Bought Part of His Stock at a Sacrifice.

Prices are Still Tumbling and Purchasers will Reap the Benefit Thereof!

REID BROS. have purchased a large Invoice of Fine Saxony All-wool Tweeds from a Manufacturer's Agent, whose name we are not permitted to mention, at a great sacrifice to the mills, and we intend giving our patrons the advantage of this purchase.

These goods have never in the history of P. E. Island been retailed at less than $1.40 to $1.75 a yard, and we now can offer them at 50cts a yard, or will make up suits from them to order, with linings worth $1.10 a yard and other trimmings to match, at the popular price, $16 worth just $22.50 all over this country.

Will produce letters from some of the best men in town and country which must convince the most sceptical that our cutter, Mr. Bruce, and his helps, are equal to the times, and his garments are always neat, strong, perfect-fitting and full-fashioned.

Experience has taught us that many persons have been driven away in disgust from houses who are continually advertising goods at extraordinary prices, which they are unable to produce when called for, and to meet this difficulty we ask intending purchasers to call and examine our stock and we are confident that one inspection will satisfy the most sceptical that we never advertise a humbug.

50 Men's Suits, heavy black worsted goods, winter weights, only $6.50 a suit.

50 do do fine quality, $8.50, worth $12.
