Ministerial Association Holds Meeting

The P. E. I. Ministerial Association met in St. Paul's Hall, Charlottetown on May 4 with a fair attendance, considering the inclemency of the weather.

Rev. D. K. Ross, president, presided and concluded devotional exercises, assisted by Rev. G. C. Webster.

Letters from Dr. Lowry and Dr. Huestis of the Lord's Day Alliance, were read and considered.

Reports on legislation re gambling devices and the opening of the Public Library in the evening, were given verbally by Messrs. Webster and Raymond.

The committee appointed to deal with matters pertaining to the observance of the Lord's Day, were continued and requested to press action.

On motion by Mr. Webster, supported by Mr. Raymond and all the members the Association expressed high appreciation of the Christian fellowship, brotherly spirit, and helpfulness of Rev. P. E. Bishop, who has been supplying the Baptist Church for the last five months, and wished him good speed in his work, and many tokens of the Divine blessing in the eventide of life.

Mr. Keith Rogers was heard on broadcasting and gave interesting and valuable information and was thanked for his address and many gratuitous services to the public.

It was decided to call a meeting of the ministers of the City to consider the whole matter of church broadcasting, and report at a subsequent meeting.

It was agreed to adjourn, and meet in regular session, at the call of the President and Secretary, in the June meeting.

Numbers of Scouts in all parts of Canada are exchanging letters with Scouts in other countries, as qualification for the Scouts World Friendship Badge.

Lord Baden-Powell, the originator of Scouting, will go down in history as a great educationalist, not in so far as the scientific or mathematical field is concerned, perhaps, but in so far as practicality and usefulness are concerned. Rt. Rev. Philip Carrigan, Lord Bishop of Quebec.

Unique landscape features of the 553 acre camp site of the West Cheshire Boy Scouts Association, "Brynbach," on the Welsh hills, are hedge and tree aeroplane landing guides—a great arrow of golden wood, representing the Golden Arrow of Scout international goodwill, and a fleur-de-lis in green larch.

Gallantry awards for stopping runaway horses still are occasionally made to cool-headed and quick acting Boy Scouts. At Cheddington, Buckinghamshire, when a baker's horse frightened by a sanding machine ran madly down High Road, Scout A. Wesley, 13, ran and stopped him, while grown men hung back, and a Certificate of Gallantry was awarded.

In the meeting place of the International Scout Troop at the Canadian Academy, at Kobe, Japan, the Scout Law is displayed in English, German, Dutch, Spanish, Danish and Russian.

When the boys salute the flag, "no less than twelve different flags are hoisted, so that each Scout can pay respect to his own country's colours.

A deeply regretted loss to Scouting in Staffordshire was the death of the Earl of Dartmouth, President of the county Scout organization since 1912. Although 84, the Earl had maintained his active interest in the movement, and one of his last acts was to place the grounds of his home, Patshull Park, at the disposal of the Rover Scouts of the Midland Counties for a great senior Scout "moot" in May.

Records of Scout correspondence at the International Bureau, London, show that 90 Boy Scouts of Nottingham are exchanging letters with 94 Scouts in nine foreign countries.

Appreciation of the punctuality, zeal and intelligence of Scout messengers provided at very short notice for the meeting of the Council of the League of Nations at St. James' Palace, London, was expressed by Anthony Eden.

MRS. MARY BUCHANAN

The death occurred on March 8, 1936, at the home of her son Peter at Fredericton of Mrs. Mary Buchanan at the age of 77 years.

While for some time she had not been in robust health, she was active in the affairs of the community. On the previous Wednesday she attended the Women's Missionary Society meeting at the home of Mrs. Frank Cutcliffe and on Saturday started to go by sleigh to Springton. After going a short distance she returned and on arriving at her son's home was unable to speak. She did not fully regain consciousness and passed away on Sunday.

She was the widow of the late Murdoch Buchanan, and leaves to mourn their lost four daughters, Mrs. James Stewart and Mrs. Adelaide Rodd of Concord, N.E.; Mrs. Phoebe Stewart and Mrs. John Cutcliffe of Fredericton, P.E.I., and four sons, William of Albany, P.E.I., with winter Stanley, of Concord, N.H.; Herbert and Peter of Fredericton, P.E.I. Another son, Elmer, predeceased her six years ago.

There are also a brother, Daniel Nicholson of Hartsville, P.E.I., and two sisters, Mrs. Euphemia McDonald of Dorchester, Mass., and Mrs. Catherine Quist of Manchester, N.H.

She was a member of the Pleasant Valley United Church, a life member of the Women's Missionary Society of that Church and a Christian of the sturdy and pleasant type.

The funeral, owing to the bad roads, was held in the Fredericton Christian Church (kindly offered for the occasion) and was conducted by Rev. Arthur Wallis, of Bradshaw, her minister. The hymns used were "The Lord's My Shepherd," "Just Gone Before" and "Abide With Me."

The pastor brought a comforting message from the words "Behold I come quickly." "Even so, come Lord Jesus."

Rev. Arthur and Mrs. Wallis sang the duet "Shall We Meet Beyond the River" with winsome appeal and Mrs. Harold Sharp played the quiet accompaniment very effectively and also played for the hymns.

The committal was conducted by the pastor in the cemetery at Fredericton where she was laid beside her late husband.

The large number of people at the funeral services bore silent tribute to one who was held in high esteem by all.
