Scholarships and Bursaries

Scholarships and bursaries are available for grad. study for the year '75-'76. Information on the following scholarships as well as others is available at Student Services from Donna McGaugh.

Sir James Dunn Law Scholarship: Eligible for any student entering the law faculty at Dalhousie University excluding WOMEN! The value of the scholarship is $2,500.00 and is renewable.

National Research Council: These grants are available to anyone planning to do research in the sciences. The numbers and amounts of the grants vary. The terms of reference are different for each field.

O'Brien Foundation Fellowship: Unrestricted field of study. Residents of New Brunswick have priority. The reward is renewable and there are up to five scholarships available. The amount of the scholarship is left to the discretion of the committee.

Mail's Our Bag Con't

have been best appreciated and remembered. So, instead of shitting on one writer, why nit become one yourself. And let the whole student body hear your story (not just your shitting).
