

Warren Hastings and Sir Philip Francis.

AN INTERESTING HISTORICAL REMINISCENCE.

Warren Hastings was hardly less as a literary character than as a civil administrator.

Sir Philip Francis, the most probable author of the "Letters of Junius," led a checkered life in India.

As the vessel bore Francis and the other members of the council up this Hugli to Calcutta, it was expected by the strangers from afar that the royal salute of twenty-one guns from the batteries of Fort William would be given them.

Francis indulged in all the license and splendor which his position, salary, and skill in gaming permitted.

Don't Try Experiments.

Experimenting with a severe cold, now trying this remedy and then that, is dangerous business; for like lightning one can never tell where a cold may strike or finally settle.
