IN MEMORIAM

MRS. CAROLINE ELIZA BARLOW

The sudden death occurred at her home on Friday, November 14th, of Mrs. Caroline Eliza Barlow, wife of William H. Barlow, in her 71st year. Her many friends and relatives were shocked to learn of her sudden passing. All medical aid was in vain, as God called her to His eternal home "nigh."

Venerable Archdeacon G. R. Harrison, clergyman of the Anglican Church, Summerside, officiated at the funeral service at her late residence on Monday, November 17th. Her remains were then conveyed to the Wellington United Church, of which the deceased was an ardent worker in church affairs. She was a life long member of the Anglican Church, Port Hill, where a daughter and two sons who predeceased her many years ago, were laid to rest.

Service at Wellington United Church was conducted by Archdeacon Harrison, assisted by Mr. John T. Waldron. Hymns sung were: "Rock of Ages" and "What a Friend We Have in Jesus." Mr. Waldron beautifully rendered a solo, "Asleep in Jesus."

The funeral procession then proceeded to the graveyard where a brief service was held. Funeral arrangements were conducted by Mr. Ensor Bowness, assisted by Mr. Wood. Pallbearers were Messrs. Harold and John Baglole, Edson Cameron, Jack and Claude Barlow and Lloyd Ferguson. Many beautiful pillows and wreaths were placed on her grave.

The following bereaved members of her family survive: one son and three daughters, Ira in Wellington; (Gertie), Mrs. Keith MacDonald, also of Wellington; (Wanda), Mrs. Eugene Broyles, Union Corner; (Dorothy), Mrs. Russell Bernard, Hunter River; and twenty grandchildren; two brothers, William Cameron, on the old homestead in Lot 16, and Russell, also of Lot 16; six sisters, (Bessie), Mrs. Frank McDonald of New York; (Ella May), Mrs. Harry Mayo of Rhode Island; (Maude), Mrs. Harold White of Hartford, Conn.; (Gertrude), Mrs.

Edson Fletcher of Milton, Mass.; (Maretta), Mrs. Charles Hathaway of Belmont, Mass.; (Laura), Mrs. William Baglole of Southwest, Lot 16, P. E. I.

The deceased was a devoted member of the Ladies' Aid.
