Sullivan and O'Brien Arraigned

A Struggle in Court.

SULLIVAN'S CASE DISMISSED

Another Carey Discovered.

DUBLIN, Oct. 6. The trial of Lord Mayor Sullivan and Wm. O'Brien for publishing in their papers reports of the meetings of the suppressed branches of the National League was opened at the Mansion House Court this afternoon. The Lord Mayor was driven to the court in a carriage, followed by John Dillon, M. P., ex-Lord Mayors E. Dwyer Gray and Charles Dawson, ex-Sheriff McDonald and others. The City Marshal wearing a cocked hat and a sword led the civic dignitaries, who were arrayed in full robes of office. Mr. O'Brien joined the procession soon after it started and proceeded to the court. The streets through which the procession passed were thronged. Policemen wandered through the crowd, and a cordon of police surrounded the Mansion House and prevented the multitude from approaching the court room. After the case was called, a warm dispute occurred between the police attendants in court, Mr. Sexton and the High Sheriff, arising from a desire of the latter to place the city sword and mace before the magistrate. The police attempted to prevent the placing of the civic emblems on the table, whereupon Sexton and other municipal officers seized the sword and attempted to place it there by force. The police and municipal officers struggled for possession of the sword, while the spectators in the gallery cheered Sexton and exhorted him to "hold on." After a few minutes both sides desisted, and after a parley a compromise was effected—the sword being placed on the Magistrate's bench. When quiet was restored the case of Sullivan was proceeded with. After hearing the evidence the court dismissed the case on the ground that the Crown had not proved that the meeting reported in the Nation was a meeting of a suppressed branch of the National League. The spectators and crowd outside the court were wildly enthusiastic over the decision. The case of Mr. O'Brien will be called to-morrow.

The Late G. W. Milner.

At a regular meeting of Victoria Division, No. 4, held on the 3rd day of October, instant, the following resolution was adopted:—

Resolved.—That a letter of condolence, as hereto annexed, be forwarded to the widow of our late lamented brother, George W. Milner, P. G. W. Patriarch. That a copy thereof be published in the city papers and transcribed in the minutes, and That the Charter of this Division be draped in mourning for three months.

W. N. TANTON, Recording Scribe.

ADDRESS:

DEAR MADAM.—It having pleased Almighty God, in the order of His Providence, to remove from our midst our well-beloved brother, George W. Milner, Past Grand Worthy Patriarch, we take this opportunity of conveying to you our heartfelt sympathy in this time of your bereavement, and also to assure you of the very high esteem in which he was held by all the members of our Order—the Order he loved so well.

We mourn to-day the loss of a true Son of Temperance, one who was at all times ready and willing to perform his part in the great work to which for so many long years he was devotedly attached.

As a public man and as a citizen our departed brother was eminently useful. By his sterling qualities of head and heart, backed by a consistent Christian character, he commanded the esteem and respect of all with whom he came in contact. His public addresses were of such a character as to secure the warmest approbation of all who had the privilege of listening to his stirring and eloquent words.

While we are now called upon to mourn his sudden departure, we mourn not as those who have no hope, but are comforted with the thought that our loss is his eternal gain. We say that He who has promised to be a father to the fatherless and a husband to the widow, may sustain you and yours in this hour of sorrow, and as one unbroken family you may at last see all meet in that happy home, where the painful separations of earth are forever unknown.

We beg to remain, Dear Madam, on behalf of Victoria Division, yours respectfully,

J. J. CHAPPELL, J. D. SEAMAN, HENRY KACAM, Committee.
