Speaker Informs Delegates Concerning Red Cross Work

Grandview Womens Institute was host to the South Centre Kings annual convention held in Heatherdale hall. Delegates from eight Institutes attended.

Mrs. Pearl Gillis, on behalf of Grandview Womens Institute, extended a hearty welcome to all members and visitors present. Mrs. Minnie Martin, Valleyfield, replied.

The minutes of the last annual convention were read by the secretary, Mrs. Alex A. MacPhee presided. A condensed report of work done by the various Institutes during the past year was given by Mrs. Louise Stuart.

Special speaker, Mrs. Fred MacMillan, took Red Cross work as her topic, stressing the need for more home nursing courses and explaining their advantages in the home and in an emergency in the community. She thanked the Institute for all work sent to the Red Cross.

Handiwork exhibits on display consisted of several hooked rugs, needlecraft, crochet work and knitting.

Mrs. Norman MacMillan, editor of the Institute News brought greetings from the Provincial Executive and gave a brief resume of provincial Womens Institute work during the past 50 years. She also stated that the history of Prince Edward Island's Women's Institutes for the past 50 years, would be for sale at the Provincial Convention to be held at Prince of Wales College on July 10 and 11. In conclusion she read a poem composed by Mrs. W.A. Bruce, Valleyfield.

A sing-song followed, led by members of Grandview Womens Institute with Mrs. Flora Peardon as pianist.

Whim Road Institute entertained with a contest, with Mrs. Louise Stuart and Mrs. Anna Donald in charge. A special feature was the modelling of four wedding dresses, each over 65 years old. Miss Gloria MacPherson wore a dress that belonged to the late Mrs. Ben Clow of Murray Harbor North, 72 years ago. Mrs. Rae MacKinnon's dress of white lace was worn by Mrs. Hugh MacPherson of Wood Islands, 65 years ago. Mrs. MacPherson also wore this dress on the occasion of her 50th wedding anniversary. Mrs. Hays modelled a dress brought from Ireland, belonging to her grandmother and Mrs. Flora Peardon was dressed in a white gown with black cape and bonnet. A reading, "Teaching Children to Share" was given by Mrs. Hazel MacKinnon.

Miss Doris LeClair of the Women's Institute Branch spoke on the work accomplished in the Institutes in the past year and wished them continued success in the future.

A paper "Catering to Crowds" read by Miss Shaw gave helpful suggestions for arranging and managing church suppers with a minimum of work. She also illustrated with a chart different menus suitable for suppers at different seasons of the year.

A vote of thanks was extended to Grandview Womens Institute for their hospitality and to the Provincial delegates for their addresses during the afternoon. The meeting closed by repeating the Mary Stewart Collect. Lunch was served by Grandview WI.

Island Native Is Wed At Two Ring Ceremony In Calgary

The altar of Pleasant Heights United Church, Calgary, decorated with baskets of gladioli, Chrysanthemums and carnations formed the setting for a wedding ceremony when marriage vows were exchanged between Miss Helene Shirley Grott and Mr. John Heber Ladner. Rev. Douglas Cary officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Grott of Hanna and the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ladner reside in North River P.E.I.

Given in marriage by her maternal grandfather the bride wore a floor length gown of white embossed peau de soie featuring a fitted bodice, empire neckline and long lily point sleeves. The skirt was designed with a straight front panel and full back caught with tiny self bows. Her shoulder length bonnet veil was held in place by a floral headpiece and she carried a cascade bouquet of

QUEBEC WITHDRAWS

QUEBEC (CP) — Resources Minister Rene Levesque has announced that Quebec will withdraw next year from a federal-provincial program of study of hydro - electric resources. He said Ottawa's expenditure on the program, started in 1922, was not in line with the importance of Quebec's hydraulic resources, which produce 44 per cent of Canada's electric energy.

Catering And Flowers Topics Of Discussion At Convention

Mrs. James Gard of Mill River was the presiding officer at the Women's Institute district convention held in Alberton. Mrs. Harold Horne was secretary. More than forty members were present, including delegates from a recently organized institute at Brockton. Mrs. Desmond Dalton of St. Lawrence replied to the welcome extended on behalf of Mill River by Mrs Gard.

Reports from the institutes told of a wide variety of service to schools and communities Several schools have been entered in the Rural Beautification Contest.

Miss Suzanne Shaw brought greetings from the office staff in Charlottetown and spoke on catering.

Mrs. Gordon MacMillan of Cornwall spoke on flowers and brought samples of blooms from her garden. Her informal discussion of shrubs and flowers was well applauded.

Mrs. Lloyd Wilkie of Dock Institute informed the delegates of the history of WI work in this province. This history will be published in the near future. Mrs. Wilkie announced that Mrs. Geerda Vanbeekoff, world president of the Associated Countrywomen of the World, who is to be in this province next month, will visit this district on July 13th. Plans for a reception in Alberton are being made. Mrs. A.C. Green spoke briefly on Red Cross work.

Stewardship Is Theme At Alberton Church Workshop

ALBERTON — An informative evening was spent in Alberton United Church hall earlier this week when United County Women from Prince County west of Summerside assembled for a workshop. Mrs. R.F. MacAusland presided and opened the meeting with the purpose, a hymn and a prayer.

Mrs. Fred Leard president of the Alberton group, extended a warm welcome to those from other congregations. Following the roll call, to which some sixty members responded, Mrs. MacAusland introduced other members of the Presbyterial executive who were present. They were Mrs. C.R. Webber, Mrs. Henry Loyse, Mrs. Bryer Jones, Mrs. Allen Jenkins, Mrs. Charles Howatt, Mrs. David Mutch and Mr. A. C. Green.

In a brief presidential message. Mrs. Howatt announced that leadership training schools will be held at Berwick and at Tatamagouche during the summer. She likened the United Church women's organization to the hub of a wheel, its activities to the spokes, and the rim to the total mission of the church to which it is dedicated.

The financial statement, prepared by the presbyterial treasurer, Mrs. W.B. Creed, indicated that contributions to the unified budget for the first quarter of this year showed considerable increase over those for the same period last year.

Following a period for discussion groups there was a panel discussion, "new patterns for United Church woman." in which Mrs. Moyse, Mrs. Webber and Mrs. Jenkins participated.

Literature was reviewed by Mrs. Mutch and Mrs. Green opened the question box.

Closing worship, led by Mrs. Fred Leard, had "stewardship" as its theme. In a well prepared meditation she stressed the thought that it is not the worldly value of the gift offered to God that counts, but the spirit in which it is given. During an hour of social fellowship refreshments were served by the ladies of Alberton congregation.

CWL Members Receive Scrolls

KENSINGTON — A highlight of the June meeting of the Indian River - Kensington Parish Council of the CWL was the presentation of scrolls to the following members who have served for 25 years with the League: — Miss Emma Brennan, Miss Ellie Gillis, Mrs. Hubert Gillis, Mrs. Frank Shea, Mrs. Austin MacLellan, Mrs. James L. Saunders, Mrs. L.G. Ramsay. Mrs. James Condon, Mrs. Leo Hughes and Mrs. E.G. Gillis.

The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Austin MacLellan with the president, Mrs. John Arsenault, in the chair. A total of 22 members and one visitor were present. The minutes of the May meeting were read by the secretary, Mrs. Thomas Turner, and, in the absence of the treasurer, Mrs. Leo Hughes, the financial report was given by Mrs. Percy McCarville.

A pantry sale was planned to be held at Cavendish on Tuesday on July 9 at 1 p.m.

A thank you note was received from the Prince County Welfare. Vestments were ordered for the parish, and signs were ordered for both churches, St Mary's, Indian River, and the Church of the Holy Family, Kensington. On each will be placed the name of the church and the time of the Masses.

It was decided that a Mass for the intentions of the 1963 graduates of Kensington Regional High School would be celebrated to be followed by a communion breakfast at the home of Mrs Joseph MacDonald.

The meeting closed with prayer. Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Hubert Gillis and Mrs. Russell Campbell.

District Governor Presents Charter To New Zonto Club

Charlottetown's newest service club was officially launched last week with a charter dinner held at the Charlottetown Hotel. Presenting the charter was Miss Dorothy Etzm Medford, Mass., governor of district one.

Mrs. Evelyn Cudmore presided, and Miss Helen Cleveland gave the invocation. Miss Cleveland is past president of Zonta International.

Miss Etz, in her address, explained the origin of Zonta, its objectives, emblem, and development in 20 countries.

The welcome to district one was extended by Miss Constance MacFarlane, past president of Halifax Zonta Club. Greetings were read from Queens County Federal government members and Premier Walter Shaw, extended provincial greetings to the new club, and welcomed the visitors.

Councillor Edmond Arsenault welcomed the new club to the community. Charlottown Zonta members were introduced by vice-president Mrs. Margaret Campbell. W.N. Black, Rotary Club, and Mrs. Beverley Cook, University Woman's Club, extended good wishes on behalf of local service clubs.

Congratulatory messages from other Zonta clubs and members were read by Miss Carrie Thomson, corresponding secretary. The gifts received were acknowledged by Mrs.Cudmore. Miss Mabel Matheson expressed the thanks of the Charlottetown Club to Miss Etz and Mrs. Clarke, and presented them with souvenir gifts.

Yellow roses, the official flower, and the club colors of yellow and gold were highlighted at the meeting.
