

LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

MANTLES A SPECIALTY.—BEER BROS. THE STANLEY is in port. To-night—Come and hear about the wonders of the "Starry Heavens."

CHILD MISSING.—An adopted child of Mr. James McLeas, Gallant Point, has been missing since Monday last.

NO. 2 COMPANY, G. A.—Every man in the company will please be on hand to night to form gun detachments.

GOSE TO SUMMERSIDE.—The Hattie Louise left for Summerside on Saturday, after having discharged sugar and molasses here.

NEW PLANKWAY.—A new plankway is being put down on the west side of Hillsborough street, between Kent and Gratton streets.

EARLY WREATH.—Mr. Kellor, of Cornwall, cut a fine field of wheat, well ripened, on the 5th, which was sown just three months previously.

ZION CHURCH CHRISTIAN ENDORSER SOCIETY.—A full attendance is requested this evening. Business of importance will come up for consideration.

PHILHARMONIC HALL.—Lecture to-night by Rev. Mr. Hamlyn. The Artillery Band will be present. Tickets 10 cents, to be had at the book-stores and at the hall.

THE PLAYERS called here yesterday forenoon on her way to Halifax from Summerside, for Harry Lindley's company of players who are to give a performance at Port Hawkesbury this evening.

FOR LORD ABERDEEN.—Mr. Cloud Hill, photographer, Queen Street, has received instructions from His Excellency the Governor General to photograph the two arches erected in honor of his visit.

BARRACKS BURNED.—The Salvation Army Barracks at Fredericton, N. B., was destroyed by fire on Friday morning. The fire is believed to have been of incendiary origin, and several persons are under arrest.

ALL lovers of good music should not fail to secure tickets for the Summer Quartet concert at the Opera House this evening. The Quartet is without question the most artistic combination of male voices in America.

POLICE COURT.—This forenoon, the Scott Act cases against Richard Thorne and William Hearty were further adjourned for one week. "Jimmy" Hughes was fined $5 or twenty days for using profane language on the streets, one drunk was fined $1 or four days, and four other drunks were discharged.

GOOD WHEELERS.—Yesterday Mr. Walter P. Doull rode from Charlottetown to Summerside on his bicycle in a little less than four hours, and rode from Summerside to Charlottetown the same evening in four hours and five minutes. The last fifteen miles were made by moonlight. The run was made on a Bantroler.

DON'S FOREST IV.—Lieut. Pugh, of the Social Reform Battalion of the British Army, will deliver a lecture in the Barracks this evening, at 8 o'clock, on "General Booth's Darkest England Scheme," with special reference to its application in Canada and other countries. Mrs. Beer will be on the platform and take part in the meeting. All are invited.

SCOTS WA HAE.—Mr. Donald MacEachern, an enthusiastic member of the P. E. Island Caledonian Club, now a resident of Pictou, N. S., with some two hundred excursionists, hired the steamer St. Olaf, of Pictou, and arrived at Georgetown in time to witness the proceedings on Saturday. The party were accompanied by their two pipers, A. Sutherland and W. Harrington.

FELL DOWN FROM EXHAUSTION.—An old woman named Woods fell down in front of Dr. Brown's office, Fitzroy Street, on Saturday last, and became unconscious. The doctor, after bringing her to, found that the woman was almost starved, and her weakness was owing to that cause. It appears that she was formerly an inmate of the Poor House, to which institution Marshal Cameron returned her.

OFFICERS ELECTED.—At the meeting of the Farmers and Dairymen's Association held recently, the following officers were elected: President—Hon. Alex. Laird, (re-elected). Vice-President—John C. Underhay, Esq., (re-elected). Secretary—F. V. Vessey, (re-elected). Executive Committee—Neil McPhee, Glenoraide; Chas. Waye, St. Peter; F. S. Robertson, Red Point; Abraham Brown, Jos. Wise, Jas. Dickison, Jno. Annear, (re-elected).

THE OPERA HOUSE.—The Harry Lindley company of players concluded their engagement at the Opera House on Saturday evening, when Bartley Campbell's well-known society play "Divorce" was most acceptably presented. After the third act Mr. Second made the announcement that the management of the Opera House had made arrangement for a return engagement of the company, beginning October 15th, when they will produce Harry Lindley's play, copyrighted in Washington, "Ben Hur." Also "Sitting Bull," the last of the Sioux; "The Castaways," &c. The company will be considerably augmented.

OPFELLOWSHIP.—At the recent session of the Grand Lodge at Halifax, the following officers were elected for the ensuing term: Grand Master—H. W. Rogers, Amherst. Deputy Grand Master—S. T. Rogers, Moncton. Grand Warden—T. B. Grady, Summerside. Grand Secretary—J. C. P. Frazier, Halifax (re-elected). Grand Treasurer—J. H. Balem, Halifax. Grand Representative—W. S. Rogers, Halifax. DIED.

At DeSable, on the 26th ult., Isabel McKay, beloved wife of Mr. John Currie, in the 79th year of her age.

At DeSable on the 30th July, Isabel McKay, beloved wife of John Currie, Esq., in the 79th year of her age. The peaceful life had a peaceful and happy close. Sustained by her unflinching trust in the Saviour, whom she had so faithfully served, death was to her but the opening of the portal leading to the "rest that remains for the people of God."
