The Lord's Prayer was repeated in unison followed by the Scripture read by Mrs. H. E. Nelson. The study period was conducted by Mrs. A. D. MacLure, assisted by Mrs. G. Higginbotham, who gave a missionary reading. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. Roll call was answered by fifteen members. There were two visitors present. The closing hymn was "My Faith Leads Up To Thee".

The closing hymn was "My Faith Leads Up To Thee". The missionary meeting was followed by a business meeting of the Ladies Aid Society conducted by the president, Mrs. A. D. MacLure. Plans were made for having repairs made in the church. Mrs. MacLure and Mrs. Harry Higginbotham were appointed a committee in charge of arrangements. A delicious lunch was served by the hostess assisted by Misses Catherine Currie, Barbara MacLeod and Joanne Watterworth.

Male Octette in Georgetown

*Over uninviting roads and through discouraging weather, the Charlottetown Male Octette joyfully came to Georgetown on Sunday night to keep their engagement at St. David's United Church where they were welcomed by a large and most appreciative audience. "The Eight Gentlemen" were at their best and were generous in the number and variety of their selections. There was also the added attraction of a solo, "The Stranger of Galilee" by Mr. L. MacLennan. Mr. Harington Yorston was the efficient organist. The pastor, the Rev. S. J. Boyce, warmly thanked the artists, and also spoke of the paramount importance of each Christian cultivating a daily walk with God as Enoch and many others through the centuries have done.

After the service the visitors were guests at the home of Mrs. Mary Yorston where music, social intercourse and appetizing refreshments in which the hostess was assisted by Mrs. Spurgeon Walker and Mrs. Nelson Hansen, rounded out an inspiring and long-to-be-remembered evening. — G

Montague Notes

As the railway strike continues the people of this district are becoming more aware of the consequent difficulties. It is becoming more apparent that essential foods may be in short supply should the strike continue indefinitely. At present stocks of sugar and flour are relatively good but no assurance can be made for the immediate future dependent on the wholesalers' stocks, which, it is reported, are in a state of flux at the moment.

Besides this the travelling public are meeting difficulties at Wood Islands in their attempt to travel

Evangelistic Meetings At Montague Church

A series of evangelistic meetings began in the Montague Church of Christ Monday evening August 21; in spite of the very wet weather about one hundred people assembled to enjoy the lively song service directed by William Weale of Greenmount Church of Christ. Mr. Weale favoured the congregation with a trumpet solo and a vocal solo. Mr. Burris Butler of Cincinnati, Ohio, is the evangelist and his topic on that occasion was "The Conquering Name of Jesus."

Tuesday evening marked a decided increase in attendance at the services; on that occasion entire seating capacity of the large building was almost entirely used. Again Mr. Weale led in the song service as the people joined him in the great hymns of the church. A highlight of the musical activities was the special musical selections rendered by the male quartet of the Charlottetown Church of Christ.

Mr. Butler spoke upon the theme "Jesus Christ Is The Son of God." A third meeting of the special evangelistic campaign in the Montague Church of Christ was held on Wednesday evening. On that evening the increase in attendance demanded slight crowding in order to accommodate the people. Again the song service under Mr. Weale's direction was thoroughly enjoyed. Highlighting the musical activities of the evening were a vocal duet by Mrs. Ralph Beck of Montague and her sister Mrs. Honsburger of Toronto, an instrumental trio featuring Miss Alice, Janet and Carolyn Butler, daughters of the evangelist, and Mr. Weale's evening solo. The theme of Mr. Butler's message was "The New Covenant In The Blood Of Christ."

to the mainland. It is reported that some 160 cars were waiting for the boat yesterday morning, almost enough to keep the boats busy all day. With the installation of navigation lights, and the introduction of night crossings, Northumberland Ferries are doing all possible to handle the congestion.

It is reported that some coal will be brought by vessels to unload here. In view of this difficulty, the citizens who are interested in having the river dredged are anxious to see coal brought in by vessel from Sydney to supply the needs of the dredge and the tug-boats, for it would be unfortunate, after having waited so long for a dredge that neglecting to provide this avenue for coal might result in its loss which would be serious to the district as a whole which does considerable export and import trade by water.

Georgetown Loses Prominent Citizen

The death occurred at her home in Georgetown on Thursday, August 17th of Mrs. Michael Burke Sr. in her 72nd year. Mrs. Burke's sudden passing after an illness of only a few hours came as a shock to her many friends and acquaintances in Georgetown and throughout the Province. During her years in Georgetown the late Mrs. Burke associated herself with many societies and organizations. A devout member of the Roman Catholic faith, she was a prominent and active member of the Catholic Women's League and the Legion of Mary. She was also a member of St. James' Parish Credit Union, the Georgetown Community Welfare League and during the years that the Women's Institute was an active organization in our town she was a leading member. The wife of a first war veteran and the mother of a veteran of the Second World War, she proved herself a friend to all veterans and a tireless worker on their behalf; as the chairman of the Citizens' Rehabilitation Committee for Georgetown. Following the close of the last war she was a leading figure in the banquets given by the town in honor of its veterans. The fields of Home Economy and Domestic Science occupied much of her spare time and interests. As an outstanding practical nurse she will long be remembered for her devotion to and care of the sick and troubled in our community as she was ever ready to help under any and all circumstances.

The late Mrs. Burke possessed a high degree of intelligence and in her undertakings in the various fields of public service which claimed her interests, she thoroughly studied her subjects and applied her untiring energy and organizing ability to the fullest, never sparing herself but ever giving her all, to the work of bettering existing conditions. In her passing Georgetown has suffered the loss of one of its most prominent and civic-minded citizens; one whose good deeds will live long in the memory of our generation of Georgetonians.

On Friday evening, August 18th, the members of the Catholic Women's League attended the home and said prayers for the deceased. The League members also attended the funeral in a body. Left to mourn are her husband, Michael Burke
