FORD — In loving memory of Freda Florence Ford, who passed away January 4, 1960, at the early age of twelve. From our happy home and circle. God has taken one we loved. She has gone from earth to Heaven. To a better home above. But we know that she is waiting At that gateway bright and fair. And we'll meet her some glad morning. As we join her over there. Ever remembered by Mom, Dad, Brothers and Sisters.

OBITUARY

MRS. A. A. MacDOUGALL
A wide circle of friends and relatives were deeply saddened when it was learned that Mrs. Albert MacDougall of Canoe Cove had passed away at the P.E.I. Hospital on Oct. 5th, 1961.

The late Mrs. MacDougall (Sadie) as she was known to all, was born at Nine Mile Creek, November 27th, 1888 the youngest daughter of the late Allan and Margaret Livingstone.

She attended Union Commercial College Charlottetown and on graduating worked for a period of time in the Guardian-Office before moving to Providence N.I. where she lived and worked for several years.

On returning to Nine Mile Creek she married Albert MacDougall they made their home in Canoe Cove where she had taken a very active part in the community.

She was a faithful member of Canoe Cove Presbyterian Church, very keenly interested in the young people she was Sunday School Teacher for a number of years, held various offices in the Y.P.S., sang in the Church choir and was the first President of the Women's Missionary Society of the Church.

She had a great capacity for making friends, she was kind and loving wife and mother, and helpful neighbour to all and will be sadly missed in her home and community.

For the past year she had been under the doctor's care everything medical possible had been done but it was God's will that his loved one should be called to her Heavenly home.

Besides her husband she leaves to mourn a daughter Irene, (Mrs. Clifford Moffat), Streetsville, Ont., a son Lloyd of Milton Ont., and five grandchildren.

She is also survived by a sister, Mrs. James Cowan, New York, and two brothers, Fletcher of East Providence N.I., and Daniel, Southport, P.E.I. five sisters and two brothers predeceased her.

The funeral was largely attended with a short service at the MacLeans Funeral Home conducted by Rev. Donald Campbell and at Canoe Cove Presbyterian Church by Rev. Donald Nicholson. During the service a solo "Good Night and Good Morning" was beautifully rendered by Miss Stella MacEachern.

Mr. Nicholson chose as his theme "The bright side of death" and rendered a most suitable and comforting message to the bereaved, and high tribute to the sincerity and faith of the deceased.

There were many beautiful floral tributes from friends and relatives.

Palbearers were: James MacKenzie, Malcolm MacFadyen, Douglas MacLean, Warren MacDonald, Milton MacNevin, Joe MacKenzie.

Interment took place in the Church cemetery.

Dear one, how much we grieve to know That in this world no more we'll meet, No more exchange the written word, Or pass an hour in converse sweet. How precious is the thought of you We hold so closely, tenderly, Within our hearts—to glow serene A lustrous pearl of memory. Inserted by family as a tribute to deceased.

OBITUARY

Inserted by friends and relatives as a tribute to the deceased.

CHARLES N. MacEACHERN
In the passing of Charles N. MacEachern of Rice Point on November 30th, 1961, in his 83rd year, a lifelong resident has been called away who will be greatly missed by a wide circle of friends and relatives.

For a number of years he had been inactive as a farmer, but took a keen interest in the farm work and was happy in the visits of his friends and those dear to him.

Although unable to attend church services for some time, he was comforted and sustained by visits from Rev. Donald Nicholson, Rev. George Killen and the elders of the church.

The funeral, which was largely attended, was held from the Cutcliffe Funeral Home on December 1st, to Canoe Cove Presbyterian Church, where services at church and graveside were conducted by Rev. Donald Nicholson. Scripture selections were from Jeremiah Chapter 12 and 1st Corinthians, chapter 15, The 23rd Psalm, and the hymn "Asleep in Jesus" were sung. Rev. Mr. Nicholson sang the beautiful solo, "Beyond the Sunset."

The pallbearers were, Neil E. MacEachern, William MacEachern, John Y. MacDonald, Wilbert Currie, John B. MacDonald and Robert MacDonald.

Left to mourn his passing are his wife and family, fourteen grandchildren, two sisters and one brother.

When gray threads mar life's pattern And seem so out of line, Trust the Master Weaver. Who planned the whole design. For in life's choicest patterns Some dark threads must appear. To make the rose threads fairer. The gold more bright and clear.

CARD OF THANKS

The family of the late Charles N. MacEachern, wish to thank Rev. Donald Nicholson, Rev. Donald Campbell, Dr. A. MacLeod, T. Eaton Co., Rice Point W.I. and all the kind friends and relatives who send cards and messages of sympathy or helped in any way in their recent bereavement. Inserted by wife and family.
