

Annual W.I. Meeting
At MacEdward Manor

Mrs. Jay Edwards entertained the member of New Glasgow Women's Institute at her home on Monday evening, November 14th. With the president presiding, the meeting opened by singing the "Song of Peace" followed by the Mary Stewart Collect.

Minutes of last monthly and annual meetings were read and approved. Roll call was responded to by fourteen members and four visitors by telling about their most embarrassing moment.

Secretary reported Miss Cole, had organized a Sewing Class and several members offered to help the teacher instruct the children with their sewing. It was moved and seconded that the Institute would be responsible for the music teachers transportation and share of salary.

The sick and school Committees gave their reports. New committees are as follows: Lunch - Mrs. C. S. Dingwell and Mrs. George Dickleson; School - Mrs. Paul Richardson and Mrs. Lorne Stevenson; Sick - Mrs. Edwin Stevenson and Mrs. Oliver Parkman; Grammar - Mrs. Revell Dickleson and Miss M. E. Campbell.

Following are the officers for the following year: President - Mrs. Foster Bellamy; Vice President - Mrs. Ralph Dickleson; Secretary Treasurer - Mrs. Harland Hill.

Mrs. Ian MacMillan invited members to meet at her home for the December meeting. Roll Call will be answered by an exchange of gifts to the value of fifty cents. Refreshments were served by the committee in charge assisted by the hostess. Two interesting contests were enjoyed during the social hour. Meeting closed with the National Anthem.

HAMPTON

Funeral Services for the late Mr. Fred L. Dunsford, whose sudden death occurred at his home near Cornwall Village on Nov. 13, were held from his late residence to St. John's Anglican Church at Crapaud on November 15. Widely known and respected resident of Cornwall for many years, the service, largely attended, was conducted by Rev. Mr. Ebsary, Rector of St. John's Church, and the interment was made in the Church Cemetery.

Sympathy is being extended to relatives of the late Mr. Paul Frost, whose death occurred at Chatham General Hospital on Nov. 14. Additional significance in connection with this bereavement is the continued illness of the widow of the late Mr. Frost in the same hospital as at the time of the death of her late husband. Mrs. Frost was formerly Miss Maude Holm, of Victoria, P. E. I. and who has a sister, Miss Olive B. Holm, of the staff of the Provincial Sanatorium, Charlottetown.

Sympathy is being extended to the surviving relatives of the late Mrs. John E. Campbell, whose sudden death occurred in the P. C. Hospital on Thursday at the age of 75. Widely known and highly respected the funeral services at Trinity United Church and at Wilmot Valley, where the interment was made, were largely attended. Congratulations are being extended to Messrs. Keith Boswell and son, winners of 30 many prizes for cattle exhibited at the Royal Winter Fair.

Mrs. H. R. Proffit has been the recent guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Proffit, while visiting relatives and friends at Kensington.

November 18 has brought a reminder of November 20, 1955, when a very large congregation assembled at the Church of Scotland to convey final tributes of respect for the late Mr. Douglas Mackinnon, of DeSable, at the funeral services conducted there on Nov. 20. All present experienced great difficulty in reaching their respective homes, by reason of a great blizzard which struck our Province with such force that cars found great difficulty in keeping the highway, meeting, and passing, with their lights on. The present snow-fall, so far, has been much milder, and has not rolled up into drifts. The highway is slippery, however, as is evidenced by the report, just received, of two cars, near Summerside, having met in a head-on collision, each car turning over on opposite sides of the paved highway.

Roads and weather conditions were somewhat detrimental to large gatherings at the services of public worship here on Nov. 18. An attentive hearing was given to the inspiring address on the subject: "Jacob digged a well". Due to conditions the service at Victoria was cancelled.
