CHURCH NOTES.

Practical Expression of Regard for a Deserving Clergyman.

The Rev. J. W. McKenzie, Presbyterian Minister of East St. Peter's Congregation, recently announced from the pulpit, that it was his intention shortly to resign, in order to give the people a chance to re-elect him as their Pastor, or in the event of that failing, some one else. Upon this the Congregation took immediate steps to show that such a course on his part was altogether uncalled for. Commissioners were appointed to call upon every family for their opinion and renewal of subscription. At a meeting of the session and managers of the Congregation held at Head of the Bay last Wednesday afternoon they reported "having put the list on a sound financial basis and found every individual without exception, not only satisfied with and appreciative of Mr. McKenzie's labours, and willing to support him, but enthusiastic in their desire that he might not carry out his intention. Whereupon the meeting passed a resolution in substance as follows."

Whereas our pastor has generously offered to demit his charge, so as to afford the congregation every freedom in their choice of one, and our inquiry has elicited the following facts, that this congragation was never in a better condition financially and otherwise than at the present, that after paying debt to the amount of over seven thousand dollars for church building, we are now on the point of being free, that after laboring in this congregation continuously for twelve years, we don't know any one whose love and regard for him have not grown accordingly, and while we commend him for his independent spirit, along with his generous and manly action, resolved that we do unanimously join in asking Mr. MacKenzie to continue in his ministry amongst us, at the same time that we hold ourselves bound to stand by him in every expression of loyalty and esteem."

In answer to this resolution Mr. MacKenzie stated that he was quite satisfied with the sentiment of the meeting and signified his decision to keep on in the good work. It was also resolved that the resolution be engrossed in the minutes and a copy sent to the public press
