Royals Deserve Support As They Continue Series

Sir, — Despite the fact that there seems to be not more than 800 or 900 people in this city and vicinity who care much about hockey any more, this has been a successful season.

games that may not be possible since the fifth game will be played in the rink which had the largest attendance in the previous games.

Our hastily banded together junior team made a fine showing in the Maritime playoffs, winning out in the N.B. - P.E.I. championship series, and making a good showing against the Cape Breton All Stars in the Maritime finals. The Juvenile Abbies lost out in the N.B. - P.E.I. playoffs by a single goal, and the Midget Abbies, after winning the N.B. - P.E.I. title are now pointing for the Maritime championship.

In other words, Sir, in order that local fans be assured that the fifth game, if there is one, is held here they must turn out for Monday's and Tuesday's games in greater numbers than the New Glasgow fans did Friday and Saturday.

This is not an appeal for funds, though it is true that the cash register will ring loudly if the Sports Arena is packed Monday night. It is an appeal from one who has watched every game this season, and who feels that the Royals who played hard and well for the most part, if not spectacularly, deserve a full house for their final fling of the year.

Further more, Sir, a good crowd would be a boost for senior hockey locally. The Royals have done magnificently so far with little support either financially or morally. They have done it

This weekend the Royals will be endeavouring to bring the N.S. P.E.I. senior championship to the Island. No hockey fan who knows their record for the season can doubt that they have a chance of winning it.

The main purpose in writing this letter, Sir, is to state that I should like to be in the Sports Arena when the Royals do win it. But even if the series goes five the crowd cheering, and Wally Scantlebury an old hand at figure skating, appeared several times during the event to perform some intricate figure skating manoeuvres. All-in-all it turned out to be a happy event for all concerned.

Follies Draw Large Crowd

Wally Scantlebury's annual Ice Follies turned out to be a great success last evening at the Sports Arena with a large crowd in attendance.

The three clowns performing their comical antics had the crowd laughing every time they appeared on the ice.

Such events as the Sword dance on skates, Jitterbugs, etc., drew great applause from the audience.

The following is the draw for the final day of curling in the Mixed Bonspiel: 1:30 P. M.

Ice 1: M. Jenkins vs. Ed. Tanton. Ice 2: D. O'Rourke vs. D. Wonnacott. Ice 3: G. Bennett vs. R. Jones. Ice 4: Dr. Hooper vs. B. Leclair.

Well, well, well. Montreal Canadiens were finally upset in the Stanley Cup playoffs in 1958 and by a club that if they can keep up their style of play could go on to win the coveted mug.

work of Sydney and are coming here full of confidence that they can take the measure of the Red and Black. All of which will be answered tonight. Game time is 8 o'clock.

Boston Bruins were full value for the victory on Thursday night. They got the quick jump on the Montrealers and refused to give ground after that. Everyone in the lineup played a whole of a game to grab victory from the defending champions whom the betting fraternity have made 5-1 favorites for the series.

Then on Monday and Tuesday nights Royals will be entertaining New Glasgow Rangers in games three and four in their best of five series. On those crowds will depend the site of the fifth game if it has to be played. The M.A.H.A. has ruled the club drawing best shall have the privilege of the final battle on home ice.

Montreal's first period goal was not seen by TV viewers but it came on the famous power play. However after that the Bruins showed little respect for the power and checked like fiends when shorthanded. Simmons of course was sensational and kept Bruins on the right side of the ledger.

Royals should be at their best form of the season after their gruelling series with the Combines. This is the time they should be hardest to trim. Last Wednesday's crowd of about 1200 was an indication that fan interest was on the increase. At least double that attendance figure would not be out of line for Monday and again for Tuesday.

The series resumes in Boston on Sunday night and you will find many who will tell you Bruins should more than hold their own on the Garden's ice. As far as we are concerned it matters little to teams like Canadiens and Bruins where the battle is staged. Home ice seems to be of little advantage to great money players like these fellows.

Let's suppose to the Nova Scotians that we can pack them in her in Charlottetown. Monday and Tuesday are the days to prove the point.

Determined to do something drastic, Phillies' manager Mayo Smith has dropped Richie Ashburn from his long-familiar lead-off spot and put him in the second slot. He placed Fernandez at the top.

The fleet Ashburn, long one of the finest defensive centrefielders in the game, has been hitting exceptionally well this spring. An though Richie is strictly a one-base hitter, Mayo felt that, with no one except Hammer hitting too much, his attack might show some improvement with Richie batting behind someone else.

Local hockey fans will have plenty of opportunity to back home teams for the next few days. Tonight the Abbie Midgets play the Halifax Monarchs in a sudden death encounter for the Maritime Championship.

You'll find that most of the one supposedly in the know are calling the Braves and Yankees to again oppose each other in the 1958 World Series. And it doesn't look like too bad a call at that.

These youngsters are definitely deserving of a really good turnout of fans. They won the N.B. - P.E.I. crown away from home after more than 30 minutes of hockey. They proved they were game enough to stay in there till the bitter end and now certainly would like to strut their stuff before the home town fans.

However there isn't much fun going along with the experts so we are not going to agree on either the Yanks or the Braves.

Clip this paragraph out and push in our teeth come September 28. Our choice is the Detroit Tigers and the Los Angeles Dodgers.

With the baseball season ready to open Monday we feel we should give the boys a chance to smile with our pre-season prediction of the American and National League winners.

Royals Clobber Rangers 8-2 In Opening Encounter

NEW GLASGOW (CP)—Charlottetown Royals took a 1-0 lead in the best-of-five series for the Nova Scotia-Prince Edward Island senior hockey championship Friday night, defeating New Glasgow Rangers, Nova Scotia champions, 8-2.

New Brunswick champions for the Maritime title. The second game will be played here tonight. Royals, from a series with Northside Combines, had no trouble with Rangers, rusty from a three-week layoff. New Glasgow had been idle since they were eliminated from Allan Cup play by Hull Legion. The Island champions swamped their opposition in the first period to take a 5-2 lead. They coasting along, adding one more in the second and two in the third.

Ranger shooting was off and their skating weak. Pineaue led the Island scorers with two goals and two assists. Veteran Buck Whitlock got the first Charlottetown goal and scored another in the second. Carroll shot a goal and two assists and J. Ready got two.

Blake Considers Lineup Changes

By W. R. WHEATLEY Canadian Press Staff Writer MONTREAL (CP)—Montreal Canadiens, slapped down by Boston Bruins in the second game of the Stanley Cup final, may find new mates in their lineup when the series resumes in Boston Sunday.

On the heels of a 5-2 defeat Thursday night, when the Bruins evened the best-of-seven series at 1-1, worried Montreal brass went into a huddle.

"We are considering changes," said coach Toe Blake tersely, emerging from a conference with Managing Director Frank Selke. Just who would be benched, Blake wouldn't say. Indications pointed to forward-line changes, with the club calling on farmhands from Rochester Americans of the American Hockey League or Connie Broden.

Dodgers Downed For Fifth Time

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Los Angeles Dodgers managed to prolong the game for 11 innings, but they still went down to their fifth consecutive loss Friday, a 5-3 setback by Chicago Cubs at Mesa, Ariz.

Ernie Banks' three-run homer in the 11th was the deciding blow. It came off veteran Carl Erskine. Going into the ninth, the Cubs were ahead, 2-1, but LA shortstop Charlie Neal tied it with a home run to send the game into extra innings.

Dick Donovan continued his fine pitching as Chicago White Sox turned back St. Louis Cardinals 3-1 at Omaha; Milwaukee Braves blasted out 18 hits to hand Detroit Tigers a 14-6 pasting at Denver, and San Francisco Giants edged Cleveland Indians 2-1 in 10 innings at Tulsa in other games between major league teams.
