

Bathurst Clobbers Royals 10-4 To Win Hockey Title

Bathurst Papermakers won the Maritime Senior Hockey title last night over Charlottetown Royals by the score of 10-4 in a total goals home series with last night's score being 10-4 in favor of the Bathurst squad. The first game which was played in Bathurst, ended with the score 12-1.

The Papermakers took control early in the game, outplaying the Royals all the way. In the first two minutes D. Howatt, a former Charlottetown resident, scored a pair for the Bathurst team. Pineau finally scored one for the Royals at the 8:25 mark of the period but before the period had ended, three more had been added to this Bathurst score, making it 5-1 for the Papermakers. These three tallies were registered by K. Howatt, also a former Islander and brother of D. Howatt, L. Gaudet, and K. Babin.

In the sandwich session both teams scored a pair. For Charlottetown, Whitlock and MacLure were the point-getters and J. Hachey and MacKay registered for Bathurst.

O. Carver managed to get another goal for the Royals in the third period, which proved to be the final tally of the game for the Charlottetown squad. Bathurst on the other hand got three. These goals were by Gaudet, Furlotte, and Hachey.

Ralph (Farmer) Josey ended

the hockey season in fine style. Shortly after the halfway mark of the second period he received a penalty for roughing J. Hachey, Bathurst forward. At the 16:44 mark of the period he tripped a Bathurst player and was awarded a penalty. An argument started between Lawlor and Josey as the result of this call, with Josey abruptly poking referee Lawlor in the mouth. For this display he was banished from the game.

Late in the second period, Monette, playing coach and goalie for the Papermakers, received an elbow injury on a shot from a Charlottetown player. He played for the remainder of the period but in the third was replaced by Boraglia, a spare goalie. Monette, also a "pro" ball player, made some beautiful saves on the pucks fired at him. Roper on the other hand, didn't show his usual fine form, letting 10 shots get past him.

SPORTS FRONT

By PIUS CALLAGHAN

Our choice in the National League, Los Angeles Dodgers, are taking a lot of bumps, with the San Francisco Giants responsible for the heartaches to Los Angeles supporters.

While the Dodgers took their knocks we were taking plenty of ribbing for our selection. This brought to mind an item we found in an exchange regarding the electronic brain picking the Dodgers to represent the National League in the 1958 World Series.

It's only a couple of years ago that the same machine picked Detroit Tigers to grab top honors in the American League. It was only by four places. Tigers finished fifth.

Said one by way: "Any guy at any tavern could do better than that on just one pint of beer."

With that remark we are silenced until Dodgers are able to get themselves up and going with a fair-sized winning streak.

If that comes to pass you will be hearing from us again.

Spring exhibition victories don't win baseball pennants. If they did there would be a lot of red faces among the baseball experts. This recent exhibition schedule prior to the regular 154-game grind produced a great many surprises. Two of the greatest surprises were Boston Red Sox and San Francisco Giants.

The Red Sox won 16 out of the 22 games the club played. The Giants finished the pre-season warm-up with a 2-11 record. The Sox copped the "grapefruit" league championship and the Giants were the "lemon" champs.

Other surprises were: Granny Hamner winning the batting championship with a .500 average made possible by 29 hits in 58 trips to the plate, and Detroit Tigers' dismal showing in the spring warm-up.

Which reminds us — we picked those Tigers to win the American League flag.

We could be in for a really bad year.

The hockey season has finally come to an end for local fans. The end, however, was not in keeping with the past performances of the Charlottetown Royals who went far enough along the playoff trail this year to grab the Nova-Scotia-Prince Edward Island senior crown.

There were few Royal fans who expected the Whitlock-coached team to down Bathurst in the Maritime final, but all fans wanted to see the series played with both teams at full strength. Then and only then could the merits of hockey here and in Northern New Brunswick be properly judged.

This was a two-game total-goal series with Royals on the spot in that opening game in Bathurst. The locals had to stay close if they wished to draw Tuesday night in Charlottetown. To stay close they must bring to the paper mill town the best team they could muster, not a team that was minus such standouts as Whitlock, Orin Carver, Allie Carver, and Merrill Pineau.

Probably there are some reasons why these players didn't make the trip but the trip without them was a complete flop and spoiled their chances of making a few extra dollars at the gate here last night.

After going all season long, it does appear strange to us that things should conclude on such a sour note.

Reigning champions are always on the lookout for those who might have ambitions about the throne.

Of course Milwaukee Braves are no exceptions and they are keeping their eyes on the other National League teams who certainly are hoping the Braves' reign will be a short one.

Recently some of the World Champs were asked what team they thought would bear the most watching. Here are a few of the answers:

EDDIE MATHEWS — The Cards on all-around strength. Not the pitching the Dodgers have, but younger and tougher.

HENRY AARON — The Cards.

FRANK TORRE — The Cards are likely to give us the most trouble but they're all tough. There won't be anything like a 12-game runaway. That's crazy.

JOE ADCOCK — The Dodgers on their pitching every day.

DEL RICE — The Cards, Dodgers and Reds, in that order.

BOB BUHL — The Reds are toughest for me, but the Dodgers and Cards are the ones to beat.

DEL CRANDALL — All three, including the Reds, could do it. The Dodgers might benefit from the inspiration derived in Los Angeles, just as we did when we came to Milwaukee.

JOHNNY LOGAN — Don't overlook the Reds, but the Cards are the team to beat.

LEW BURDETTE — Cards, Dodgers and Reds in that order.

WARREN SPAHN — It depends on whether Los Angeles helps or hurts the Dodgers.

RAY SCHONENBENST — The Dodgers, on pitching.

ANDY PAFKO — The Reds could surprise if they haven't given up too much power, but Los Angeles is likely to be toughest.

Stan Musial rates his club one to be reckoned with this 1958 season. The Man claims that while the Cards don't overpower another club too often they are consistent. He maintains that with the Dodgers having dealt away some of their stock and Cincinnati losing some of their punch, the Red Birds rate pretty close to Milwaukee for the soundest offensive in the league. Stan admits his team is not a big inning club but he adds "we can pick up runs one to an inning better than just about anybody."

The great Cardinal player may have something there.

DOWN THE BACK STRETCH

We regret to learn that our friend Heber Sweeney of Bridge-water, N. S., is a patient in hospital, and we hope that in the near future he will be out around again enjoying his favorite sport.

Heber has owned some of the best horses that raced in the Maritimes, among them Toll Gate, 2.00%, that pulled a delivery wagon for a year until one day he took fright, and ran away on the pace. The driver reported his great speed to his owner, and he was given a try-out on the race track, after being fitted up with a new set of shoes, harness and hooked to a race cart.

Toll Gate had the goods, and after cleaning up on Ontario tracks, he was staked the next season to the Grand Circuit, where he was a big money winner and took his record of 2.00%. When Heber brought him down to the Maritimes, he won all along the line, and at Charlottetown set up a new track record of 2.06%.

The greatest trotter that Heber owned was John Dean, 2.08%. He won at most of the Maritime tracks in 1937, and his record was the fastest made that season (Continued on Page 14)

Yankees Connect For Sixth Win

By THE CANADIAN PRESS
 New York Yankees connected for their sixth straight American League victory Tuesday pouncing the hapless Boston Red Sox 12-7. The win kept the Yanks a game and a half ahead of the muscular Kansas City Athletics who whipped Cleveland Indians 9-6 on the strength of a pair of homers by big Bob Cerv.

Detroit Tigers are two games back of the Yanks after sailing to an 8-2 win over Chicago White Sox. In the other fixture, Washington Senators fell before the Baltimore Orioles, 4-2.

Hank Aaron's three-run homer helped Milwaukee Braves to a 5-2 victory over Pittsburgh Pirates in the National League.

Only two other games were scheduled in the senior league, both on the West coast. St. Louis played at San Francisco, while Los Angeles entertained Chicago.

SWEET SERIES
 The Yankees' win Tuesday gave them a sweep of the series with Boston. They used three triples and a home run in the fourth to score seven runs. From there it was easy.

Bob Richardson, Andy Carey and Hank Bauer hit the triples, Gil McDougald the homer. Norm Siebern added a homer late in the game.

At Kansas City, Bob Cerv's second round-tripper, in the seventh with two on provided the Athletics with their margin of victory.

The two blows gave Cerv a total of 14 runs-batted-in in seven games.

Chico Carrasquel and Rocky Colavito homered for the Tribe.

Bob Lemon started for Cleveland, but quickly showed he wasn't going to stop the Athletics. He was followed by four other Indians.

The Tigers collected eight safeties, five for extra bases.

Jim Landis homered in the seventh for Chicago.

Chicago starter Early Wynn allowed four runs in the first and failed to get by the first two batters in the second.

PRESERVES WIN
 Billy O'Dell checked Washington.

ton threats in the eighth and ninth innings to preserve the Orioles victory over the Nats' for starter Jack Harshman.

Brooks Robinson collected three of the Orioles' seven hits, including his second home run of the season.

The world champion Milwaukee Braves used Aaron's hitting and some fine clutch pitching by Bob Buhl to stop the Pirates Tuesday.

Aaron's homer—his second of year—came off starter and loser Ronnie Kline in the fourth, with Bob Hazle and Eddie Mathews on base.

The Bucs combed Buhl for 10 hits, but three double plays got him out of the tight situations presented. It was his second win of the season.

EDMONTON (CP) — The signing of fullback Johnny Bright for his fourth season with Edmonton Eskimos was announced Tuesday by the Western Interprovincial Football Union club.
