JUNIOR SMILES.

Kind Old Lady—Are you a good boy—a very good boy?

"Yes'm."

"Then, here's a penny for you."

"Make it a nickel, and I'll be better."

Bobby was told that descendants were those who come after us; and promptly applied the name to his sister's beau, who came to take her for a drive,

The only way—Kindly Disposed Gentleman—Why do you cry in that way, my little man? The Little man—C-c-cos it's the only way I know h-h how to c-c cry.

What He Thought of Church—Papa Well, Tommy, and how did you like it? Tommy (who has been taken to church for the first time)—Very much, indeed. Every one had to keep very quiet, but one man got up and talked the whole time and at last we all had to get up and sing to keep him quiet.

"Father, is yours a long sermon, today?"

"No, Jimmy, not very."

"But how long? Please tell me."

"Well, about twenty minutes I should say. But why are you so anxious to know?"

"Because, father, the boys say they will thrash me awfully if you are more than half an hour."

A Conflict.

A tear clung for an instant to her curving lash. Her lips quivered.

"I have quarrelled with my husband," she faltered.

"I thought you were two souls with but a single thought."

"That was just the trouble. I wanted to use it for spring millinery, while he wished to devote it to the new baseball rules."

All of which goes to further illustrate how foolish it is to get married without a second thought.—Detroit Tribune.

Understood.

She was weeping softly.

"If I had only dreamed," she moaned, "that you married me for gold. Why was I left to discover it only when it was too late?"

Her husband turned upon her with a sneer.

"You ought to know," he retorted, "that a contract always means gold unless other money is specified."—Detroit Tribune.

The Worst That Could Befall.

The following is a story of an incident that actually took place at the marine barracks at the Charlestown Navy-Yard:

A soldier was one morning brought before the commanding officer, charged with the offence of telling a lie to one of the other officers. After the major had heard the evidence he said to the culprit: "Do you know what may become of you if you tell lies to your officers?"

The soldiers quickly replied: "Yes, sir; I shall go to hell."

"Worse than that, sir; worse than that," said the commanding officer. "You will be tried by a naval court-martial."

Masculine Vanity.

They were lunching at an ice-cream parlor, and the girl in blue said to the girl in gray:

"Have you noticed that when the young men meet us nowadays they not only lift their hats off their heads, but hold them in their hands while passing?"

"Yes; isn't it dear of them. Shows such fine manners, don't you think?"

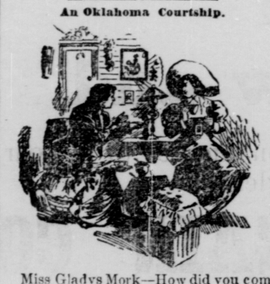
"Wait a bit. You imagine, as I did, that they went through all that performance out of deference to our superior attractions. My dear, I have found them out—it is themselves they worship."

"What do you mean?"

"They carry small mirrors in the crowns of their hats, and every time a girl bows to them they take the opportunity to see their own faultless features."

"Tne sweet things!" ejaculated the girl in gray, "and yet they accuse us of being vain!"—Detroit Free Press.

An Oklahoma Courtship.



Miss Gladys Mork—How did you come to accept Alkali Ike?

Miss Birdie Slade—Because he was so brave and fearless. Why, when I asked him to do something heroic, to prove his love for me, he whooped and swore and kicked the chairs over till Paw got out of bed and came downstairs, as mad as a hornet, to quiet the uproar. And then Ike jumped on to him and licked him in less than three minutes. And you know that Paw has always been considered one of the hardest men in the county to handle.

Its One Drawback.

Mrs. Homer—Dear me, I must commence housecleaning to-morrow, and I hate it!

Mr. Homer—Why, how is that?

Mrs. Homer—It dirties everything up so.

False Economy.

Current News reports the significant saying of an old lady who was locally famous for her good health and her exceeding thrift:

An acquaintance was congratulating her upon her freedom from bodily ailments, when she replied:

"We be pretty well, for old folks, Josiah and me. Josiah hasn't had an ailin' time for fifty years 'cept last winter. And I ain't never suff'red but one day in my life and that was when I took some of the medicine Josiah had left over, so's how it shouldn't be wasted."

JUST WHAT HE NEEDED.

Edward Callaghan, of St. John, N. B., is the Man.

Edward Callaghan, the well-known stevedore of St. John, N. B., was cured by Hawker's nerve and stomach cure.

Mr. Callaghan recently had a severe attack of la grippe, and the after effects were most distressing. He could not sleep, he was very nervous and irritable, had lost his appetite, and was generally run down to an extent that alarmed him.

He was advised to try a course of Hawker's nerve and stomach tonic, and did so. As in thousands of other cases the result in his case was completely satisfactory. He began to get better at once. His appetite returned, his nerves became stronger, he was able to sleep restfully, and was soon restored to his usual health.

Mr. Callaghan has given the Hawker Medicine Co. the facts of his case, that others who read of it may profit by his experience with this famous remedy, that never fails to cure.

Hawker's nerve and stomach tonic renews and restores nervous energy, forms new rich blood, increasing its reconstructive powers thereby renewing wasted tissue and muscular vigor. It strengthens and invigorates the stomach, increases the appetite and aids digestion. Business, professional men or students will find it an excellent restorative tonic for the nervous depression, langor or despondency, which so frequently follow long continued or exhaustive mental work. Experience has proved it to be the best and most effective remedy to restore health and vigor after an attack of la grippe. It is sold by all druggists at fifty cents a bottle or six bottles for $2.50 and is manufactured by the Hawker Medicine Co., Ltd., St. John, N. B., Canada, and New York City.

THE KENT CASE.

Physicians Universally Admit the Diagnosis to have been Correct.

OTTAWA, April 22—The diagnosis in the case of Mr. G. H. Kent, of this city, whose recovery from Bright's disease by the use of Dodd's Kidney Pills has been so extensively chronicled appears to have been a very correct one. The swelling of the body and extremities to an abnoral size the fearful convulsions and subsequent insensibility, the racking pains, the formation of the hard ridges across the pit of the stomach and the great loss of albumen are all symptoms of this terrible disease, and it is universally admitted by all who have been approached on the subject that the case was unmistakable in its character. It is also universally admitted that he owes his restored health to the above mentioned remedy.

Saved His Life.

"I now weigh nearly 200 pounds," said a fine, robust looking man the other day; and yet this same man was given up to die of consumption less than two years ago. What cured him? Miller's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil did. He took it when at a low ebb, when his weight was less than 100 pounds. It created new blood for him and that combined with will power raised him up to a life of usefulness and happiness. If you are threatened with consumption or any lung trouble try Miller's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil. Miller's Emulsion is the great nerve strengthener and blood maker, and cures Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Scrofula, and all Lung affections. In Big Bottles, 50c. and $1, at all Drug Stores.

Get the Best.

The public are too intelligent to purchase a worthless article a second time. On the contrary they want the best! Physicians are unanimous in saying Scott's Emulsion is the best form of Cod Liver Oil.

For Over Fifty Years.

AN OLD AND WELL TRIED REMEDY. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays the pain, cures the colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhœa. Is pleasnt to the taste. Sold by Druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, and take no other kind.—m. w. f. wkly—1 y

"EUDORA," is the name of the new black dress fabric put upon the market by the Priestleys, whose famous dress goods are a household word all over the world. It is like their much-esteemed Henrietta cloths; indeed, it has all the merits, and a few things which they lack. It is made in black only, it is a perfect dust-shedder; has extra weight and width; and, fitting easily and draping gracefully, it gives a distinction to the wearer which all of Priestly's goods confer. This is their excellence, which sets them apart from all other goods. Wrapped on "The Varnished Board," and Priestley's name stamped on every fivey ards.

A Great Cabinet Secret.

Is the date of the elections, which the workers of both parties would like to share; but it is no secret that Rigby Porous Waterproofs have, by the suffrages of the whole people of Canada, been declared to be worthy of the general confidence, because (1) they are superior to anything in the market, considering solely as a waterproof garment, affording perfect protection from the heaviest downpour, while at same time giving warmth and ventilation; (2), the material is not affected in any way by the waterproofing process; (3), the durable character of the garment, perfect as it is in each distinctive feature, gives it its superior value during the wet season. Rigby is in the minds, and then on the backs of thousands. Rigby is what to ask for. ...

Priestley's

BLACK DRESS FABRICS

"Are they not exquisite in their soft richness?" is the constant remark of ladies touching Priestley's famous black dress goods. And that is the truth, but it is not the whole description, for they have a character for refinement, for wearing and draping quality, which no other dress goods can lay claim to. The Priestley's appear to have gathered up all their excellences, and concentrated them in "Eudora," the latest black dress fabric they have given to the world. In every respect equal to the famous Henriettas, it surpasses them in extra width, and weight, and in dust-repelling quality. It is wrapped on "The Varnished Board" and Priestley's name is stamped on every five yards. 30
