LYC In Play-off Form; Packers Defeat Keefers

The Ligonian Youth Club are up to their old tricks. After suffering one of the worst slumps in City Softball League play they showed a complete reversal of form yesterday evening to upset the league leading Sunshine Island Dairy 9-1.

For the Dairy men it was their second loss in league play and for the L.Y.C. it was their second victory since early in the schedule. The L.Y.C. have five wins and one tie for 11 points.

In the other City Softball League game Canada Packers defeated Keefer Drug 15-9 to move into second place, one point behind the Dairy. The Dairy have 17 points and the Packers 16.

Blenis Nicholson hurled for the L.Y.C. yesterday evening and allowed only six hits in earning the win. The Dairy got their lone run in the first inning on a single by Hilson Carr and a double by Ced Bailem.

C. Bailem was the losing pitcher. He gave up eight hits and three walks. His team mates committed five errors.

Jackie MacDonald was the leading sticker for the L. Y. C. with a triple and double. Frank Dunn and Nicholson also hit doubles. Hilson Carr had three hits for the Dairy in four trips.

"Early Knockout" Predicts Simon

In a telephone conversation with promoter Ivan Doherty last night Gary "The German" Simon predicted a knockout over Coby McCluskey within five rounds of their fight at the Forum on Thursday night.

Simon, the perpetually moving boxing machine, has licked most of the best fighters in the Maritimes this season. Within the past month he has knocked Tommy "Gun" Spencer and Vern Stephenson of Montreal and is anxious to add McCluskey to his list of victims.

McCluskey on the other hand has eagerly awaited this match and will be razor sharp on fight night. McCluskey, recent winner over Cecil Gray who outweighed him more than 30 pounds, has trained faithfully for three months and is in perfect condition for the most important fight of his career.

Both McCluskey and Simon are aware of the fact that to the winner goes the opportunity of lifting the Canadian Middleweight crown from the head of Montreal's Charlie Chase.
