

Busso Decisions Lahouari Godih

NEW YORK (AP) — Johnny Busso, a wild free-swinging New Yorker, pounded out an unanimous 10-round decision over a French-Algerian Godih, the French lightweight champion Friday night in Madison Square Garden. Godih weighed 140, Busso 140½.

Busso, ranked fifth among the lightweight challengers by the National Boxing Association, landed the heavier punches in the no-knockdown scrap witnessed by a small crowd and an international television audience.

Godih, a French-Algerian who now lives in Paris, had an effective jab and a clever counter attack but he was reluctant to swap freely with his more rugged opponent. In the last round, Busso was cut around the left eye as he pressed a heavy attack in one of the best rounds of the fight.

Referee Mark Conn scored it 7-2-1, judge Bill Recht 7-3 and judge Harold Barnes 8-2 all for Busso. The Associated Press card was 7-3 for Busso, who went into the ring an 8-to-5 underdog.

SACKVILLE DOWNS
The new arrivals at Sackville Downs Raceway this weekend will be the Jimmy Given stable that has been racing at Blue Bonnets track, Montreal. It consists of Fred Scott, holder of the track pacing record, 2:06½, at Sackville Downs; Frenchman, 2:08½; Mighty Glib, that took a four-year-old record last fall at Roosevelt of 2:04½ and has won $13,500 during his racing career and is eligible to the 2:17 Pace. The final member of the stable is Mighty Special, that took a record as a three-year-old last year of 2:04½ and has winnings of $10,500.

The trotter Memory Song, 2:02½, that raced exceptionally well in Montreal, beating many of the best trotters there in 2:05½, has been sold to the noted Ontario trainer, William Harvey, Norwich, Ontario. Our readers will remember that Mr. Given drove Memory Song to a new track trotting record of 2:10 at Sackville Downs last fall.

Our friend, George A. R. MacDonald, has handed us the final program of Rockingham Park races, which was sent to him by Leslie Newcombe of Boston, Mass., and we notice that the time there had greatly improved, due to the better weather. A new track record was set up in the seventh race, when Canny Scot, driven by Stanley Dancer, won the Invitational Pace in 2:04½. We also are pleased to observe that Watchim Go, a trotter by Watchim, 2:06, at present at George Calbeck's farm at Summerside, was second in the 5th race, a Class B trot, in 2:09½ — a good showing.

We had the pleasure of a call from Don MacNeill of Summerside last Thursday afternoon. Don had just returned from a long visit to United States where he took the opportunity, before coming home, to visit several race tracks. Talking with trainers and drivers at the tracks, he also witnessed some of the races at Roosevelt Raceway.

He was particularly intrigued with the noted trainer and driver, Jimmy Cruise, who resides at Westbury, N. Y., and drives at Roosevelt. Jimmy is a very quiet-spoken man and possesses a particular attitude for developing latent qualities of speed and manners in horses that have been overlooked by other trainers. We have personally followed his doings for years, and often thought we would like to spend some hours with him in the endeavour to learn some of the secrets which have brought such success to him as a trainer and driver.

To give an idea of Jimmy's operations, we will take 1957 as an example. He had 398 starts, was 63 times first, 52 times second, and 33 times third with total winnings for the year of $188,234.

TOPS THEM ALL
Don considers Joe O'Brien as the top driver of them all, and says that any horse Joe drives at Roosevelt, or any other track, is heavily backed by the public. Joe always gives his best, and his horses invariably are good competitors in the classes he starts in. Don missed Joe at Roosevelt as this year he is starting his season's racing in the East about a month later than usual, and has made his first start at Rosecroft in Maryland, where he won last week as we reported in our notes earlier this week.

We hope that Don will be up behind some of the fast trotters and pacers this season, as we always admire his capable reinsmanship and thrilling drives through the stretch.

COVEHEAD TRACK
Covehead race track has passed into new ownership, having been sold by Charles F. Willis to Harold P. Cudmore of Brackley. We understand that Harold will use it for training and stabling for his good string of promising race horses, and he should find it much more convenient than the longer trips to Charlottetown.

Our race fans will have fond memories of this beautifully situated track. Personally, we spent many happy hours watching the races there and taking part in some of them.

The track records are as follows: Pacing — Chuck Worthy, 2:02 1/4, on September 19, 1946, driver J. Campbell, time 2:06 1/2. Trotting — Fast Train, 2:05, on September 15, 1948 — time 2:09 4/5, driven by Fergie Baxter. (In the above race, in which Neil Kalmuck (W. Wiley) won the next two heats in 2:10 2/5 and 2:14 1/5.

The last race held at Covehead was on September 21 and 22, 1952. Following is a brief summary: Classified Pace, purse $400 — Just Flicka 3-1-1, Alan Mack 1-5-6, winner owned and driven by Harold Cudmore. Classified Pace, purse $400 — Single Break (J. Conroy) 2-1-1, Prince Budlong (H. Cudmore) 1-3-2, time 2:18, 2:14½ and 2:15. Winner owned by Fra Lehigh.

CLEVELAND (AP) — Cal McLish tossed a three-hitter Friday night to shade Washington Senators' Pedro Ramos 2-1 in a pitching duel of righthanders as Cleveland Indians won their third straight.

Herb Plews singled, stole second and scored on Neil Christley's single to give Washington a 1-0 lead in the first inning. In the bottom of the first Cleveland knotted the count as Gary Geiger doubled home Preston Ward who singled.

The Indians scored the winning run in the fourth on singles by Roger Maris and Russ Nixon and a forecourt by Billy Harrell.

DETROIT (AP) — Bob Turley got home-run help from Gil McDougald, Elston Howard and Yogi Berra as New York Yankees walloped Detroit Tigers 8-1 Friday night before 39,563 spectators. The triumph was Turley's seventh without a loss, the Yankees' 10th in succession and sent the Tigers to their ninth straight defeat.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Philadelphia Phillies' shortstop Chico Fernandez muffed a possible double play Friday night with one out in the fifth inning and Chicago came back with a seven-run inning. The Cubs went on to win 11-4.

The seven runs were scored on Al Darke's bases-a-loaded triple, Earl Banks' two-run homer and Bobby Thomson's double with two on.

The Cubs scored two in the ninth, one on Lee Walls' 12th homer.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Second baseman Bill Mazeroski broke up a 2-2 ball game with a run-scoring single in the eighth inning Friday night as Pittsburgh Pirates trimmed St. Louis Cardinals 3-2.

Stan Musial, the league leader in hitting picked up three hits. Musial went into the game with a .495 batting average.

Hank Foiles, the Pirates starting catcher, tripped in the fourth inning while chasing a foul fly and cut his chin. It took 21 stitches to close the cut.

CHICAGO (AP)—Early Wynn hurled Chicago White Sox to a three-hit 1-0 victory Friday night over Baltimore Orioles.

The big righthander, scoring his 239th victory of his career and his fourth against two losses this season, struck out nine.

Jack Harshman suffered his second defeat against five wins.

Wynn opened with a single and went to third on a single by Luis Aparicio. Nellie Fox then lofted a shallow fly to left centre but centre fielder Lenny Green dropped the ball and Wynn scored with the winning run.

CINCINNATI (AP) — A three-run outburst plus Ed Bailey's home run helped Cincinnati Reds keep out of the National League cellar Friday night with a 4-1 victory over Los Angeles Dodgers. Reliever Hal Jeffcoat had to pitch his way out of big trouble in the eighth inning to protect the triumph.

Two straight singles in the eighth inning finished Redleg starter Bob Purkey. Jeffcoat loaded the bases on a walk to Carl Furillo, but fanned Charlie Neal and got Gil Hodges to fly out, ending the inning.

Purkey had little trouble until the seventh inning when Neal batted his eighth homer of the season.

MILWAUKEE (AP) — San Francisco Giants Friday night smashed Warren Spahn's bid for a perfect game as they thundered from behind on home runs to defeat Milwaukee Braves 5-3 and increase their National League lead to 2½ games.

HUNTER'S CORNER

Pheasant Question Is Still Up For Debate

On May 10th, 1958, an Article . . . "Pheasants Galore For Alberta" appeared in Saturday's Edition of The Evening Patriot under Weekend Magazine Section. This Article has been quoted by a local group of pheasant enthusiasts in an effort to save face over their ill fated pheasant restocking program for this province that went on the rocks in 1956 and frantic salvage efforts in 1957 never even reached 1st. Base. The Article in question smacks of propaganda so strongly I shall devote some space in this Column in an effort to separate the meat from the bones.

As mentioned in a previous Column this project is under heavy fire from a group of sportsmen who question its value as a conservation method. The Eastern Irrigation District, with the town of Brooks as the hub, comprises approximately a million and a half acres. P. E. I. is known as the million acre farm so this area is roughly larger by one half. Its criss-crossed with narrow irrigation ditches. Each ditch is bordered on both sides with a dense strip of willow and other shrubbery of varying width but averaging about ten yards. Its in reality a made to order pheasant hunting set-up. natural cover. A hunter and a dog take each side of the ditch and the shooting is fast and furious for the first few days until the cagey old cocks take to the bald headed prairie and stay there until the heat is off. No wonder the Yanks flock to this area in thousands.

SPORTS FRONT

By PIUS CALLAGHAN

Fred Haney, manager of Milwaukee Braves, took stock of his ball club on May 2 and found his charges had won only eight games while dropping six. He was agast by the rude treatment given his world champions, particularly by the Chicago Cubs. So Haney decided to take steps at once to remedy the situation.

One of the alterations he made was move Johnny Logan from the seventh spot to second. Since the shake-up the Braves grabbed ten victories and lost only five. Logan's bat has played a major part in the improvement.

While batting seventh in the first 14 games, the Brave shortstop had 14 hits in 53 times at bat for a .264 average and he batted in five runs. Statistics are available for the first 11 games after Logan's move to the second slot. He pounded enemy pitching for 16 hits in 47 times at bat, a .337 pace. That lifted Johnny to a .300 average. Right now he is on a 14 games hitting streak. Logan considered the promotion a real tonic. His comments are:

"I like to hit second a lot better than seventh because it gives me a chance to do a little bit of everything—bunt, hit and run, all those things.

"I'd like to hit second for about three days, drop down to seventh for a day or so, and then move back up. There's less to do down there and I'd get rested without dropping out of the lineup."

He's quite a competitor, this Logan.

Danny Murtaugh, Pittsburgh Pirates manager, pays quite a tribute to his boy Dick Groat.

Says Danny, "You could take a poll of our club and ask them which batter, if two were out and a man on second, they'd like to have up there for them. They'd all take Dick Groat. He seems to be at his best when he has to overcome something. He doesn't say much, but he does things."

Well, action speaks louder than words, particularly on the ball diamond.

Walter O'Malley has hinted that unless the voters in Los Angeles give him what he wants in the June 3 referendum—Chavez ravine in this case on which he intends to build a ball park—he may be forced to move.

One sports writer, certainly not an ardent admirer of Mr. O'Malley pointed out these words on his typewriter.

"It's the same kind of unsavory pressure he used on the city of New York, without success, before he took the Dodgers west."

"Actually, O'Malley could win the referendum and still be years away from his Ravine. The taxpayers' groups who first challenged this giveaway by the city and who obtained enough signatures to force the entire matter to a referendum stand ready to fight an unfavorable result through every court in the land—and they can because of the restrictive nature of the deed by which the city got its 185 acres from the Housing Authority."

"The deed specifically states that the property must be used for public purposes only, its conveyance of title for a baseball park 'for public purpose'. The courts, a whole succession of courts, would have to decide.

"May be O'Malley would best really move as he threatened—to Las Vegas, say. It's not too far from Los Angeles. There he could put slot machines at every entrance and set up crap tables in the infield and bingo tables in the outfield after every game. The percentages are good."

My, how he loves that man O'Malley.

Yankee Stadium was locked and silent the other night. There long since have been absolute silence in Ebbsfield field and the Polo grounds there was a triple header major league attraction on tap for New York's baseball fraternity.

The Yankees were in Washington for a night game but they could be seen on television station WPIX. Two clicks of the dial to the left Philadelphia's Phillies entertained the Pittsburgh Pirates on TV station WOR, and two clicks to the right of the Yankees on Los Angeles Dodgers were at St. Louis for a game with the Cardinals carried by TV station WNTA.

It was probably the first time three major league ball games were telecast simultaneously in one city.

We'd settle for just one game down this way.

A Rochester baseball team and a sneak thief combined to make things unhappy for Green Bay in Three I league action last week at Green Bay.

The Rochester hurler tossed a five hitter for a 9-1 victory and the sneak thief made off with $746 after breaking into Green Bay's locker room during an afternoon practice session. Payday was the day previous.

Here's one for the books.

Bobby Locke, South African golfer, delayed a train during play in the Irish Hospitals 72 hole stroke play tournament.

Play was over the Woodbrook Seaside course near Dublin where a railroad runs through the links. There is a train station near the second hole.

Locke landed on the second green just as the train pulled in a few yards away. He waited for the train and the train waited for him. Eventually, the engineer hopped out and joined the crowd beside the green.

Locke, the British open champion, sank the putt without a tremor, then went on to shoot a 67.

Monday evening, May 26, City Softball League action commences on two fronts here in Charlottetown.

The four Charlottetown teams Barry's Lions, Rollaway Aces, Junior Basilla Youth Club and BIS Shamrocks will provide the action at Victoria Park's Old Diamond and Queen Charlotte High School diamond.

The other entrant, Summerside Air Force, will play in Charlottetown later this week. The schedule appears elsewhere on this sport page.

All team managers talk as if they had a winner and a look at the various lineups would indicate that the league should witness its best competition in years. The Air Force should certainly be a drawing card as the Flyers always field a snappy squad. Their inclusion in this year's league seems like a mighty smart idea.

Softball is really a snappy game to watch and the completion of a game doesn't take up too much time. The brand of ball dished out will definitely be better if fans show enough interest to turn out for the various contests.

Players too must do their part to keep the league a real live one. Games should start on time, and all taking part should make every effort to give the game all they got while on the diamond. Indifference by players will wreck a league quicker than anything we know.

So fans and players let's get together to make this 1958 softball season the best this city has had for many years.

It can be done.

As we pointed out this column we took a look at the National and American League standings and before somebody reminds us we just have this to say.

We know all too well what is going on.

Los Angeles Dodgers and Detroit Tigers whom we picked to battle it out in the 1958 World Series are in exactly the same position in each league. Both are in the basement.

Probably we were standing on our head the day we made that prediction.
