Tigers Boost League Lead To Three Games In 4-0 Win Over Senators

By Steve Robertson (Canadian Press Staff Writer)

Old Dixie Trout, who appeared in the 1940 and 1945 World Series for Detroit, turned in another vital triumph Sunday, for the Tigers, blanking Washington Senators 4-0 on seven hits.

The triumph boosted the Tigers' American League lead to three games over New York Yankees. The Yankees regained second place from Cleveland by beating the Indians 9-0 behind the three-hit pitching of Tommy Byrne.

Meanwhile, the situation in the National League tightened a bit as the fourth-place St. Louis Cardinals took a doubleheader from the league-leading Philadelphia Phils, 7-1 and 2-0.

The setbacks cut the Phils' lead over the runner-up Boston Braves to three games. The Braves split with Chicago Cubs, winning the opener 5-3 but losing the nightcap, 9-1.

Trout, in posting his eighth victory against two defeats, walked three, fanned five and drove in what proved to be the winning run in the second with a single.

Gene Bearden, making his first start since his purchase from Cleveland, allowed only eight hits, but four walked and wild-pitched the Tigers second run home in the fifth and granted the final two in the seventh on a walk, triple by Gerry Priddy and single by George Kell.

Byrne had a no-hitter until the Cleveland seventh when Bob Kennedy singled. Lefty Doby at Bob Avila tangled in the eighth and ninth for the other Cleveland hits.

The Yanks routed Bob Lemon, who was gunning for his 18th victory and tenth straight, in the third with a four-run outburst. The Yanks banged out 12 hits with Phil Rizzuto leading the way with four, rookie Billy Martin drove in three on his first major league homer.

Brooklyn's third-place Dodgers dropped an 11-7 decision to Cincinnati Reds but picked up half a game and now trail the Phils by four.

The red-hot New York Giants and Boston Braves traded a 5-0 one-hitter for three straight shutouts over the Pirates.

Rookie Clyde Boyer stopped the Phils on four hits in the opener while the Cards whacked Bob Miller and Milo Candini for 15. The Cards' Stan Musial hit a home run and Red Schrimm led off the fifth with a four-run homer for the lone Phil run in the fifth.

Lefty Max Lanier shut out the Phils on six hits in the second game to gain his 10th victory. The Cards collected only three hits off Bubba Church and Jim Konstanty, but combined them with an error to score both of their runs in the fourth.

John Sauer turned in his 16th triumph in beating the Cubs in the opener at Boston. Earl Torgeson led Boston's 10-hit attack against Johnny Schmitz with three safeties.

The Cubs pounded four Boston pitchers for 11 hits in the final wrapping up the game with a five-run rally in the fifth. Frank Hiller blanked the Braves until the ninth, when Sid Gordon clouted his 20th homer.

Ted Kluszewski and Connie Ryan led the Reds to victory over Brooklyn by collecting four hits each.

Ewell Blackwell coasted to his 11th victory. The "whip" eased up and permitted five runs in the last two innings, including four in the ninth.

Larry Jansen and Sal Maglie applied the whitewash brush to the Braves, who dropped a 5-0 one-hitter game to the Giants yesterday.

Jansen granted only five hits in hanging up his 13th victory in the opener while Maglie allowed seven in gaining his ninth triumph in the nightcap. Home runs by Whitey Lockman and Monte Travis accounted for the two runs in the game.

Bob Thomson banged a two-run homer in the seventh to seal the nightcap decision.

Boston Red Sox captured a pair of games from Chicago White Sox, 9-2 and 4-3. Ellis Kinder belted a grand-slam homer and drove in six runs to feature the first game triumph. Kinder allowed only five hits, including homers by Marv Rickert and Eddie Robinson. The Red Sox pulled the second game out with two runs in the ninth.

A pair of three-run homers by Dick Kokos and Owen Friend sparked St. Louis Browns to a 10-3 victory over Philadelphia Athletics. It enabled the Browns to vacate the cellar in favor of the A's.

Home runs played a vital part in Saturday's senior loop action.

Mike Goliat blasted a two-run homer to give the Phils a 2-1 decision over the Cardinals. Round-trippers by Carmen Mauro and Andy Pask in the 18th gave the Cubs a 4-2 victory over the Braves. Home runs by Bobby Adams and Darryl Litwhiler were the deciding factors in Cincinnati's 4-3 conquest of the Dodgers.

In the other National League contest, big Jim Hearn twice led the Cincinnati Reds to give the Giants their 5-0 victory over the Pirates.

In the American, the Tigers had a close shave before edging the Senators 9-8. Vic Werz blanked his 23rd homer and drove in his 100th run for the league leaders.

Cleveland beat the Yankees 4-2 on the strength of an eighth-inning homer by Larry Doby, his second of the game and 16th of the year.

The Red Sox trounced the White Sox 12-7, collecting 12 hits and 12 walks in the process.

In the majors' only night contest, the Browns blanked the A's 4-0.

BERLIN, Aug. 6—(AP)—The Soviet-licensed news agency ADN said Saturday night that an East German trade delegation has reached Peking, capital of Communist China, to negotiate a trade pact.
