Rochford Square School Has A Fine Adjudication

Two more in a series of junior orna-dramas played in the P.E.I. Drama Festival were presented for this case, about twenty at Rochford Square under the direction of the Sisters.

Mrs. Willett, the adjudicator congratulated the children on their fine presentation. The first play, the adjudicator said, was a well chosen one, well staged, very good in costume, excellent in acting, and voices with good animation.

Other plays were for competition in various schools have been adjudicated during the past week.
