GREAT BRITAIN'S FOREIGN RELATIONS

The Duke of Devonshire On The Subject.

THINKS CRISIS WITH FRANCE CLEARED THE AIR

And Relations With Germany and Russia are Better.

[SPECIAL TO THE EXAMINER.]

BIRMINGHAM, Jan. 24.—At the annual banquet the Birmingham Chamber of Commerce, the Duke of Devonshire said it would be safe to prophesy that the forthcoming speech from the Throne at the opening of Parliament would announce that the relations of the Queen and all foreign countries continue friendly.

"I think" said his Grace, "that if the traditions of etiquette at the Foreign Office permits, it would be possible that this particular paragraph might be couched in stronger language. It is safe to say that at no period within our recollection have our relations with the United States been more friendly than at the present moment.

The Duke said he thought that Great Britain's recent demonstrations of power, and of her intention to maintain her rights had led to better relations with Germany Italy and even Russia, and that he believed the crisis with France had cleared the air and aided the prospect of a satisfactory settlement.

HUGH JOHN MACDONALD

Intends to be the Leader of the Next Manitoba Government.

The following letter requires no comment:—

Ira Stratton, Esq., Editor of the Argus, Stonewall, Man:

Sir,—A friend of mine has just handed me a copy of the Argus of Thursday, December 22nd, and has pointed to an item in it stating that I had informed a leading Conservative that I would neither be a leader of the Government nor of the Opposition in the next Legislature, as although I was willing to assist in the organization of the party I could not continue in the leadership. This statement is altogether untrue and misleading, and consequently I write to you to contradict it most emphatically. It will depend on the electors of Manitoba to decide whether I shall be leader of the Government or of the Opposition after the next general election, but if I am alive I will undoubtedly lead the Conservative party in the next fight, and unless I lose their confidence in the interval, or fail to secure a seat, I will hold the position of their leader in the next Legislature. I should be obliged by your inserting this in your next issue, and remain,

Yours truly,
HUGH J. MACDONALD.

BY HER FRIEND'S TIMELY ADVICE.

A Toronto Lady was Released from a Monster's Grip.

She Suffered from Terrible Nervous Headaches—Headache Powders did her no Good—Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets Cured her, as they Have Cured Thousands.

"Just as sure as I eat a hearty meal, I have a splitting nervous headache an hour or so afterwards," said a lady to one of her friends a few days ago.

"What do you take for it?" asked the friend.

"Oh! I take a 'headache powder.' But nothing does any good. I have to grin and bear it for three or four hours, when it begins to get better and gradually passes away."

"You will never get any benefit from headache powders, of any description," said her friend, "for the simple reason that they don't remove the cause of the headache."

"What you need, and the only thing

A BATTLE SHIP VERSUS CRUISER

Collingwood and Curacao in Collision.

A HOLE DRIVEN INTO THE CRUISERS SIDE.

But the Vessel Saved by Promptness and Pluck.

[SPECIAL TO THE EXAMINER.]

DAVENPORT, Jan. 24.—The British first-class battleship Collingwood, driven by strong currents, yesterday collided with the British third-class cruiser Curacao, driving a hole in the cruiser below her water line, sweeping off her boats and damaging a gun sponson.

The Curacao filled rapidly and began to list. A scene of the utmost excitement followed on board, but the rush of the water was finally stopped by collision mats, and a number of tugs assisted the cruiser into the harbor, where she was docked.

The damage to the Collingwood was not serious.

Death Sentence.

[SPECIAL TO THE EXAMINER.]

OTTAWA, Jan. 24.—H. Nelson (whiteman) and three Indians under sentence of death at Dawson for murder will be executed on March 2nd.

Sometimes the most careful women are the most careless. Many a woman bundles herself up, to keep out sickness—when she is neglecting the very worst sickness that can come to a woman. She allows a slight disorder to become worse, to slowly sap her vitality. The little pain and the other slight indications of trouble seem to her unimportant. She goes on, with increasing suffering, until life itself becomes a drag. Nervousness, "sinking spells," digestive disturbances, and fifty other complications may arise from the derangement of the organs distinctly feminine. Over thirty years ago, the need for a reliable remedy for so-called "female complaints" was recognized by Dr. B. V. Pierce, then, as now, chief consulting physician to the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, at Buffalo, N. Y. He prepared Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, the most wonderfully effective remedy that has ever been used for such maladies.

The Cheetah.

The axis, or cheetah, deer of the Indian jungle can claim to be the most ornamental of all the 36 races of deer to be seen gathered together at Woburn. In the early summer, when all the other deer except the wapiti are either shedding their horns or "in the velvet," the axis are in perfection, both of color and antlers. The large herd of this species looks as if carved out of ivory and red gold in the sunshine and verdure of English scenery. Their horns are almost white, their eyes and muzzles of jet black, their throats white and their backs and sides a brilliant golden tan, spotted with round dots of purest white. It is worth a pilgrimage to Woburn to see these deer alone. They breed constantly, sometimes producing two fawns in the twelvemonth.—Spectator.

Copper In Cheese.

Scientific investigations show that the green color for which Parmesan and other Italian cheeses are remarkable is due to the fact that the acid milk is allowed to stand in copper vessels, 25 samples of green Parmesan cheese showing for each two pounds of cheese from .8 to 3.3 grains of copper.
