In the above photograph may be seen the members of the Air Force Day Executive Committee. These Officers were responsible for co-ordinating all the keen, enthusiastic efforts put out by the personnel of RCAF Station, Summerside, which culminated in such a spectacular and successful Air Force Day. They are (left to right): Squadron Leader J. M. Wickens of Victoria, B. C., Squadron Leader L. E. A. Myles of Montreal, Wing Commander H. A. Forbes, DFC, of Tatamagouche, N. S., Group Captain A. G. Kenyon, CD, of Westboro, Ont., Squadron Leader A. H. Pirith of Whitewood, Sask., Flight Lieutenant M. A. Everard of Timmins, Ont., and Flight Lieutenant T. M. Webster of Forest, Ont. In the above group, Flight Lieutenant Webster, responsible for Static Displays, had just announced that the weatherman promised fine weather for Air Force Day. F/L Everard, Public Relations Officer, says that he wasn't looking skeptical—just surprised.

Students Present Enjoyable Program

A delightful program was presented by the pupils of Grades 1, 2 and 3 in the Summerside Auditorium on Friday evening to a large audience of parents and friends. Mr. G. Chaisson, Instructor of Music, was accompanist. The pupils of Grade 1 under the direction of their teachers, Miss Estelle Bowness, Mrs. A. Taylor and Mrs. J. Ireland, presented an operetta entitled "The Fairy Conspiracy" when a "chick who did not believe in fairies, brownies, or Mother Nature, was finally convinced after a Cinderella, Goldlocks, Jack the Giant Killer, Jack and the Beanstalk, Snow White and Rose Red, Beauty and the Beast had told their story of how each had been helped by the fairies, etc. Charles Silphiant and Gerald Hopkirk were the announcers.

The regular monthly meeting of the Western Hospital Ladies Aid was held in the nurses home on Friday evening, June 13th. Mrs. J. A. Callaghan, vice-president, was in the chair. The meeting opened with the minutes of the last meeting which were adopted. Seventeen members answered roll call. Due to the absence of the treasurer, Rev. Sr. M. Angela, there was no financial report.

Plans were made to hold a lobster supper in the institute hall later in June and the following committee was appointed, Mrs. Austin Murphy, chairman, with Mrs. Joseph Gaudet and Mrs. E. E. Larter. A special meeting will be held to make final arrangements.

After the meeting the articles which were donated by the members, were auctioned off by Mrs. Sadie O'Brien and realized the sum of $15.40. Refreshments were served by the hospital staff.

The Rev. D. A. Campbell officiated at the marriage on Wednesday, June 11th, at 3:30 in the afternoon, of Ruby Ethel Cann, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Cann, Kensington, and Albert James Arthur Boyle, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Boyle also of Kensington.

The ceremony took place at the Manse, New London, and was witnessed by Mr. Colin Burt and Mr. Ira Pidgeon, who attended the bride and groom.

The bride was becomingly attired in a grey gabardine suit and wore white accessories. Her matron of honor chose a suit of medium blue with black accessories.

A reception for about 25 guests was held at the home of the bride's parents at 6:30 on the same afternoon, when bouquets of spring flowers and a prettily decorated bride's cake adorned the table. Mrs. S. Burt and Mrs. R. Champion were in charge of refreshments. During the evening many of their friends gathered to serenade the popular young couple and to wish them every happiness.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyle will live in Kensington, where the bridegroom is on the staff of the Kensington Co-operative Dairying Association and the bride is an efficient member of the telephone office staff.—Bur.
