

Hittite Hieroglyphics.

Mr. James Glashier, chairman of the Palestine Exploration Committee, has received a letter from Captain Claude Couder, of the Royal Engineers, announcing his discovery of the language in which are written the mysterious Hittite inscriptions first found by Buxford in 1808, and re-discovered in 1872.

The more important and certainly decipherable of the inscriptions are invocations to the gods of heaven, the ocean and the earth—exactly the deities included in a set which we know from Egyptian and cuneiform tablets, to have been adored by tribes in Asia Minor.

The discoverer submits a few of these texts. The following is a specimen. It was addressed to the sun:—

May the Holy One, mighty and powerful, hear the uprising prayers, I call upon the Most High, shine, Lord, Great Spirit. He gives me the rain of Heaven.

A second prayer is addressed to the God of the Water, the sky and the Ocean:—

I pray to my God of the Water, the stately Lord of water the God of Heaven. I extol him. I cause a great libation to be made as an offering. I make an offering to the most holy, the King of the Water.

It would seem, if we have here the prayers of the Hittites, Jebusites etc., who surrounded the Israelites, that an interest will be given to the second and third Commandments and to the Biblical prohibitions against worshipping the water, the earth, the sky and the like.

When Lincoln ran for congress some of the whigs contributed a purse of $200 to pay his personal expenses in the canvass. After the election was over the successful candidate handed back $199.25. "I did not need it," he said; "I made the canvass on my own horse; my entertainment, being at the houses of friends, cost me nothing, and my only outlay was 75 cents for a barrel of cider, which some farm hands insisted I should treat them to."
