

Howlan

LeRoy Arsenault of the R. C. A. is now visiting his relatives in Howlan, on Sunday, May 15. He was accompanied by his grandfather, Mr. Cola Arsenault and uncle, Arthur Arsenault of Cascompe, also his aunt.

Mr. Firth Squarebriggs of Montrose, is spending a few days in Howlan, the home of his youth.

Messrs. Gilbert Gaudet and Edward Arsenault were in Howlan recently.

With the finer weather during the past few days everyone is kept on the jump, as now all the farmers want to plant at once. Help is none too plentiful.

Sympathy is being extended to the sorrowing widow, sons and daughters of the late Mr. Keir Campbell whose death occurred at his home on Wednesday, May 18. Mrs. Campbell is the former Eliza Haywood, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Oswald Haywood of Howlan.

Mrs. Wm. Mathews and daughter Jean, of River Herbert, N. S., recently visited relatives and friends in O'Leary and other places in the Western part of the Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe LeClair of Woodstock had visiting with them during the May 7 week-end, their son Mr. and Mrs. J. R. LeClair and daughter, Patricia. Mr. LeClair is on the teaching staff of P. W. C. at Charlottetown.

Rev. M. J. Rooney has now returned from his two weeks trip to his parents in Boston.

Mrs. Margaret Dumville and daughter, Audrey of O'Leary, are in Howlan for a day or two.

Arbor Day was observed in Howlan Schools on Friday, May 20, when the teachers and pupils did a good job of cleaning the schools and play grounds.

Fire caused a few minutes excitement in Howlan on Saturday morning, May 21. A straw stack on the farm of Leo Arsenault became ignited in some way; it is thought maybe a spark from a tractor which was working close by must of been the cause. Two of the boys who were working near quickly tried to extinguish the blaze. When it was seen that the barn was in danger they called the O'Leary fire department who quickly were at the scene and extinguished the fire. Luckily there was lots of water close by. In a very short time some 35 or 40 cars had gathered and the barn and contents were saved. About 50 pigs and 20 head of cattle were in the barn at the time.

Fred Arsenault who is employed at Gagetown, N. B., spent the week-end of the 23 May at his home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fleming were guests of Mrs. Fleming's father, Mr. and Mrs. Hector Richard, Howlan, over the week-end of May 23.

The Misses Jean Arsenault of O'Leary School and Norma Gallant of Tignish Convent, spent the week-end at their homes here.

There motored from Halifax, N. S., on Friday, May 20, Frances Gallant, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Arsenault and their three lovely girls, who visited with relatives here, returning on May 23.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Peters and Mrs. Bennett Peters of Bloomfield, were visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Alban T. Arsenault Sunday night.

Jerry Gallant was in Woodstock on May 23.

The summery weather began here on Sunday, May 22 and the whole day on Monday was a perfect summer day.

Mrs. Clarence Gallant and baby daughter returned to their home of Mrs. Gallant's-in-laws on Sunday, May 22 from the Western Hospital.

Friends and neighbours of Mrs. Andrew Wood, regret her illness in the Western Hospital and hope to see her return to her home and family soon in improved health.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Wood of

Clyde River W. I.

Members and visitors gathered on Monday evening, May 22nd, at the home of Mrs. John and Mrs. Lorne MacNevin for the meeting of the Clyde River W. I. The meeting opened by singing the "Ode," followed by the "Collect." Roll call was answered by 15 members and four visitors. Then minutes of April meeting were read, approved and signed. The sick committee gave her report, followed by correspondence which was read and dealt with. Plans were made for members to attend the District meeting to be held on May 27th in Kingston Hall. Clyde River members are being asked to help out on handicraft display, these articles are to be put into the hands of Kingston Ladies at the earliest possible instance.

Mrs. Louis MacLean, Mrs. John Darrach and Mrs. R. D. Matheson were appointed to procure a play at the earliest possible date. There will be a sale of lunches at the play.

As a means of making money it was decided to organize a "Parcel Post" with sale night to be the July meeting.

The June meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Hugh MacLean, with roll call to be answered by members taking a Get-Well or Sympathy card.

Collection for evening was taken and amounted to $1.70. Mrs. Gordon Macmillan then presented her beautiful Garden Slides and answered many questions pertaining to gardening; this was very delightful.

The meeting then closed with the "Queen" and a social hour followed with lunch being served by the hostess and committee in charge.

MALIK IN MOSCOW

LONDON (Reuters) — Russian Ambassador Jacob Malik, who proposed a sweeping world disarmament plan to a United Nations sub-committee here earlier this month, left Wednesday night for consultations in Moscow, the Russian embassy disclosed Thursday. The embassy spokesman said he could not say when Malik will return to his post in London.
