ACCEPTS NEW REGIME
ALGERIENS (AP) - Relations now are completely normal between Algeria and the United Arab Republic, a spokesman of the UAR embassy said Saturday. He said there has been no formal act of recognition by the UAR of the new military regime of Col. Houari Boumedienne, who deposed president Ahmed Ben Bella two weeks ago. "No such act was called for, as the change of government was a purely Algerian domestic matter," the spokesman added.
