Commons Votes To Remove Abortion Laws

LONDON (Reuters) — The House of Commons has voted overwhelmingly in favor of reforming Britain's abortion laws to prevent many of the estimated 40,000 annual back-street abortions.

By a majority of 194 on a non-party vote, the House agreed in principle Friday night to a private bill to legalize abortion for health reasons or if there is a substantial risk of the child being deformed.

Under present law, abortion is legal if the life of a woman is endangered by continued pregnancy.

But Friday's bill, voted in 223 to 29, faces many haxards before it can become law.

Few private bills become law without government backing because of lack of parliamentary time. And Home Secretary Roy Jenkins said Friday the government is officially neutral on this controversial moral issue, though he personally strongly supports reform.

Roman Catholic members strongly opposed the new proposals.

Khrushchev Undergoes Operation

ROME (Reuters) — Former Soviet premier Nikita Khrushchev had a second, smaller operation on his kidneys about three months ago following a big one last year, his Italian tailor said recently.

Angelo Litrico said Khrushchev still buys his suits from him.

Khrushchev's daughter, Rhada, wife of former Izvestia newspaper editor Alexei Adzhubel, gave him news of the former Soviet leader when she wrote to order clothes, the tailor said.

"She said he is not well," he said today. "He had a second, smaller operation on his kidneys about three months ago following the big one last year. He stays quietly in his country dacha."

The small, swarthy tailor said he sent Khrushchev a suit and a coat about two months ago. Instead of paying in currency, Khrushchev sent an ikon and a box of caviar.

"Now I have about 60 ikons from him all over my walls," said Litrico.

TIGNISH

Tignish Air Cadet Squadron No. 641 have sent the following cadets to camp at Greenwood, N.S. with Officer Edward Trembley: David Gaudet, Lorne MacDonald, Ronnie Broderick, Michael Brander, Howard Hozan, Carl Doucette, Earnest Richard.

Gerald Handrahan, manager of the Tignish Co-operative had the misfortune to have one finger badly severed and another one badly cut while working around a tractor at his home. Mr. Handrahan was given medical treatment by Dr. S. Dubucac of Montreal who is spending his summer holidays in Tignish.
