Are You Wearing a Skull-Cap of Dirt on Your Scalp?

Hair is "Catch-All" for Dust, Dirt, Smoke in the Air

Your hair collects more dirt in one hour than your entire body does in a day. Actual tests prove this.

You should wash your hair at least once a week to keep the scalp clean, healthy and free from that almost invisible film made up of scalp oil, perspiration, dried skin particles, dust and smoke. This waxy accumulation may fit as closely over your head as a plastic skull-cap—sealing the pores and cutting off nourishment from the hair.

Dandruff or an excess of falling hair often warn you of this—and tell you your hair and scalp need immediate attention.

Simply dissolve and wash away all dirt and dandruff with Fitch Dandruff Remover Shampoo—the only shampoo guaranteed to remove dandruff. Fitch is stimulating and refreshing to the scalp—because it works right down into the thousands of tiny hair openings in your scalp. It leaves them antiseptically clean—able to breathe freely again so your hair can grow lustrous, healthy and alive-looking.

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. KATHERINE A. MACINNIS

A beautiful and inspiring life came to a close, when, at 10 o'clock on the morning of Saturday, May 13th, the death of Mrs. Katherine A. MacInnis occurred at the Charlottetown Hospital.

Although the late Mrs. MacInnis was in her ninety-first year, to her friends, and their name was legion, she was not old except in years, and in wisdom—the gift of the years. Her heart and mind remained young, while her entire life was sanctified by her love of God. She died as she had lived, fortified by the rites of her holy Faith.

She was born at St. George's, Kings County, and received her education at the district school, Miscouche Convent and Notre Dame Academy. She was one of the oldest alumna of the latter institution.

A few years after her marriage to the late John A. MacInnis of St. Peter's Bay, the family removed to Winnipeg, Manitoba, where they resided until, after a few short years of ideally happy married life, death claimed her beloved husband. Following her bereavement Mrs. MacInnis returned to Prince Edward Island with her three young daughters. For a number of years the family lived in San Francisco, California, but in 1922 returned to Charlottetown.

There are left to mourn their great loss and to cherish the beautiful memory of her saintly life, two daughters, Sister Mary Polycarp of the Sisters of Charity of the Blessed Virgin Mary of Mundelein College, Chicago, Illinois, and Miss Anna J. MacInnis of Charlottetown.

Her funeral Mass in St. Dunstan's Basilica, Charlottetown, was celebrated by her nephew Rev. George A. McCormack, pastor of Tyrone, Lot 65, assisted by Rev. J. Wilfred McCordle, Chancellor of the diocese, as deacon and Rev. P. F. MacDonald as sub-deacon. Interment took place in St. George's, with Father McCormack officiating, assisted by the pastor, Rev. Bennett MacDonald.

The pall-bearers in Charlottetown were Lt.-Col. Leo F. MacDonald, Lt.-Col. W. J. MacDonald, Ian Burnett, James Duffy, Donald MacDonald and Maurice Redmond; at St. George's, Frank MacInnis, Joseph Walker, Augustine MacDonald, James MacDonald, William Somers and Joseph Campbell.

CARD OF THANKS

The family of the late Mrs. Katherine A. MacInnis desires to express sincere gratitude to their many friends for Mass Cards, Spiritual Bouquets, Floral Tributes, Enrollments, Telegrams, Messages of Sympathy and many other acts of kindness on the occasion of their recent sad bereavement.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Stafford MacDonald who died June 21st, 1949.

Sleep on dear one,
Such lives as thine
Have not been lived in vain;
But shed an influence rare, divine
On lives that still remain.

Fondly Remembered by

VICTORIA W. M. S.

The regular monthly meeting of the Evening Auxiliary of the W. M. S. Victoria was held at the home of Mrs. Fred C. Inman on Thursday Evening, June 1st with twelve members and one visitor present. The president, Mrs. Evan Wright was in charge and the programme as made out in the Missionary Monthly was carried out.

The Study Book was in charge of Mrs. Norman Boulter and proved a very interesting period. Several discussions took place on various items of interest and the minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. The Friendship Committee Convener gave her report, and a number of members brought in reports of sick and friendly calls made, sick cards and letters of sympathy sent, etc., which proved very encouraging to all concerned.

The meeting closed in the usual way after which dainty and novel refreshments were served, the hostess being assisted by the committee in charge Miss Kathleen Picketts and Miss Florence MacDougall. Next place of meeting to be at the home of Mrs. Keith Boswell—V

MRS. LEBERT MACHON

The community of Lower Montague was greatly shocked and saddened on Sunday evening May 28th, when it became known that Mrs. Lebert Machon had passed away very suddenly at her home there.

Mrs. Machon who was sixty-seven years of age, was formerly Elsie Penny, daughter of the late Vere Penny and his wife, Mary Cohoon, of Murray Harbor. The early portion of her married life was spent at White Sands where all her family were born. About thirteen years ago she and her husband sold their farm there and with their younger son, Robert and wife, removed to Lower Montague where Mr. Machon Sr. passed away in 1942.

About two years ago Mrs. Machon was seized with a heart ailment and spent the greater part of the summer confined to bed. She at length recovered sufficiently to do light work around the home, but last fall was again stricken and spent considerable time in the Kings County Hospital. She was mostly confined to bed throughout the winter and as spring advanced was noticeably failing, but sat up a part of each day. The end was very peaceful. She was sitting in her chair reading, with her daughter-in-law present in the room. The book was seen to slip from her fingers and she expired almost immediately.

Mrs. Machon possessed a kindly and charitable disposition, but never sought for publicity. She was devoted to her home and family. Although quiet and home-loving she had many friends, and among all her associates she was affectionately known as "Gram." During her long illness she was devotedly cared for by her son's wife, who was faithfully assisted in the past year by Miss Helen Landrigan of Sturgeon.

She leaves to mourn the passing of a devoted mother two sons: Freeman of Chicago who was present at the funeral, and Robert in the home (and his son, Ray), also one daughter, Margie, Mrs. Chester LeLacheur of Murray Harbor, and one brother, Ernest Penny, of the same place, also seven other grandchildren. There were many beautiful floral tributes, showing the high esteem in which she was held.

The funeral was held on Wednesday, May 31st and was conducted by her pastor, Rev. Dr. A. D. MacKenzie at the Lower Montague United Church where a very large congregation assembled to pay their respects. The hymns sung were "What a Friend We Have in Jesus," "Rock of Ages" and a trio, "The Haven of Rest" by Messrs. Lorne Wigginton, Jack Annear and Howard Vickerson. Interment was in Lower Montague cemetery.

The pall bearers were Lloyd Collings, Roy Aitken, John Landrigan, Lemuel Robertson, Louis Wright and Harvey Ross.

The names of those sending flowers were as follows:

IN MEMORIAM

MR. W. E. STRICKLAND

The death occurred in the P.E.I. Hospital on June 4th, after an illness of three months of W. E. Strickland in his 79th year. Mr. Strickland was the eldest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Strickland of this city, and spent the greater part of his life in Calgary, Alberta. As a young man he learned the trade of Tailor with the late D. A. Bruce, and worked at his trade here for several years before leaving for Calgary with his wife in the year 1906. For a time he worked at his trade in Calgary then he and Mr. George Mutch went into the wholesale produce business together, the firm being known as the "Calgary Produce Co." On the death of his partner Mr. Strickland carried on the business for a number of years, then he sold out and took a position with the McLeod dept. store where he remained until his retirement. In August 1948 Mr. and Mrs. Strickland returned to Charlottetown. Mrs. Strickland being in poor health at that time. Mr. Strickland was a faithful member of the United Church, a true Christian gentleman. He made many friends who will sincerely mourn his passing especially in Calgary where he was so well and favorably known.

He leaves to mourn the loss of a kind husband and brother, his widow, nee Frances Poole, also two sisters Mrs. H. L. Hardy and Mrs. S. L. Hardy of this city. Also two brothers, Hubert of this city and Frederick of South Weymouth, Mass.

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. SARAH PHILLIPS

There passed peacefully away at the home of her daughter in O'Leary on June 2nd, Sarah Phillips, widow of the late Alfred Phillips of Arlington, Lot 14.

Born at Huntley, P. E. I., on January 24th, 1868, she was the daughter of the late John and Eliza (Campbell) Gordon.

She was a niece of the Rev. George and James Gordon who gave their lives in their Master's service in Eromanga.

After her marriage she lived at Arlington until 1929, when she moved to Tyne Valley and later Summerside, residing with her sisters Mary and Annie Gordon until three years ago, she went to live with her daughter in O'Leary.

She was a devoted mother, a true friend and a loyal member of her church, a place which was seldom vacant until sickness prevented her from attending.

She leaves to mourn three children, Mildred, Mrs. George T. Pickering, Westport, Conn.; Isabelle, Mrs. Kenneth Campbell, O'Leary, and William G. on the homestead at Arlington Lot 14, a daughter Mary predeceased her a few years ago, a sister, Miss Annie Gordon of Summerside survives.

The funeral services were held from the old home, conducted by the Rev. Mr. MacKay, assisted by Rev. Dr. S. R. Prince of Lot 16.

A mixed choir under the direction of Mrs. Percy Birch led in the singing, the Hymns used were favorites of the deceased. "The Lord's My Shepherd", "Rock of Ages", "Peace Perfect Peace".

The funeral was under the direction of Mr. Claude Jelly of O'Leary. The flower bearers were Stewart Montgomery, Stanley MacLean, Clarence and Victor Ramsay.

She was tenderly borne to her last resting place in the Lot 14 Presbyterian Cemetery by her grandchildren, George, Ralph, Wendell, Carlyle Phillips, William Pickering and Layton Smith to await the glorious resurrection.

Sincere sympathy is extended to the bereaved.
