Murray River Edges Georgetown In Hockey Game

On Monday night the Bone Crushers from Murray River mauled out a close 8-7 decision over the Georgetown Wild Cats in a bruising, clawing and action-packed contest, which kept the fans on their toes and many of the players a seat in the sin-bin. The initial session ended in a 4-4 tie but the middle period was the one in which the visitors outscored the locals, as they plunked in three counters to the Cats' one. In the final session the Wild Cats netted two and the visitors one, to give them their one goal win, with the final count reading 8-7.

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. GEORGE P. CLAPP

On Tuesday, December 26th, 1950, the people of Bay Fortune were saddened to learn of the passing of Mrs. George Clapp in her 78th year. Although she had been in failing health for some months, she bore her illness with Christian patience and fortitude. Mrs. Clapp was the former Ethel Elizabeth Mills, daughter of the late Elizabeth and John J. Mills of Bay Fortune. Besides her sorrowing husband, she leaves to mourn their loss, one daughter Ruth, Mrs. Elliott Dingwell, Little Pond; three sisters Ella, Bathurst, N. B.; Florence, Providence, R. I. and Bessie E. Weymouth, Mass., also grandchildren, nieces and nephews, one brother Ernest and two sisters Mabel and Lella predeceased her.

The funeral service at her home on December 28th was largely attended and was conducted by her pastor, Rev. Mr. Corkum of Bay Fortune United Church, of which she was a faithful member. Rev. Mr. Corkum spoke words of courage and comfort to the bereaved family. The hymns sung were: "Nearer My God to Thee", "Jesus Lover of My Soul", also a solo "The Old Rugged Cross" by Rev. Mr. Corkum.

The pallbearers were: William Mills, Charles Mills, Reid Underhay, William Fisher, Harold Stead and Harry Burke.

Many floral tributes testified to the esteem in which the deceased was held. Interment in Bay Fortune Cemetery "there to await the resurrection morn."

Card Of Thanks

Mr. G. P. Clapp and Family wish to thank all their neighbours and friends, also those who sent flowers and cards of sympathy and all others who helped in any way during their recent sad bereavement.
