Student Health Plan

Attention new full-time students

Students who have just started full-time studies in January, please be advised that the deadline to opt out of the Student Health Plan is February 4, 1995. Students may opt out only if they are currently enrolled in a comparable health plan. Bring proof of coverage (plan card or verification letter) and student ID to the Student Union Office, 9:00 to 4:00. Please do not wait until fees have been paid, students who have missed the deadline dates are ineligible to opt out due to the Student Union insurance deadline dates. If you have any questions regarding the Student Health Plan, please call (566-0530) or drop in to the Student Union Office, in the Barn.

Professional Theatre Workshop this Weekend

Actress, writer, and director, Trilby Jeeves will hold an acting workshop in Room 108 of the Robertson Library on January 21 and 22. Ms. Jeeves is a graduate of the prestigious Conservatoire d'Art Dramatique in Quebec City. She has appeared in many stage, film, television and video productions.

The workshop will use improvisation to develop concentration, active listening, and complete focus. In addition, Ms. Jeeves will introduce the "reper method" of writing. This is a technique often used by the world-renowned actor and director Robert LePage.

The course costs $50 and runs from 9-12 and 1-4 on Saturday, January 21 and Sunday, January 22. No experience is necessary, but comfortable clothing and a sense of fun are recommended. Those interested should contact either Joan or Barry Jeeves at 892-9398 or Theatre PEI at 566-0424.

Get Away From It All

Experience a Student Exchange

Have you ever thought about going to university overseas, such as in Australia? Discover a whole new world of education in a foreign land. UPEI offers its students the opportunity to take one or two semesters at a university in another country. The best part is that your courses will be credited towards your degree at UPEI. If you are interested in experiencing university abroad, please stop in and see me, Wendy, at Student Services. My office hours are Tuesday 1:00-4:30, Thursday 1:30-4:30, and Friday 1:00-4:30. I'm looking forward to meeting you.

Wendy MacDonald
Foreign Exchange Advisor

UPEI Awards

Several awards ranging from $125 to $300 are available for the second semester and will be awarded by the Scholarship and Bursary Committee in February.

Full-time students in any year may apply. One of the major requirements considered is need.

Application forms are available at the Registrar's Office or at Student Services. Closing date for applications is Friday, February 10, 1995.

WUSC Symposium Series 1995

Education for All: From Rights to Reality!

"Education for All: From Rights to Reality!" is the theme of the 1995 WUSC International Development Symposium Series. Two international guest speakers are scheduled to visit Ottawa, Vancouver, Camrose, Winnipeg, Saskatoon, Windsor, Toronto, Montreal, Moncton, Halifax and Charlottetown.

Fatima Friere Dowbor, an educational specialist and teacher from Brazil will share her experiences in teaching in Latin America. John Hardbattle, affiliated with indigenous NGOs in Botswana, will examine the challenges facing indigenous peoples and education globally.

To coincide with International Development week in February, WUSC Local Committees across Canada will be organizing conferences, workshops, popular education activities and other special events on this theme. This year, the Symposium will also link with the Global Change Game and the 3rd International United Nations Forum at York University.

If you would like more information or are interested in becoming actively involved, please contact Glenn Gallant at 894-3298 and Steve Shoemaker at 566-1463, or drop by the Breezeway, Thursday, January 19, 1995, from 10:00 am to 3:00 pm. Local WUSC committee members will be available with information about WUSC, other developments, activities, and about the upcoming WUSC conference to be held on campus from February 10-12, 1995.

People involved with WUSC are also eligible to apply for a 12-week Student Internship in Sri Lanka. Drop by to find out more information. The deadline for eligibility to apply for this summer opportunity is January 31, 1995.
