York Highlights

—Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Chandler of North Milton motored to York on Monday, February 23rd, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Vessey.

Mrs. Earl Ling has returned to her home in York after visiting in Wheatley River, the guest of Mrs. Cora Ling, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Andrews and Mr. and Mrs. Locksley Bowen, over the week-end of February 22nd.

The many friends and relatives of Mrs. William Bowen, in York, Covehead and vicinities will regret to learn she is confined to her bed with an attack of the "flu". Her many friends wish her a speedy recovery.

Messrs Grove MacMillan, Chelsey Hughes and Bernard May of West Covehead motored to York, attending the York rifle shoot, on Thursday evening, February 19th.

Messrs Charley Marshall, Charley Boyer, Stanley Strickland and Seymour Birt were among those from Covehead Road who attended the rifle shoot in the club rooms on February 19th.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Swan of Charlottetown motored to York last week, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Swan.

School pals and friends were pleased to see Miss Beryl Vessey sufficiently recovered from her attack of "flu" to resume her school studies.

The York Rifle Club held a shoot recently in their club room with a fair attendance of shooters. Mr. Seymour Birt chalked up the highest score of 97 for the night's shooting.

Little Miss Vera Mallett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mallett of York was guest of honour on February 12th when her mother entertained in her honour at a birthday party. The occasion was little Vera's second birthday. Ice cream, cake and other delicacies were enjoyed by all present, among whom were the Ellis children from Stanhope, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Ellis and Mrs. James MacLaughlan, also of Stanhope.

Many fans from York, Covehead, and Stanhope motored to North River on Thursday, February 19th where they enjoyed two very close, contested games of hockey. Marshfield Ramblers crossed sticks with York Rangers, resulting in a 4 to 3 victory for the Ramblers. Again these fans were thrilled when Covehead Flyers kept Dunstaffnage Bombers to a 3-3 tie, even after an overtime period was played.

The first game of the semi-finals of the Intermediate C Hockey League was played at North River Ring on Monday night, when a large number of fans viewed the double header between Covehead Flyers and York Rangers, also Marshfield Ramblers with Dun-

Gets Top Spot In Russian Army

Marshall V. Sokolovsky, who led the Russian forces in the capture of Berlin in the last days of the war, has been made commander-in-chief of the Soviet armed forces. He was in command of Berlin's East Sector at the time of the airlift and it was believed his policies forced the Western powers into organizing the airlift which kept Berliners from starving.

staffnage-Mount Stewart Bombers. The York Rangers defeated the Covehead Flyers, a 5-2 victory with many a thrill while Marshfield Ramblers defeated the Bombers to a score of 6-1.

The Princess Ann's sewing club held their weekly meeting on the afternoon of February 23rd at 3:30 with the president in the chair. Miss Joyce Ling was secretary pro tem in the absence of Miss Muriel MacDonald. Minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. Roll call was answered by 16 members. A motion that a fee of 10 cents be paid by members was moved, seconded and carried and collection was taken. Mrs. R. Murray and Mrs. E. Ling, sewing instructors, assisted in finishing of the towels and starting some members with their patches.

The Mission Band of York United Church met on Friday afternoon, February 13th with their leader, Mrs. Ira Lewis, presiding. The Mission Band purpose was repeated by all those present, followed by a children's hymn. Minutes were read and approved and roll call was answered by naming the thing liked best from Santa. Collection amounted to 92 cents. A story was read by the leader and Miss Wood read a chapter from the Bible. A large number of members was present. All played a jolly game, and candy and cookies was given to the children. Benediction closed the meeting.

The principal, Miss Christine Proude, and assistant, Miss Catherine Wood entertained their pupils in their classrooms at enjoyable Valentine parties. A pretty Valentine box was filled to overflowing as tokens of Cupid's wishes passed from one little friend to another through the medium of the box in the junior room. The box was opened on Friday afternoon February 13th and many Valentines were given out. Games and delicious refreshments were enjoyed. In the senior room a very prettily decorated box trimmed with red and white paper and Valentines was made by the Misses Shirley and Fern Vessey and Annabelle Hardy. It too was filled to overflowing. Apples and candy was the teacher's treat to her pupils. A jolly afternoon was enjoyed by all. —B.P.
