

A Poolful Of Young Fry

Every fine summer afternoon crowds of youngsters under 12 swarm into the Kiwanis Kiddies Wading Pool in Victoria Park, Charlottetown. Being shallow water at one end and deeper at the other, the pool suits all ages. Activities are under careful supervision. Children who break the rules are promptly banished.—(Photo by Margaret Mallett).

ANNIVERSARY PARTY—Mr. and Mrs. James E. Cudmore, Montague, were the guests of honor at a party at the summer cottage of Dr. G. S. A. Inman, on Friday evening, on the occasion of their 15th wedding anniversary. Approximately thirty guests were present, many of whom were from Charlottetown. Mrs. Ralph Beck read an address, and a gift was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Cudmore in honor of the occasion. Mr. Cudmore expressed his deep appreciation for the kindness of their many friends in making their anniversary so much the more commemorable by the delightful party in their honor, and for the lovely gift which would always be a remembrance of the happy occasion.

Says Quints To Separate Again

MONTREAL, (CP)—L'Espresso says in a newspaper story that the Dionne quintuplets will separate again in the fall to continue their studies.

The story Saturday says Cecile and Yvonne will enter nursing school at Notre-Dame-de-l'Espérance Hospital in suburban Ville St. Laurent Sept. 1. About the same time Annette will enter the Pedagogical Institute in Montreal, administered by les Dames de la Congregation, a Roman Catholic religious order.

Marie, who recently left a cloistered religious order in Quebec City, will enter a religious house "in the east of the country, for a period of rest," the story says.

Emile, the fifth quint, will go with Marie.

The story says the separation will be only temporary and eventually the quint will be back together.

DR. JOHNSTON'S dental office, Montague, will be closed until August 9.

WHIM ROAD W. L.

Mrs. Webb Nicholson was hostess to members of Whim Road Women's Institute when they recently held their monthly meeting. The president, Mrs. Leslie Stuart, opened the meeting with the "Collect for Club Women." Mrs. M. J. Munro, secretary, called the roll to which members responded with "A Kindness Someone Has Done For Me." There was an attendance of nine together with three visitors.

The Red Cross Convener, Mrs. Cecil Campbell reported that the Red Cross work distributed among the members had been almost completed and would be delivered to their office in Charlottetown in the near future.

Mrs. Wesley Campbell gave an interesting report on the Institute handbook which is being revised.

Correspondence received by the secretary during the month included an Appeal from the Salvation Army for "Sunset Lodge." Canvassers appointed to cover the district were: Johnny Clary and Robert Stuart. The King's County Hospital acknowledge a donation previously received from the Institute.

The delegates to the annual district convention executive meeting held in Heatherdale recently brought back an interesting report of plans for the coming convention. The district convention this year is to be held in Grandview.

The committees for the month gave their reports as follows: Sick, several calls were reported made during the month. Appointed were Mrs. Russell MacBeth and Mrs. Mrs. Nicholson; school. It was agreed that new just broom be bought, the Institute to pay part of the cost. It was agreed that the music teacher, Mr. Vernon Ross, hold classes again for the coming school year. An amount was voted towards a treat for the school children; entertainment.

The program for the evening consisted of several written contests held by Mrs. Robert Campbell and Mrs. M. J. Munro, winners were: Miss Edith MacDonald and Mrs. Lawrence Stuart; penny sale. The monthly penny sale was held by Mrs. Garnet Moore and the holder of the lucky ticket was Mrs. Wesley Campbell.

The next meeting is to be held in the school house. Roll call at this meeting is to be a joke and payment of five cents, also an item for a "Whim Elephant Sale." There is to be an exchange of magazines at this meeting.

At the conclusion of the evening the hostess, Mrs. Nicholson served a delightful lunch, assisted by several of the members.

Wheel Chair Coach Visits Montague

"The Walter Gallow wheel chair coach visited Montague and vicinity Saturday and Sunday, and fourteen guests were taken for a delightful drive through the country. Arriving at the Riverview tourist home in Lower Montague about five p.m., they were served delicious refreshments by Mrs. Thomas Jackson, proprietress. The guests were accompanied by Miss Annabelle McEachern, hostess, Ozro Jonah, driver, and Mrs. Leon Johnston, Mrs. Carl Stewart, Mrs. Bernard Cann, and Mrs. Sandy MacDonald of Acme Rebekah Lodge, Montague, which sponsored the visit of the Gallow coach.

The Order also sponsored a Callow tag day on Saturday, the entire proceeds of which will be sent to the Callow Veterans and Invalids Welfare League. This has become an annual event in Montague sponsored by the lodge, and has been welcomed and well received by the many patients who have taken advantage of the occasion to benefit from the visit of the coach.

Unemployment Is Key Trouble

EDMONTON, (CP)—Unemployment emerged Wednesday as one of the key problems facing the three-day CCF national convention.

As more than 200 delegates met for the opening of their 13th annual convention, they heard:

1. A labor spokesman expressed fear that this autumn might bring Canada her worst unemployment in history.

2. The party's national council advise through its annual report that the ranks of the jobless now total approximately 136,000 more than they did at this time last year.
